E. H. AULL, EDITOR.

The citizens of Greenville are trying to have the dispensaries in that city closed until after the sold'ers have been mustered out. If the dispensary is not in the business for the money there is in it there should be no hesitation on the part of the State board in complying with this request, but the board should have a distinct and explicit understanding with the municipal authorities of the city of Greenville that honest and sincere efforts shall be made to shut up blind tigers as well. To use to close the dispensary if blind tigers are to keep open unmolested.

After the disclosure of the investigating committee, Col. Neal will hardly come before the people for vindication. Col. Neal managed the penitentiary well from a financial standpoint, but when he undertook to boss State politics in a hasty plan, he fell into devious and dubious ways.—Orangeburg Patriot.

It was pretty good financing in one sense, but we do not see just how it was good for the State. Politics has had nothing to do with it.

We publish in this issue more testimony in the penitentiary investigation. The resolution appointing this committee provides as follows:

Section 4. That the said committee shall report its findings to the Governor of this State, together with the testimony taken by said committee, and to be by him transmitted to the General Assembly, after he shall have taken such action upon the report as he may deem proper. Said committee may sit during the recess of the session of the General Assembly.

The matter for proper action when the committee finishes its work will be left with the Governor.

President McKinley is the guest of Senator Mark Hanna, at Thomasville, Ga., having gone there for a rest and to get off, if possible, for a few days from the immortunities of place hunters.

Another sausage maker in Chicago by the name of Becker admits to having murdered his wife and cut her up into sausage meat and finally burned the body. He has confessed and is to be put on trial for murder.

Items From St. Philip's.

The farmers are busy hauling guano and turning the sod.

Mr. Walter Wicker's horses ran away with his wagon last week, throwing out his son George and hurting him considerably.

Capt. W. T. Hatton had a serious runaway scrape last Saturday. He was driving his match grays, using a tongue on his single buggy. The breast pole fastened over the end of the tongue with a piece of leather, the leather broke while going down the hill near Mr. Mel. Chalmers. Capt. Hatton with great presence of mind caught one of the wheels and his driver the other; they slid the wheels for a considerable distance, but the horses were frantic, and to use the common expression, were burning the wind. Capt. Hatton and his driver both falling among the wheels. Capt. Hatton was knocked senseless, and lay motionless as one dead, and Dr. W. T. Dickert and G. A. Mills, who were witnesses to the accident, carried him to the side of the road, when upon examination it was found that he had received an ugly gash two inches long on the left side of his head, one above his left eye an inch long, besides other bruises. Drs. Dunn and Dickert sewed up and dressed the wounds, making him as comfortable as possible under the circumstances.

The Pomaria Rifles reorganized last Saturday. Capt. Wheeler made them a short speech setting forth the duties and importance of such organization. He stated to them that such military bodies were not organized for mere sport or holiday pastime, that he wanted every individual to realize the fact that if they were ever called upon by his excellency, the commander in chief, to go to any part of the State, that he expected for every one to promptly respond, in other words, Capt. Wheeler is like England in one respect, he expects for every one of his men to do their duty.

Miss Lula Suber, one of the belles of Sleepy Hollow, is visiting friends and relatives near the county home.

Our town has a dudline. If any of the readers of The Herald and News has a surplus dude in their midst send him along, we have a position for him.

An Eminent Physician.

"My health has been very poor in this part of the country. My blood was impure and I was sick nearly all the time. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me by an eminent physician, and after taking a few bottles I came out all right and I feel that the benefit I derived is permanent." A. J. VICKERY, Graceville, Fla.

It's a Beauty.

The Herald and News premium Rock Hill Buggy is now on exhibition at 220 W. E. Hays store. Call and see it and you will see a beauty. Some subscribers to this paper is going to get this buggy and all it will cost him will be a year's subscription to The Herald and News. When you call to see the buggy ask to see the harness—the second premium—and the pumpkins, at which you are guessing the number of seeds they contain. Read the offer of premiums in another column.

OUR PROSPERITY BUDGET

ALL THE NEWS OF A LIVE AND PROGRESSIVE TOWN.

Miss Jessie Beacham, of Ninety-Six, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Fellers in town.

Rev. Mr. Kirkpatrick preached for Rev. Mr. Blanton last Sunday.

Mr. Blanton filled Mr. Kirkpatrick's appointment at the Brick church in Fairfield County.

Chips, I am going to shell your jungle if you don't show yourself in the open.

Messrs. Boozer and Gibson, have moved their saw mill to the old cotton mill site and are now engaged in sawing up the heavy timber into saleable lumber.

And still the bell rings and rings and more divided hearts are mended, 'twas ever thus. Mr. Clifton Sheely and Miss Daisy Epling were married last Sunday. All of Little Mountain. And again, at the Lutheran parsonage in Prosperity, Mr. Malcolm Singley and Miss Lena Troutman, of the Jolly Street section. Our congratulations to the happy couples.

The farmers are hard at work getting ready to put in their fertilizers. Uncle Squire from the Klondike made a flying visit to Prosperity Monday.

Prof. Aull has been on the sick list much to the delight of young America.

Mr. A. G. Wise made a flying trip to Columbia Monday.

Mr. S. S. Birge (Dock) is still busy with cross ties. He only receives those that were cut prior to the 15th of February.

A very laughable affair occurred on the streets Monday. A young Baltimore drummer, just out of Baltimore, twenty-four hours, and with his very best city looks on was passing near the drug store when he heard the cry "head him!" "stop him!" "catch him!" and looking up saw a mule coming full tilt upon him with a rope dragging after him. He made a dive for the rope and the mule made a dash. Results: crushed beaver, scarred face, dirty shirt, mad drummer. On getting up and carefully taking an inventory and hearing the shouts of the bystanders up and down the street remarked that he didn't see anything so blanked funny to laugh at. Well, we guess he didn't but the others did. It was a young mule and unbroken and knew just how hard to have him hit the ground. He said just to think he had come all the way from Baltimore to be half killed by a mule and laughed at for his pains. Such is life. He left town a wiser and sadder man. Josh Billings long ago said, "don't fule with a mule even though he is said to be dead. He might be."

We used to hear a great deal about the Mason Cotton Harvester. Can you tell us, Mr. Editor, what has become of it. Was it a success or has it gone into "innocuous desuetude?"

We were just listening to the talk of one of our little friends as she was swapping experiences with another little friend: "Well, I don't care if your ma has ordered some gorillas, and your ma ain't." She meant gladiolus.

Mr. Mark Long, of Saluda County, was visiting in town the past week, the guest of Mr. S. L. Fellers.

Miss Noah Long, of No. 8 was on a visit to her uncle Mr. S. L. Fellers.

Messrs. Tom Johnson and P. D. Simpson came down on their bicycles last Sunday spending the day with Mr. J. A. Stinson and family. They returned to Newberry in the evening.

The public school term for our district closed with last Friday.

Miss Marie Bobb returned from a visit to relatives in Saluda. She reports Saluda as being on the up grade.

Mr. J. L. Wise has returned from his trip to Johnston and Saluda.

Well, Mr. Editor, I think you were right in what you said about H. B. J. Not knowing who the writer is we venture the assertion that he is not at all familiar with the work that the ordinary preacher does every day. Outside the "two hours a week of talking" that the writer mentions, he forgets (or does not know) of the homes of the sad and afflicted, to which they go carrying comfort and consolation and the endless round of work that is both trying and hard. If H. B. J. will give us one short week with one of our busy pastors and do nothing but look on his mind will undergo a change within that time. We have been with them and know what it is. And as a class there are no poorer paid men than the self-sacrificing ministers of the Gospel. We imagine that H. B. J. would be like the old Deacon who said "Oh, pshaw, its no trouble to preach, anybody can do that." And upon being invited into the pulpit could only say "beloved brethren," We doubt if H. B. J. has even had any practical work along religious lines. We wonder if he has ever felt the responsibility that rests upon a Sunday-School teacher and the added cares of trying to lead them into the right path. Ah—responsibility for human souls—that's the wearing of a pastor's life and how can one who knows nothing about this responsibility sit in judgment. Yes, how to the line but who is to draw the line. But why should I take up the defence of the heralds of the Gospel. They need no defence at my hands. They and their work are too well known to all to need one word from the pen of a plodder like old man Kay. But we want to put ourselves on record as being for the preachers. I know it is so easy to object to the work another is doing, especially if it is not done as we think. How easy it is to demolish a structure and how hard to build up. Down pulling is so much easier than up building. We must keep this tabernacle of clay as a fit temple for the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, or we must prepare for that condition spoken of by the Master in Matt. 23: 46, first clause, Rev. 21: 8, Mark 9: 48, and see that we miss all these and with this we are done. Knowing that the time is coming when we shall see face to face and know even as we are known, KAY.

Bachman Chapel and Union Academy Chips

Well, Kay, the war is over and we'll turn back. Maize and Merrimac has fallen and Chips going to occupy the land. You can just give up your gun there's no need of shooting. So here we go chipping around the gutter, but not making much of a flutter while Kay is winking at us.

Health moderately good. A considerable stirring in the horticulture line the first of the week.

The grain is putting on a better appearance.

Some farmers will plant corn next week if the weather is favorable.

Sweet music is ringing again in the land, played on that blessed old instrument, the dinner horn. Old Mrs. Chips brings the old man in about 11:30 with a greeting smile.

Mr. H. T. Long cut his foot with an axe last week while chopping, which has disabled him from traveling for a while.

Rev. C. P. Boozer spent last Saturday night with Mr. J. K. Epps and family, and filled his regular appointment at Bachman Chapel on Sunday. He preached one of his usually good old time Bible sermons.

Mr. Thos. Fellers, who has been confined to his room with rheumatism for several weeks, is somewhat improving.

The guano fever is lower than I have known it for many years at this season. We believe that there will be a reduction of at least 1 per cent. this year compared with the average of other years. Dear farmers, this is one of the most important times to go slow, not only on the guano line, but every other thing that plunges us in debt. So long as we sell our cotton before we make it, we may never expect to be anything but a down trodden, poverty-stricken set of people. Diversified crops and rotation of offices is the only salvation for the State of South Carolina. When our friends are in office they would like to stay in, but how do we know what they are doing until we put them out. So it is a very good plan to turn them out every two or four years, and if they have been good fellows and have not squandered any of the State's money we can very easily put them back. The only reason that Col. Neal is in trouble today is that he was kept in office just a little too long.

Kay, you asked for a vote on an annual reception to be given by the editor in behalf of his correspondents. You should have said a semi-annual gathering. As a matter of fact we all vote yes. We would like very much to meet all the members of the staff and exchange a few hours of pleasure. But we shall not press the matter upon the editor now as he has just returned from a six weeks stay among those high coalatoriums down at the capital and possibly don't care to mingle with little wizards. But you can pop some whip and try him. Kay, and see what he will say in regard to the matter.

Yes, Brother Clothopper, if the day is favorable next Sunday we will stop and test some of those palate ticklers which you mentioned not long since.

Mr. T. L. B. Epps is now with the chain gang as a guard. Tom says he don't mind anything except this thing of getting up before day.

There will be a social at Mr. J. P. Kinnard's to-night. Chips returns thanks for a special invitation. But this kind of gathering is almost past our line of business.

Mr. Malcolm Singley and Miss Lena Troutman, both of Jolly Street, were married last Sunday. Let the good work go on.

There will be communion services at Bachman Chapel on the second Sunday in April, with preparatory services on Saturday previous at 2.30 p. m.

One of our little Chips requests us to return our thanks to Mr. William Johnson for one of his beautiful little United States flags. We want him to fight like a hero this summer under this little banner, not fighting the Spaniards, but for more knowledge and nobility.

The people of this section are glad to know that old Mr. James A. Kiser is released from his sentence on the chain gang. We believe in dealing out justice to every man, and every perpetrator of crime should be punished. But according to our opinion this old man has suffered enough. Supervisor Hill has received many compliments for his kind treatment of Mr. Kiser, and will be remembered for the same.

March 16, 1899. CHIPS.

What to Do Until the Doctor Arrives.

It is very hard to stand idly by and see our dear ones suffer while awaiting the arrival of the doctor. An Albany (N. Y.) dairyman called at a drug store there for a doctor to come and see his child, then very sick with croup. Not finding the doctor in, he left word for him to come at once on his return. He also bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he hoped would give some relief until the doctor should arrive. In a few hours he returned, saying the doctor need not come, as the child was much better. The druggist, Mr. Otto Scholz, says the family has since recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their neighbors and friends until he has a constant demand for it from that part of the country. For sale by W. E. Polham, druggist.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA COUNTY OF NEWBERRY—IN COMMON PLEAS.

George S. Mower, as Treasurer of Eskrim College, Plaintiff, against Wm. H. Sloan, Mary E. Sloan, A. Thompson Sloan, S. Ebenezer P. Sloan and Caroline Moore, Defendants.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT herein, dated 2d March, 1899, I will sell before the court house at Newberry, S. C., on Saturday in April, 1899, to the highest bidder therefor, the following described real estate, to wit:

All that certain tract or plantation of land situate in the said county and State, and containing Fifty-Sixteen Acres, more or less, and bounded by lands of D. Henry Wheeler, Public Road from Newberry to Columbia, estate of David Bizzard, deceased, and others.

TERMS OF SALE: One-third cash, and the balance in two equal installments, payable in one and two years, with interest from day of sale, the credit portion to be secured by bond of the purchaser and mortgage of the premises sold, and leave for the purchaser to pay all the purchase money in cash. Purchaser to pay for papers and costs in full.

W. J. HAY, Master. Master's Office, Mar. 17, 1899.

...A BIG CHANGE...

I have determined to make a big change in a lifetime work. I have made up my mind to retire altogether from mercantile life, as few men of my age can stand the strain of two seasons. I have therefore determined to sell out before I break down. I will therefore offer the entire stock of Dry Goods, Clothing and shoes at actual New York cost, where it may until it is all sold.

The stock is large and well selected and it will take a good while to sell out. I will sell this stock of goods to anybody wanting a well-stocked, good paying business, for 90 cents on the dollar of actual New York cost, for good bankable notes, payable one sixth each May, June, September, October, November and December of the year, which will enable a good man to make the stock pay for itself, with little additional capital, and I will gladly give the purchaser all the information as to where and how to get goods cheap. I have now in the store two-thirds of the bankrupt stock of Goodham & Maybin of New York cost, that I will sell at the same proportion of price. I have 164 pairs of Ladies Fine-Shoes, in numbers 3, 3 1/2, 4, 4 1/2 and 5, that I will sell at 25 per cent less than cost. I have determined to devote the balance of my life to tobacco raising.

P. S.—A large lot of New Spring Goods, contracted for in December and January, will soon arrive and will also be offered at cost, if I have not sold out before then.
