We call your attention to the quarterly statement of the Newberry Savings Bank, published in this issue. It makes a good showing and is very creditable to the management.

Editor E. H. Aull, of Newberry, was in the city last week. Mr. Aull is one of the most successful newspaper men in the State and gets out a paper that is creditable to the town he so well represents. THE NEWBERRY DISPENSARY.

The Profits and Sales for the Quarter Ending December 31, 1898.

The Newberry dispensary did a big business the last quarter in 1898. The total sales for the three months were $10,837.77.

At the beginning of the quarter there was stock on hand to the amount of $1,061.84. The total purchases from the State dispensary, including stock on hand, were as follows:

Stock on hand end of last quarter.....$ 1,061.84
Purchases for October..... 3,803.80
Purchases for November..... 3,694.25
Purchases for December..... 3,911.16
Total stock.....$12,471.15

From the quarterly report we get the following figures:

Mistake on 80 proof rye.....$ 2.31
Shortage allowed by State..... 2.60
Breakage charged to expense account..... 32.00
Total sales for quarter..... 10,837.77
$10,874.68

Out of this amount it is stated that a total gross profit of $2,576.49 for the quarter was made when the expense account is taken off leaves a net profit for the town and county of $2,104.10.

Gross profit on sales.....$2,576.49
Expense for quarter..... 472.39
Net profit.....$2,104.10
The expense account is made up of the following items:

Dispenser's salary.....$199.98
Clerk's salary..... 90.00
Rent..... 49.50
Drayage..... 12.00
Stationery and postage..... 1.30
J. A. C. Kibler, Co. Board..... 18.00
J. J. Mayer, Co. Board..... 20.40
Jacob Senn, Co. Board..... 12.00
Jacob Senn, opening whiskey..... 12.00
Breakage..... 32.00
Cleaning water closet..... 75
Rent telephone..... 6.00
Ice for October..... 1.20
Broom..... 25
Help Christmas week..... 10.50
Wrapping paper and freight..... 5.82
Total.....$472.39

It will be seen from these figures that even though we hear much of hard times, our people have spent through the dispensary a little more than ten thousand dollars for whiskey in three months. There is one advantage in it, however, they have contributed of this amount a little more than one thousand dollars to the treasury of the town and the same amount to the expenses of the county.

While this looks like a big whiskey sale under the old bar-room system a great deal more whiskey would have been sold in Newberry during these three months than was sold by the dispensary. And yet the dispensary sales do not represent the total liquor sales during these three months for there was a good deal ordered for private use and shipped in.

The Newberry dispensary has done a fairly good business all the time and has been well managed. We have heard no complaints in regard to it.

AN EVENING WITH THE RED MEN.

The Occasion of the First Annual Banquet of Burgell Tribe Improved Order of Red Men.

The first annual banquet of Burgell Tribe, No. 24, Improved Order of Red Men, was held at Klettner's Hall on Wednesday evening last, and was a most enjoyable one.

The spread was most elegant one, and Mr. Klettner, who had the preparation and arrangements in charge on behalf of the Tribe, received the hearty thanks of all the members and their friends.

The hall, which is the meeting place of Burgell Tribe, presented a scene which has never been exceeded in Newberry. Such a supper we have never seen presented on a similar occasion, and when all had finished eating, none of the many good things could be missed.

Each member and invited guest, previous to entering the hall, was provided with a badge of the national colors inscribed with the name of the Tribe and the date.

When all had been seated at the table, numbering about 75, Mr. J. M. Taylor, Senior Sigmor of the Tribe, in a few happy remarks welcomed the guests of the Tribe in a manner befitting a true Red Man.

Dr. W. G. Houseal asked the blessing after which supper was served and the many good things partaken of.

After the supper there was a flow of eloquence. Mr. P. J. Voss, Sigmor of the Tribe, was toastmaster for the evening, and he presided in a dignified and pleasant manner.

The following gentlemen responded and spoke on the subjects of Redmanism, the benefits and objects of Redmanism, benefits derived from being a member of a fraternal order, etc., and as all did so remarkably well and a synopsis of each address would do the speaker an injustice and occupy considerable space, we shall not attempt it, but suffice it to mention each speaker's name: J. H. Hair, P. J. Voss, C. L. Blease, O. B. Meyer, H. H. Evans, J. H. Chappel, T. J. McCray, J. M. Davis, Theo. Danielsen and Rev. J. W. Speak. All the speeches were good—short, eloquent, witty and to the point, and altogether it was a most delightful occasion, and all present left the hall with a better knowledge of Redmanism and the grand principles they represent—friendship, freedom and charity, and all felt nearer and dearer to each other for having met together on such an occasion.

May Burgell Tribe live long and prosper and may her membership roll increase to the extent of making a band to hand circle embracing the whole town of Newberry.

Has Done Much Good. "I had catarrh in the head and could find no relief until I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which cured me. My sister has been relieved of rheumatism by Hood's, and my little brother took it after serious illness and it restored his strength. It cured my father of effects of sunstroke."

Miss Bess L. Gilder Receives in Honor of Miss Fant of Kentucky.

One of the most delightful events of Christmas week was the reception, last Monday evening, tendered by Miss Gilder to her friend Miss Fant of Kentucky.

Miss Gilder was daintily gowned in pink silk mull, and carnations of the same lovely hue completed her toilet. Miss Fant's elegant gown of heavy black velvet, was a handsome costume, and the beautiful coloring of the wearer was shown to much advantage.

The spacious and elegant residence of Dr. James K. Gilder was ablaze with light and beauty, and presented a scene of rare loveliness not soon to be forgotten by those who were so fortunate as to attend. The parlors and halls were perfect bowers of mistletoe and holly.

Huge bushes of mistletoe were suspended in every nook and corner, which made an enjoyable feature of the evening was the graphophone which attracted many of the guests; but the most novel one was—"The Floral Love Story," which puzzled one and all and afforded much pleasure and amusement to every one. The lady's prize, a violet stand filled with the bluest of violets, was won by Miss Mamie Renwick. The gentleman's prize, a leather watch case with silver top, was won by Mr. M. L. Spearman.

The dining room was beautifully effective in trailing smilax and red roses and candelabra with red wax candles, here and there made a perfect fairy-land. A most delicious supper was served in a dainty and tasteful manner for which the hostess has always been noted.

OUR PROSPERITY BUDGET

ALL THE NEWS OF A LIVE AND PROGRESSIVE TOWN.

How did you enjoy Christmas? Glad to greet you again and wish for all a very prosperous year. Hope which springs eternal in the human breast has asserted itself and all have gone to work with renewed energy, hoping to improve their fortunes in the year 1899. May their fondest wishes be realized.

As it has been two weeks our notes go back to the Christmas times. The Old Folks' day in Grace church was voted a success by those who attended it. We were glad to have with us old man Chips. He paid good attention and behaved himself real nice, considering the fact that is is pretty obstreperous. Come again old boy, always glad to see you. Owing to engagements made prior to the program for this day Revs. Kirkpatrick and Hallman were not present. They were away at their churches in the county. Rev. Blanton gave us a very good talk and one that was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Wise's paper dealt with old-time Sunday-Schools and told what they sung and how they did when she was a girl. How different it is now.

Among the students who spent vacation at home we note Miss Della Bowers, of Elizabeth; Miss Maybelle Stewart, of Coopers; Messrs. Jas. Luther, Maxey Harmon, Perry Simpson, H. M. Moseley, Ernest Bodenbaugh, Eddie Counts, Ira Nates, and Brady Harmon, of Newberry College; and Jno. Watt Kirkpatrick, of Due West. There were a number of the students of Newberry College passing through on their way home whose names escaped us.

Prof. Thornwell Haynes and wife of Central, who have been spending the holidays with Mrs. Haynes parents returned to their home on Wednesday, the 4th. They were at the family reunion of Mr. Bowers.

Miss Joe Langford spent the holidays under the parental roof. She returned to her school this week. Miss Mamie Simpson who spent the Christmas tide at home returned to her school on Saturday, Dec. 21.

Miss Bessie Bowers while standing on a chair arranging some decorations for the family reunion Christmas got a fall which for a time was thought to be serious, but owing to prompt treatment she is now able to be out again and does not suffer any inconvenience from what might have been quite serious.

Mr. John Browne, of Cherryville, N. C., is visiting his brother J. F. Browne of our town, the agent of the Southern Railway Co.

Mr. Allen Crosson, of Saluda C. H., spent the Christmas vacation with his mother in our town.

Mr. Jas. Schumpert, of Vidalia, Ga., has been on a visit to relatives in town and county.

Mrs. J. E. Schumpert and child, of Vidalia, Ga., are visiting W. A. Moseley and F. E. Schumpert.

The performance of the Dramatic Club was largely attended by the citizens and it was so highly appreciated that they rendered it again on last Thursday. Receipts for the first and second nights were a little over $20. The fund will be divided between the Sunday-schools of the town after the expenses are paid.

Mr. F. E. Kibler, of Atlanta, was in town last week shaking hands with his old friends. Come again Forrest.

Mrs. J. D. Quattlebaum, of Bamberg, spent Christmas with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Langford.

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Langford, of Swansea, paid a flying visit to Prosperity. Their stay was shortened by the doctor being called home by telegram.

Uncle Shelton Garrett was in town last week. Many of his old friends were glad to see him. He has passed the 87 mile post on life's highway and is journeying towards the 88th. He is fairly well, but had a very sick "spell" last year. We are glad to see him able to be out again.

Judge J. Marshall Sheely and wife, of Irmo, spent a few days last week with relatives in town. He says he is holding down his barliwick and meting out "jesters" to all offenders.

Mr. Malvin Davis, of upper Newberry, spent several days in town the past week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hawkins.

Mr. A. H. Miller, of Columbia, who has been here in the wood business since last September, spent the holidays at home and returned to Columbia on Tuesday. He is a member of the firm of Sligh and Miller.

All the students who spent the holiday at home have returned to their books at respective institutions and will be with us again after the June commencement have come and gone.

Rev. J. W. Ariah has arrived and is now actively at work in his charge.

Rev. Kirkpatrick paid a flying visit to Winnsboro last Monday.

Grain sowing continues and from the present outlook there will be more grain sown this year than for many years past.

Would this not be the year to put up a roller mill at Prosperity? We have heard this spoken of, and trust that it will be done. There have been two parties mentioned as likely to build, and we trust that out of two, one will materialize—or better perhaps let the two combine and put up a good mill. What say you, gentlemen, don't let the opportunity pass.

The piano recital of the graded school was a grand success and was very largely attended by our music loving citizens. Miss Alken showed that she had given much pains-taking effort, and was amply rewarded by the pupils and the appreciative audience present.

Mr. G. H. Feagle and wife of Greenville, spent a couple days in town during Christmas, the guests of old man Kay.

The League and Missionary Society of Grace church will give another dime reading about the close of January, the program is being arranged and will be published later.

A business meeting of the League will be held on Friday night in the Grace Lecture room. All members are requested to attend.

National Union. A local council of the National Union, a mutual insurance company was organized at Newberry last night with the following officers:

West, Usher; J. W. Watts, Sergeant at Arms; W. A. Fulmer, Door Keeper; Dr. W. G. Houseal, Medical Examiner. Trustees—G. G. Sale, D. L. Boozer, W. G. Houseal.

Another meeting will be held next Thursday night to complete the organization.
