Everybody should hear Dr. Thornwell's lecture at the opera house next Tuesday evening. Subject: "What a Country Parson Saw in Europe." Surely there will be much in this lecture to entertain, to enlighten, and to instruct. The children can enjoy such a lecture as Dr. Thornwell will deliver, and be greatly profited and edified, and their young minds will store away much that will be valuable to them in life, giving them enlarged perceptions of what is true and noble and beautiful.

VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

Yesterday was a delightful day. Mr. W. T. Davis, of North Carolina is in the city.
Mrs. T. J. Lipscomb, of Columbia, is visiting in Newberry.
Miss Seby McCord, of Chappells, is visiting Mrs. A. T. Brown.
Miss Incey McCaughrin left yesterday to spend a few days in Spartanburg.

The Mower Company is still running their special sale. See what they have to say.
Summer Bros. sold 300 bales of cotton to O. McR. Holmes, the first of the week at 6c.
Mrs. Hollingsworth, of Augusta, Ga., is on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Boozer.

Mr. J. W. Tribble left a few days ago for Kentucky where he goes to buy stock for the spring trade.
The need of a thorough and complete sewerage system is being felt more and more every day in Newberry.
Messrs. T. C. Pool and A. T. Brown have both returned from Atlanta where they secured a choice lot of stock to put on the market here.

Mr. J. H. Wickler has been awarded the contract to haul the coal from the station to the power house for the Commissioners of Public Works.
The mayor of the city has been confined to his room for the past few days with an attack of the grippe. So has Sergeant Franklin, of the police force.
Grippe has come very near reaching the point of an epidemic in this city. We see from our exchanges that the same is the case throughout the State. Put sulphur in the shoes as a remedy.

Mrs. Wm. M. Griffin, who has been on an extended visit to her parents has returned to her home in Columbia accompanied by her mother, Mrs. E. S. Coppock.
We have several big jobs of printing on hand, but that does not hinder us from printing and delivering work as it is desired. So step around and hand in your orders for job printing, large or small.
Capt. D. J. Griffith, who has been elected Superintendent of the Penitentiary is a native of Newberry County, having been born near Helena. His parents moved to Lexington when he was quite young.

Now that most of the cotton is out of the hands of the producer it is taking an upward tendency in price, but that should not fool the farmers and cause them to plant a large acreage. To keep the price up, plant less.
Gen. Leroy F. Youmans, the great orator and formerly Attorney General of South Carolina says: "Dr. Thornwell's lecture was intensely interesting throughout, replete not only with instruction, but redolent alike with pathos and humor, original and of a rare order." This praise from a master mind, a judge of oratory should be sufficient to induce everybody to hear Dr. Thornwell's lecture: "What a Country Parson Saw in Europe."

All forms of scrofula, sores, boils, pimples and eruptions, are quickly and permanently cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.
It seems that one fire alarm is usually soon followed by the second, so this morning about 7.15 o'clock, before the firemen had time to dry the hose from the fire the day before, the department was called out again. This time the fire was in Ward 1, at the residence of Mr. Geo. M. Kinard. The bureau in the bed room was covered with flames when discovered and all the contents of the drawers were more or less damaged. The bureau was carried out of the house and nothing else caught.
The fire was caused by the lamp, which was on the bureau, exploding.
The Excelsior Fire Company was as usual out on time and had water in a few seconds although it was not needed.
Mr. Kinard estimates his loss at about $50.

The Young Men's Christian Association of Newberry College was visited and addressed last night by State Secretary, Rev. W. M. Lewis. His address was both instructive and interesting on general Y. M. C. A. work.
Rev. Geo. S. Bearden, of St. Lukes, will address the association tomorrow, Saturday night.
The following members of the Association have been elected delegates to attend the State Convention at Spartanburg on February 9-12th. J. E. Brim, G. W. St. Clair, C. D. Epling, J. B. Setzler, W. A. Rast, J. O. Cassidy and W. W. Rhoden.

Death of Mrs. Fannie Dantzer.
Mrs. Fannie Dantzer, wife of Rev. D. D. Dantzer, of the South Carolina Conference, died in this city on last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Dantzer was about fifty-two years of age. She was a lady of charming personality and had a great many friends all over the State who will be pained to hear of her death. The family had but recently taken up their residence in this city. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved family.

OUR PROSPERITY BUDGET
ALL THE NEWS OF A LIVE AND PROGRESSIVE TOWN.

Used in the rural districts. It has a diversity of topics, social, political, religious and poetical. We pored over it for some time and our mind wandered back to the time when the book was new. And just sat and wondered, and wondered, and then took up my pen and wrote this. While poring over these old papers we ran across several old deeds of different date. One old deed is dated Nov. 15th, 1762, and is from Matthew Klinehart to Jno. Koon. Another is a grant by George the II. to Jno. Michael Gadsinger, or Gadsinger, or Botzinger as it is sometimes written. I find that this name is spelled in different ways, the German being Botzinger or Botzinger. Among some of the names appearing in these old deeds, grants, etc., I note such. Klinehart, Reynard, Whits, Coiner, Shires, Botzinger, Gadsinger, Gadsinger, Crim, Gibson, Reison and some others too Dutchy for this Dutchman to make out. Of all the names that appear on these old papers there is only one that is with us to lay as far as my knowledge goes and that is Gibson. Later on new names come on the stage of action and are now lost so far as we know. These names are the Frys, Steerleys, Wallerns, Giselhart, Lakner, Gusewehimen, Glaze, Glass and others that we now escape us. If there are any descendants of the above bearing any of these names they have left this section and county and we know nothing of them. Memory in its wanderings goes back to these primitives, and tries to conjure up men and things as they existed 100 to 150 years ago. And then we enjoy setting down and reading some of Gilmore Sims border tales and trying to picture to ourselves how and what scenes were enacted right here in our now quiet Community. Well do we remember the walnut tree beside the road just beyond the old Wallern graveyard on which a man was hung for a trifle. We can't recall just what but it was either the stenting of a horse or whipping of a negro. I also recall the fact that the old cure followed it, that it would begin dying at the top which it did and has now gone the way of all the earth. We must close our reminiscences for it carries us back to the good old days that are gone and gone forever, and as Josh Billings would say: Come and sit with me under the trees and let us think of the good old days that come no more.

We have been the recipient of a copy of "The Empire of the South," a handsome volume gotten out by the Southern Railway Company, illustrating the country through which its road passes. It is full of information and is handsomely illustrated with cuts of Cotton Mills, Cotton Seed Oil Mills and many other manufacturing plants to be found in the South. It reflects in a forceful manner the vast and growing interests of the Great Empire of the South that the Southern traverses. The effort has been to show that with the almost prodigious natural and material advantages possessed by the South that section offers a promising field for settlement, investment and development.

A RESIDENCE BURNED.

The residence of Mr. W. J. Wynn with all its contents in Ashes—An Early Morning Fire.
The residence of Mr. R. J. Wynn in the eastern part of the city was burned to the ground yesterday morning about 4 o'clock.
The fire was discovered about 3:15 o'clock and had gained so much headway that the family scarcely had time to escape. The only articles saved from the fire were three trunks, a wicker chair, a pistol and a rifle.
The fire haddles of the Excelsior Fire Company responded promptly and had something like a mile's run to reach the fire. And right here we would like to say to those who are always so quick and ready to criticize the firemen, that to run a mile, pulling a heavy reel loaded with hose—200 pounds to the man—is no easy matter and there is but little fun in it. But those who criticize so quickly and severely seldom lend a helping hand—even at a time like that.

The fire is supposed to have caught in the roof of the front part of the house from a defective flue, as the roof was falling in when discovered.
The building was a neat cottage of five rooms and valued at $800. It was insured for $500 in the New York Underwriters, in the agency of E. A. Scott and Nephew. The furniture and wearing apparel for $900 in the Glen Falls, (N. Y.) Co., W. T. Tarrant's agency—Mrs. Wynn having $300 on her furniture, and Mrs. Scott her mother, $600 on her furniture.
Among the things burned were a nice upright piano and an organ. Mr. Wynn was not at home having gone on a visit to the lower part of the State.

A MONEY-MAKING CROP.
A Company to be Formed to Experiment in the Culture of Tobacco.
A number of citizens of Newberry met yesterday afternoon in J. D. Davenport's office to take into consideration the question of introducing the culture of tobacco into Newberry County.
Mr. C. J. Purcell acted as chairman and Eduard Scholtz was secretary of the meeting.
Mr. J. W. White made a statement of the result of investigation of tobacco culture in North Carolina during his recent visit there. He thought it would be a profitable crop for this section. He is very enthusiastic on this question.
Mr. Elmore, of Greensboro, N. C. was present. He is familiar with the cultivation of tobacco and the methods employed in preparing it for market. His statement was interesting and presented some encouraging facts.
It was agreed to make an effort to organize a stock company with a capital of $400 in order to make a fair experiment for the introduction of tobacco culture.

A committee, consisting of Messrs. E. P. Pawley, J. W. White and S. P. Crotwell, was appointed to solicit subscriptions to the capital stock. Shares were placed at $10 each, and the committee hopes that forty persons will be speedily found to take all the stock.
The movement is a good one, and as our farmers must diversify their crops, they should try tobacco as a money-maker.
Another meeting will be held Monday afternoon at J. D. Davenport's office, when the committee hopes to make a good report.
The committee began a canvass this morning for subscription.
It will require about $100 to make the experiment, and all who take stock will most probably get their money back in dividends even in the experimental stage of the movement.—Observer, 26.

The Sure No Grippe Cure.

A Female Tramp.
For the past few days there has been a female tramp going from house to house in this city begging, pretending to be hunting for work. Yesterday she was caught in the act of taking a lot of silverware from the residence of Mr. Thos. Tarrant and did succeed in stealing a carving knife and fork and a fancy water pitcher and an umbrella and other things. The theft was reported to the police and they succeeded in recovering the stolen articles, or most of them. What disposition is to be made of the woman has not yet been decided, but it is likely she will be ordered very positively to "move on."
