Lougshore-Riser.

An interesting event of the past week was the marriage of Miss Emma Riser and Dr. A. L. Longshore, which was solemnized by Rev. D. Tiller, Tuesday last, at high noon, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Riser. The bride was gowned in an elegant costume of brown broadcloth, the corsage trimmed with blue chiffon and rich lace, which displayed her lovely type of Southern beauty. She carried a bouquet of white plumey chrysanthemums and brides' roses emblematic of love and purity. Dr. and Mrs. Longshore were the recipients of numerous handsome presents, attesting their popularity and the appreciation of tueir many friends. After Monday Dr. and Mrs. Longshore will be "At Home" at Silver Street.

The Herald and News extends cordial congratulations, and wishes them a full measure of happiness through the long aisles of time.

Ideal Entertainers.

Lovers of high class entertainments, musical and literary, are awaiting with pleasurable anticipation the coming of the Ideal Entertainers, an organization of distinguished artists presenting a program of unusual excellence and entertainment which is refreshingly novel and original. While partaking very largely of a musical character, the performance is quite a radical departure and in fact is infinitely superior. How pleasingly diversified is the program may be realized from the varied qualipersonnel being Marcella M. Klock, cured even the most deep seated, per dramatic soprano, Elizabeth MacKinstry, violinist, Caroline Conkling, dramatic reader and elocutionist, Aimee Cellarius, solo pianist and accompanist, Belen Cushing, authoress and mezzo soprano and Louis M. We published a letter on Tuesday from a young lady in Rochester, Ind., to Treasurer Boyd asking him to assist her in obtaining some information about her uncles, Charles and Jim Humphries, and in less than three hours after the paper was issued from this office Mr. Boyd had the information he desired for the young lady. Mr. Jim Humphries is now living with his family at Etheridge, S. C., Saluda County, and his brother Chas. Humphries was injured in the cyclone of February 28. 1881, which demolished the town of Chappells, from which injuries he died a year later. His wife and child were killed during the cyclone. This is the information furnished Mr. Boyd.

This shows the importance of making your desires known to the newspaper men For in less than three hours after the news was published Mr. Boyd had the information he wanted. The Herald and News reaches the people and always brings satisfactory results.

Services at the First Mcthodist Church

Miss Belle Bennett, of Richmond, Ky., will lecture in the First Methodist Of the Condition of The Newberry Savings Church next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Miss Bennett is President of the Woman's Board of Home Missions, South. She expects to spend a month in the bounds of the South Carolina Conference in the interest of the Home Missions

Mrs W. A. Rodgers, of Greenville, writes thus of Miss Bennett: "She is ene of the most charming and gifted women of Scuthern Methodism. She spoke twice for us on Sunday and just captivated Greenville." The Daily Mail of Anderson says of Miss Bennett: "A large crowd was at the Methodist church last evening to hear Miss Bennett on the subject of the work of the Home Mission Society. She is indeed a consecrated woman, and has the work of this great movement at heart, as her talk last evening showed. Her enthusiasm inspired the ladies present with the desire to organize a Home Mission Society in Anderson."

It is hoped that a large congregation will greet Miss Bennet; at the Firs Methodist church next Sunday morning. All will be welcome.

At night at the usual hour for ser vices on invitation of the pastor, Rev. W. I. Hierbert, Rev. D. Tiller will preach. Mr. Tiller has been stationed in Newberry for four years and in about a month will have to leave us. This will be the last chance for some time for his many friends and admirers in Newberry to hear him preach-at the First Methodist Church Sunday night.

Corner Drug Store The President's Explanation

Mr. Editor: While looking over last 'riday's Herald and News this morning (I don't get Friday's paper until Monday) I noticed an explanation or rather a reply to the Prosperity correspondent from Prof. Seztler, as to why the Central Luther League failed to meet, at Grace church, in October.

Not wishing the blame placed on Prof. Setzler, the vice-president, I thought it proper to write a few lines. which I ask your indulgence, Mr. Editor, for space in your next issue.

I am very sorry that such a thing has occurred for the Central League has been doing a noble work in promoting deeper interest in the local Leagues. and I feel that this may make some lose interest in the work. I guess as I am the "biggest," the blame must be placed upon my shoulders. However, I will try to carry it anyway.

It is not the duty of the president nor the vice-president to arrange the pro gramme for these meeting. It is the duty of the programme committee and the chairman of the said committee should have looked after the matter How to make the study of history in- Though, we can't press too heavy upon teresting-Mr. J. E. Hunter, Miss him for I have always notified him and helped him arrange the programme. So, I guess this time he was waiting to hear from me concerning the matter. When I left home, September 15th, my local League had not decided on the date for meeting, so I left the matter in hands of my local League vice-presi dent. I had no other thought than that the committee would arrange the programme.

Now, I move that the next meeting, which is to be in January, be held at Grace church. I haven't consulted my League, but I know they'll be glad to have Central League meet with them.

As to my resignation, I did not think t necessary as there would have been out one meeting until election of officers, so I thought the vice-president could preside one time.

I always notified every local League as well as programme committee. This being the case, I guess I'll have the blame to shoulder. Hoping this will be a satisfactory explanation, I will do my utmost, though away, to make the next meeting a suc-
