VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

We started out to publish the dispensary revelations by Ouzts, Hazelden, et al., but they came so thick and fast that we find ourselves in the predicament of the one prominent politician in Georgia—we don't know exactly "where we are at."

Mr. W. Boyd Evans has received a letter from the auditor of the war department in Washington in regard to the men's month's extra pay for service in the late war, in which it is stated that it will be impossible to reach their claims for at least six months.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and until the last few years supposed to be incurable.

We hear that Dr. Hunter, of Prosperity, is contemplating tearing away the old White house and brick house on the corner of Harrington and College streets and building some small cottages or store houses on the lot.

The Southern railroad company will run special trains over its lines entering Columbia for the occasion of the State Fair, on Wednesday and Thursday, November the 8th and 9th.

The following is the programme for the next teachers' meeting to be held November 11th in the graded school building:

Mr. John S. Barro left Monday for Johnston where he will spend the winter in the interest of the Prosperity Stock company.

It was not the intention of your correspondent to say Prof. Setzler "did not want" to arrange the programme for the Central Luther League, but we intended saying probably Prof. Setzler did not know it was his duty as vice-president to do so.

Mr. Lumus Blalock bought about twelve thousand bushels of seed while in town last week instead of "twelve bushels."

Caleb Hair and Jim Dawkins, both colored, became involved in a difficulty Saturday night at a dance on Capt. John Hunter's plantation, which terminated in Caleb Hair receiving a blow on the head with a club, rendering him unconscious.

Don't forget the business meeting of Grace Luther League next Friday night. Sheriff Buford came down last night and arrested "Tom DeWalt, Elisha Dawkins, Willis Boozer, Leafeer Sheely and Julius Davis, all colored.

Rumor says that Mr. Drayton Ramage has bought what is known as the Cabanis place and will move there. We are glad to see the neighborhood filling up with progressive white men.

Mrs. Carrie Stone and adopted daughter are visiting their relatives in our midst. The school under the auspices of Miss Janie Kilgore, a very estimable young lady, has been in session about two weeks.

An Enjoyable Occasion.

On last Friday evening the Tenth Grade of Newberry Graded School gave a party at the residence of Mr. C. E. Sumner.

The crowd assembled was one of the jolliest and most pleasant we have ever had the pleasure of being with, and the evening was spent in many interesting games.

A guessing contest was first on the programme, and the two prizes were awarded by Messrs. G. A. Hope and Fred. W. Pendleton, as follows: First prize for being the most successful in the contest to Mr. Fred W. Pendleton.

Second prize for being the least successful, to Miss Bernice Smith. After the contest was decided refreshments were served, and the writer will say that he has not, during his past attendance to parties, been seated to a more delightful table than the one he had the pleasure of sharing on this occasion.

After supper the crowd prepared for a cake-walk, which was very amusing and seemed to be enjoyed by all who were in it, and especially by those who had never seen or been in a cake-walk.

The young ladies in the Tenth Grade deserve much credit for giving such a pleasant party, and the writer will express thanks for those who are not pupils of the Graded School for their invitations.

Temperance Workers. The Christian Temperance workers of South Carolina, will hold their annual meeting in Columbia, beginning on Thursday night and closing on Friday night.

Business meeting Friday morning and afternoon. An interesting program is expected. Speeches by prominent temperance advocates and ministers of different denominations.

All who are interested in the cause of temperance and the betterment and uplifting of humanity and sympathize in this noble work of trying to save from the evil of drink our loved ones are cordially invited to attend.

The meetings on Thursday night and on Friday will be held in the Sunday-school chapel of Washington street church, and on Friday night at the Tabernacle, corner of Assembly and Taylor streets.

Six Prisoners Bagged. Sheriff Buford received a telephone message Sunday night about dark to come to Prosperity as the negroes were having a small riot among themselves below there on Saluda River.

The Sheriff left immediately for Prosperity and with the aid of Messrs. B. B. Hair and Gus Hicase went to near McNeery's ferry and arrested Tom DeWalt, Elisha Dawkins, Willis Boozer, Julius Davis, and Leafeer Sheely. Jim Dawkins, the ring leader, made his escape.

The negroes had had a hot supper and got into a difficulty and are charged with having beaten Wm. Hair, colored, into insensibility. It is thought Hair will not recover.

The Sheriff rode all night and had his prisoners in jail by 9 o'clock Monday morning.

Items from Long Lane. Mr. "Ben" Wilson and wife and Miss Maggie Baker spent the day at Mr. J. A. Richard's recently. We understand that Mr. Wilson will return to the neighborhood next year and live at the Mayes place.

Mr. Richard Caldwell and Miss Mamie Caldwell visited at Mr. J. W. Caldwell's the other day. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Coffield have been at Mr. S. A. Jeter's for several days.

We have had several dreary, dismal days, the wind blew very severe here last night. Rumor says that Mr. Drayton Ramage has bought what is known as the Cabanis place and will move there.

We are glad to see the neighborhood filling up with progressive white men. If every white man could own his own little home, we think the country would be greatly improved.

Mrs. Carrie Stone and adopted daughter are visiting their relatives in our midst. The school under the auspices of Miss Janie Kilgore, a very estimable young lady, has been in session about two weeks.

Hendrix Mills News.

News is real scarce. Health of community is first-class for the time of year.

Our farmers are real busy nowadays picking the top crop of cotton and sowing oats.

The farmers will soon begin to sow wheat, and, we think, there will be a large crop sown this year.

A number of our citizens are coming up to the village today to do shopping and to be on hand for sale day.

Rev. J. D. Bowles filled his appointment at Mt. Olivet on last Sunday. The Mt. Olivet people have bought them a nice organ.

There will be children's day at Bethel on Saturday before the fourth Sunday in November. The programme will appear a little later.

The Bethel congregation has purchased their real nice organ for their church. Well, Leona has been to Greenwood, to the Synod and to Newberry, and a number of other places since his last communication, but as it is an old thing, we guess an account of his trip would not interest your readers very much.

Therefore we will desist from relating the narrative, but say that Greenwood is a bustling town and that she has some fine business men there with plenty of money that is sure pushing her to the front, and watch what we say, she is soon going to be the key to western South Carolina.

A number of our citizens are speaking of moving to the factory and quitting the farm, but old boy Leona believes he will stick to the farm, as it is the backbone of our country, if it is a poor one.

Well, we were real glad to hear from "old man Kay" again. We hope he will write oftener and make up for us small guns up here.

A number of our citizens speak of attending the State fair at Columbia this week, but Leona will have to stay at home.

To stand on the streets of a live town like Newberry and watch the citizens from this and other counties for a number of miles there trading, reminds one what business men can do for a town one day was the superior of any town its size in the State, we believe for business, and had more business men and did more business than any town four times as large.

That town today is financially dead, and has killed itself, or rather the business men of that town has killed her. Well we better stop or some one will be on us.

Well, if it is hard times our boys are doing their share of sparring, and prospects now look bright for several more rages this winter, which we will try and report later on.
