

The Herald and News

E. H. AULL, EDITOR.

The Legislature meets next Tuesday. The most important matter likely to come up will be the liquor question, and we have been discussing that now for eight years.

New Year resolutions are in order. It is well, for it is better to make them and break some than not to make any. If we never resolve to improve and do better it is quite certain we never will improve.

We have received notice from the Seaboard Air Line Railroad that Mr. L. S. Allen has been appointed general passenger agent, with headquarters at Portsmouth, Va. We suppose Mr. T. J. Anderson, who has held that position, retires from the service of the road.

Those of us who live into the year 2000 will see the beginning of the new wonderful century the world has yet known. It will bring changes which none of us can yet even dream of.—Greenville News.

But the trouble of it is that not many of us will likely "live into the year 2000."

Here we are in the beginning of the new year. Let us determine to help each other and work together for the up-building of our town and county. Let us determine we shall have some new enterprise that will bring in circulation some of the idle money that is hereabouts. The cotton mill and oil mill have done much for the business of the town and if we had more such enterprises it would still be better.

It is rumored that Lieutenant-Governor McSwenney will be a candidate to succeed Governor Ellerbe. Governor McSwenney has not expressed any intention of being a candidate, but should he enter the race he will be a winner, as there is no man in public life more deserving than he for public recognition.—Manning Times.

Gov. McSwenney is very popular and has many friends in the State who will give him hearty support for almost anything to which he may aspire. One reason for his popularity is his loyalty to his friends. Then he is deserving and competent.

A Remedy for Hog Cholera.

A hog cholera and swine plague is raging in the country, and I will ask you to publish the following remedy, taken from Farmers Bulletin No. 24, by D. O. Salron, D. V. M., Chief of Bureau Animal Industry:

- Wood charcoal..... Pounds. 1
Sulphur..... 1
Sodium chloride..... 2
Sodium bicarbonate..... 2
Sodium hyposulphite..... 2
Sodium sulphate..... 1
Antimony sulphide (black antimony)..... 1

"These ingredients should be completely pulverized and thoroughly mixed. The dose of this mixture is a large tablespoonful for each 250 pounds weight of hogs to be treated, and it should be given only once a day. When hogs are affected with these diseases, they should not be fed on corn alone, but they should have at least once a day soft feed, made by mixing bran and middlings, or middlings and corn meal, or ground oats and corn, and then stirring into this the proper quantity of the medicine. Hogs are fond of this mixture. It increases their appetite, and when they once taste of food with which it has been mixed they will eat it, though nothing else will tempt them. Animals that are very sick and that will not come to the feed should be drenched with the medicine shaken up with water. Great care should be exercised in drenching hogs, or they will be suffocated. Do not turn the hog on its back to drench it, but pull the check away from the teeth so as to form a pouch, into which the medicine may be slowly poured. It will flow from the check into the mouth and when the hog finds out what it is it will stop squealing and swallow."

"This medicine is also a preventive and should be put in the feed of the whole herd. Care should be taken to see that each hog gets its share. In cases where it has been given a fair trial it has apparently cured most of the animals which were sick and has stopped the progress of the disease in the herd. It also appears to be an excellent appetizer and stimulant of the process of digestion and assimilation, and when given to the unthrifty hogs it increases the appetite, causes them to take on flesh, and assume a thrifty appearance."

Bulletin No. 24 will be sent free to any person who will send to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. Or if any one will let me know by postal card, I will have one sent him.

A FAMILY REUNION.

The Editor Spends a Pleasant Time at Home With the Old Folks and all the Young Folks Too.

We have made it a rule of our life to visit the old folks at home as often as it were possible. We expect to keep it up as long as they live and remain at the old homestead. It is true the present home was not the home of our childhood and we spent very few years with them there and apart from the fact that they live there, there is little of interest to us. The old home in Newberry County has many more pleasant associations to us than the one in Greenwood County, for it was there that our childhood and youth were spent and around the old hills and valleys cluster many pleasant memories. We love at times to dwell on these and the old school house at St. Paul's and the hickory nut trees that used to stand in the church yard grove and the sweet gum tree down at the spring and the boys and girls that were with us in the school in those days—all these things we say come back to us with pleasant memories.

But back in the seventies we moved to Edgefield County, now Greenwood, and that is now home because father and mother live there. We spent two years at the school house that stands near by and soon after that went off to college and since then we have only made visits there. It is true some friendships and school associations were formed then which are pleasant to recall but they appear somehow different to those formed at the old home in this county.

It has been twenty-one years since we left the parental roof to enter college. It is true it seems but yesterday and we can scarce realize that so many years have come and gone since then. We still feel very much like a school boy and in a sense we are, for we are ready and willing to learn. We have been through the mill since those days and have been tossed against the rough edges of the world, but still we are but a school boy.

We feel like writing something of this reunion, even though it were a reunion of our own family, and as the family once lived in this county and has many friends and relations among our readers we hope no one will consider what we say improper or out of place in the editor.

In many respects the family has been greatly blessed and for these blessings we are humbly and truly grateful.

Jacob Luther Aull is the youngest son of the Rev. Herman Aull, and was born in December, 1835. Of a large family he has one half brother, Mr. Wm. Werts of Mountville, and one full sister, Mrs. L. C. Hunter, of Newberry, still living. In May, 1856, he was married to Miss Julia Ann Haultwanger, of Edgefield County. Of this union five sons and two daughters were born. He lived at the old homestead of his father in this county until 1873 when he moved to Edgefield, now Greenwood County, where he now resides. Of the seven children one son, Jacob Osborne, died in infancy in 1860, aged one year. The others have all grown to manhood and womanhood and are still living. They are Elbert H. Aull, the editor of this paper, who married Alice Kinard in February, 1881; Rowena, who married Rev. W. W. Daniel, of the Methodist church, and is now living in Anderson; Nathan E. Aull, who is principal of the Prosperity Graded School; Eva, who married Mr. Arthur Timmerman, of Edgefield County; William Bowman Aull, who is now in the Theological Seminary at Mt. Pleasant, S. C., preparing for the Lutheran ministry, and Luther Baelman Aull, who is at present in the office of The Herald and News, and is reading medicine. We have a pardonable pride in the fact that all the boys are graduates of Newberry College.

Of the grandchildren, one is dead—Julia, our oldest, died at seven. The others are John Kinard Aull, Elbert Herman Aull, James Luther Aull, Alice Aull and Humbert Mayer Aull. And Herman Aull Daniel, Willie Daniel, and Walter Wright Daniel, in all eight grandchildren, six boys and two girls. You see we have been greatly blessed. In nearly forty-three years there have been only two deaths in the immediate family and for this blessing we return most grateful thanks to the Giver of all good. And, too, the father and mother are where they started. They two started life together and the children that came have grown up and gone out and left them and they are left to themselves again to end the journey together. Such is life and we trust they may have a happy and pleasant ending together and that they may be spared yet many years to pursue the journey together.

But we started out to speak of the reunion. Since we began to leave home to take up the journey of life on our own account we have never all met there at the same time. But the past week it so happened that we could all be there together and we went, children and grandchildren, and it made a pretty good company, but we were all there—nineteen of us, and it was a pleasant occasion. We may never all have that privilege again. It is not probable that we will.

Mother killed the turkey and the pig and baked the cakes and gave us sauer kraut and pudding and sausage and we had plenty of good things to eat and we felt like a boy again, and she was glad to see us and sorry when we had to leave. Like all good mothers, she would be glad for us to come every day and stay all night. But we have duties to perform and parts to play in life's drama and we can't stay. It was intended that we should grow out of childhood into manhood and go off, set up our own vine and fig tree and so we had to bid them good-bye, but we shall return again and it won't be long. We have been doing it for the last twenty years and shall continue as long as the old folks stay there. In fact to us they do not seem like old folks and we do not believe they ever will.

But the occasion of this reunion was not simply a reunion. Our only single sister, Eva, was married to Mr. Arthur Timmerman, of Edgefield County, on the 29th, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. W. W. Daniel. It was a quiet home wedding, only the members of the family being present. His parents are both dead. We know very little of him but he seems to be a nice fellow and we hope and believe he will make our happy and give her a good home. He comes of a good family, being a nephew of State Treasurer Timmerman.

Altogether it was a pleasant occasion and we hope we may all live to have another reunion in the near future.

The readers will pardon us for what may seem a personal narrative but we felt that many of them would be interested in it. We do not often speak of ourselves and we trust you will not think this once inappropriate.

We have four boys, as you see from the above, and it is our hope and ambition to graduate them from Newberry College. Two of them are now students there.

We wish we could instill more love for the old homestead in all our boys and all the boys and girls who may read this. It is needed in this age. There is need of more sentiment.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Pl. in field, Ill., makes the statement that she caught a cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from the first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found her self sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at Pelham's & Robertson's Gilder's Drug Store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

Excellent Etchings.

A happy New Year to The Herald and News types and readers.

Our school opens again this morning after enjoying the holidays.

The weather during Christmas was most delightful and all seemed to enjoy the occasion.

Prof. J. S. Wheeler lost a good horse on Saturday night with something like blind staggers.

Mr. Berley Cromer and family, of Colony section, moved in this community last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Long, of Garmany section, paid us a pleasant visit during the holidays.

We had a good attendance at the service Sunday afternoon.

Mr. J. W. Kinard, of Columbia, spent a few days with his mother's family here during the holidays.

Mr. J. H. Kibler and daughter, Mrs. Thos. Epps, visited Mr. J. D. Stone's family during the holidays.

Some few entertainments were enjoyed by the young folks in this section during the holidays.

Mrs. Crosson and son, Mr. Horace, of Leesville, visited in this section last week.

Mr. John Metzko and wife visited relatives near Slighs last week.

Mr. G. S. Long has been on a visit to Mr. A. M. Counts' family.

Miss Eunice Halfacre, of Newberry, visited in this and St. Paul's communities during the holidays.

Miss Marie Dominick is spending a few days with Mr. J. A. Rikard's family, of Long Lane section.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Miller, of Slighs, visited relatives in this section during the holidays.

Messrs. Charlie and James Counts, of near Pomaria, have been visiting Mr. J. C. Singley's family here.

A good many of our people are off to Newberry today.

Mrs. A. P. Dominick has been confined to her room for several days quite sick with the grip.

The year 1898 is gone and all our shortcomings are numbered with the past to face us at a future day.

Miss Susie Sumner and Julia Paisley, two of Newberry's charming young ladies, spent the Christmas holidays with relatives and friends in this community.

Miss Minnie Livingston, of Newberry, visited her mother's family, in this section, during the holidays.

SIGMA.

Robbed In Grave

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, back and sides, no appetite, gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cts per bottle at Pelham's & Robertson's Gilder's Drug Store.

If you wish a useful Christmas present for father or mother, sister or brother, son or daughter, call at Jamieson's and buy a pair of Fine Shoes, Suit of Clothes, Hat or Cravat and present them. t&f.

THE NEW YEAR!

I desire to thank all of my friends for the patronage they have so kindly bestowed upon me for the year 1898, and to ask them to give me more of their business for the New Year 1899. I feel confident that no merchant in this State has furnished his customers the same class of goods at as small a profit as I have and I could not have done so had I not used my store in Newberry as a distributing point for the large Wholesale House in Philadelphia I represent in South Carolina. And the further fact, that I sell exclusively for Cash. My competitors are fast realizing that they will be forced to adopt the Cash System in order to be able to meet my prices. I hope to increase my business ten thousand dollars in 1899, and this means that I propose to do more than ever, to get the Cash trade. Always keep in mind, that it does not make any difference what prices are made to you, that

"Jones Sells for Less!"

For the next two weeks I will sell all Colored Wool Fall and Winter Dress Goods, Ladies' Capes, and Jackets, Men's Woman's and Children's Rubber Overshoes, Mens' and Women's McIntosh Coats, Mens' Pants, Mens' Women's and Children's Woolen Underwear at our low Cash prices—less, 25 per cent. discount—and everything in the store at close on to wholesale price in order to reduce stock and make room for New Spring Goods, come and see me often,
