CHARLOTTE-RICHMOND.

On the 25th of last month I left Newberry for a hurried business visit to Richmond, Va. I spent Sunday in Charlotte for two reasons. I wanted to see the city again and then I desired to pay a visit to Elizabeth College, a Lutheran college for young ladies that had been erected there since my last visit.

Charlotte has grown very rapidly and solidly within the last few years. There are several causes for this but two main ones are that there are numerous manufacturing enterprises in the city both large and small. And the other is that everybody in Charlotte has a good word for the city and the entire community works in harmony for the up-building of the whole. So pregnant is the whole atmosphere of the place with this sentiment and spirit that the visitor before he has been there long finds himself chiming in and singing the praises of the city. That is a city after my own heart, for I seem to me to be so patient that even a fool ought to see that no town or city can grow when one part of the population is always pulling against another part and to have a whole lot of croakers and grumblers at every suggestion of advancement or improvement. Or again to be always talking about saving a dollar or two when it comes to public improvements. I am not an advocate of wasteful extravagance, but you can't make public improvements without spending money and when it is judiciously spent or put where the people can see and enjoy the benefit they are not going to do much kicking about it.

Charlotte has macadam roads leading into the city from every direction. Mecklenburg County has spent thousands of dollars in building good roads. And it has paid her in dollars and cents not to speak of the comfort and convenience to her citizens. All the bad weather of this winter they did not know what a bad road was. But she goes to work and builds a good road and then takes up another. Just what we have been trying to have done here at home. Build one road with your chain gang if it amounts to only a mile a year. Then you have something that will last, but to trot your chain gang all over the county filling a little ditch here and making one yard at the end of the year you can't see anything that has been done. If we had started this plan of building a good and permanent road out from the county seat, when we first began to use chain gangs on the public works we would by now have had several miles of good roads. Instead of that we have absolutely nothing to show for the work of the convicts. It is never too late to start a work of this kind. The suggestion is given to Supervisor Hill and his board without charge.

Charlotte is a good town and if we were going to leave Newberry we know of no place we had rather go to than Charlotte.

Prof. C. L. T. Fisher was kind enough to meet me at the train and take me direct to Elizabeth College where I spent Saturday night. On Sunday morning I took breakfast with the young ladies at the college. This college is one of the best equipped and appointed of any institution of its kind in the South. Everything is built and designed with a view to the purpose which it is to subserv. The location and the grounds are ideal. Just outside the city limits and close enough to enjoy all the comforts and conveniences of the city and yet far enough away to avoid the disadvantages of the city. There is the best of system, good order and neatness about the institution. The faculty is a strong one, every member being as far as possible a specialist in his or her line. It is destined to be the Vassar of the South.

On Sunday I took dinner with President C. B. King who seems to be the right man in the right place. He is a born manager and organizer and has his whole heart and soul in the success of Elizabeth College. I have known him and his good wife for several years and I feel sure that parents cannot place their daughters in better or more careful hands than to send them to Elizabeth College.

There are five young ladies there now from Newberry County—four from Prosperity and one from Pomaria—Misses Bobb, Bowers, Hallman and Hunter from Prosperity and Miss Holloway from Pomaria.

I also met here Miss Maude Schaeffer whom we all remember as a little girl in Newberry several years ago when her father was pastor of the Lutheran church here. She has grown into a handsome and intelligent young lady whom teachers and fellow students love.

I had the pleasure on Sunday of hearing two very able sermons by Rev. R. C. Holland, D. D., at the Lutheran church. Dr. Holland is a brother of our Dr. Holland and is an able preacher.

The visit to Charlotte was very pleasant and I hope to go again before long. To President King and Prof. Fisher and others who contributed to this pleasure I extend thanks.

I left on Sunday night for Richmond reaching there for breakfast Monday morning. Nothing of special interest in this city. I went on business with Everett Wadley Co. publishers Chapman's South Carolina school history and did not see any one else.

Returning a difference of 25 minutes in the arrival of the train from Charlotte and the departure of the train from Columbia by Greenville forced us to spend a whole day in Columbia. On this occasion it made no special difference because we wanted to step there anyway.

But we should have another train from Columbia. How would the Southern like the idea of running a morning train from Greenwood to Columbia and return in the afternoon. That is the train we would like to see tried. They do that much for Greenville and the people up that way who want to go to Greenville. Why could they not do as much for us. That is the train the merchants of Columbia should be interested in. Will they not bring the matter to the attention of the railroad authorities. Then the people as far up as Greenwood could go to Columbia, spend the day and return at night.

WELCOME TO THE MAYORS.

The citizens and the council have taken proper action to receive and entertain the mayors who are to assemble here in convention in May. We desire now to say to all of them that we shall be glad to have them and to show them the best town in South Carolina. If they don't have a good time while they are here it will be their own fault. We will do our part by them and we hope they will all come.

The committees appointed by the James D. Nance Camp and the Jno. M. Kinard Camp to help Charleston in entertaining the visiting Confederate soldiers to our State should hasten themselves. This is a State affair and it is part of our duty to help Charleston in this matter. The Herald and News will be glad to help the committees in any way in our power.

Let us all come up to the notch and do our part and make this one of the best reunions yet held. Remember it is to meet in the very cradle and birth place of secession and where the first gun was fired which makes it doubly an interesting meeting and will be largely attended.

The Columbia State has been doing some good work in working up the city to the importance of good sidewalks. When in Columbia the other day we noticed that the city was putting down good sidewalks in front of the opera house. We hope the fire did not injure this good work.

Columbia certainly needs some good sidewalks. The State is doing some good service for Columbia, but people who live in a town rarely appreciate the value of a real live newspaper.

Miss Eva Petty, the daughter of our friend, Mr. Chas. Petty of the Carolina Spartans is to be married on the 19th to Mr. C. J. Sherne of New York. We congratulate Mr. Sherne.

Bears the Klondike.

Mr. A. C. Thomas, of Marysville, Tex., has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike. For years he suffered untold agony from consumption, accompanied by hemorrhages; and was absolutely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. He declares that gold is of little value in comparison with this marvelous cure; would have it, even if it cost a hundred dollars a bottle. Asthma, Bronchitis and all throat and lung affections are positively cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Trial bottles free at Robertson & Gillet's and Pelham's Drug Stores. Regular size 50 cts., and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.

A. C. Jones, The People's Store. Newberry, S. C., April 4, 1899.

It is Not Consistent

With human reason for any thinking well balanced mind to convince themselves that they can buy goods in any store in South Carolina as cheap as they can buy them of us. Study the problem, throw prejudice to the winds and a conclusion is easily arrived at. I have bought Five Thousand, Eight Hundred and Sixty-seven ($5,867.90) Dollars worth of Dry Goods, Shoes and Clothing right here in Newberry since January 1st. The Goodman & Maybin stock at 51 cts. on the dollar, and the Bradley stock on Friday, March 31st, which gives me now, with the stock bought in Asheville, N. C. at 33c, on the dollar, four large stocks under one roof, that fills up and down stairs like bricks in a wall, making, combined, and down stairs the largest stock in Newberry at an average cost of more than 33 per cent. less than the usual goods can be bought by any merchant in South Carolina. Then can you wonder how Flynn sells the best goods for less than any store in Newberry since Flynn's. Come early if you want to secure bargains, as several customers go away daily that cannot be waited on. Thirty-five Hundred Dollars worth of the latest novelties in Dress Goods, Organics, Lawns, Ducks, P. Ks., and Trimmings, Laces and Embroideries just received and will be sold at a sacrifice at

FLYNN'S Cash Store.

Rev. W. W. Daniel, Pastor Washington Street Methodist Church. From the favorable comments of those patrons and pupils whom I have heard speak of the Columbia Business College, I must conclude that Prof. Newberry is a very competent and thorough instructor, and that excellent work is being done in his college. Columbia, S. C., June 20, 1898. Irmo, Lexington Co., S. C., January, 1899. Mr. W. H. Newberry, Pres. Columbia Business College, Columbia, S. C.: Dear Prof.—It affords me pleasure to speak of the merits of your school, and the methods and manner in which you instruct and teach. It is, in fact, impossible for me to express, in words, my profound gratitude towards your school and its instructors. I took a course at your college some four months ago, which I consider the best extent, and before I completed you had me a nice position, which I have had no trouble in holding, owing to the thorough training received at your school. Ever wishing you the continued success you so well deserve, and assuring you that I will lose no opportunity of recommending your college as the very best, to any one interested. Your friend and student, FOREST H. SOPER.
