The Week's Rains. Rainfall from 6.20 p. m., Tuesday to 6 p. m. Wednesday was 3.93-100. The heaviest rainfall for 24 hours since the September flood. It rained 1.60-100 inches in 40 minutes Tuesday evening.

W. G. PETERSON. Longshore's S. C., April 19, 1900.

Mr. Watts Davis, of Clinton, and Miss Laurens Glenn, of this city, were happily united in marriage by Rev. J. L. Williamson, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mattie Glenn, Tuesday evening. A delightful supper was spread for the large number of guests present in honor of the event.

Mr. J. Z. Abrams brought several carp to town yesterday which he had captured in his oat patch. After the heavy rains on Wednesday he took a walk over his oat patch which had been covered by overflow water from the creek to see what damage had been done, and captured eight carp, weighing about five pounds each.

Mr. J. W. White, of Charlotte, N. C., and Miss Hattie Hawkins were married yesterday at 11 o'clock at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. L. A. Hawkins, in the Bath Eden section. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Johnson. The happy couple left on the Southern train for Lancaster, to spend a few days at the home of the bridegroom's father.

The Phonograph Exhibition. The phonograph exhibition given here on Monday night by J. W. Atwood, a theological student at Columbia Seminary, was the richest, rarest and most entertaining of the kind we ever had in Clinton. From the ridiculous to the sublime, the splendid machine rendered itself for nearly two hours, and many of the selections were grand, inspiring, while as many others were conducive to side-splitting laughter.

Col. Johnson's Successor. The Supreme Court has made a decision in an important case in which Col. George Johnson of this city is on the winning side. The case involved the legacy of $20,000 by Mrs. Nebbett to a private library in Greenville, which was controlled by Mrs. Tarnipseed, who employed Col. Johnson as one of her attorneys. The lawyers lost in the lower court, but won a complete victory in the Supreme Court, and Col. Johnson and his associate counsel are receiving the congratulations of their friends over this news.

Merry Makers' Carnival. An account of Merry Makers' Carnival at Augusta, April 23d to 25th, 1900. The Charleston and Western Carolina Railway will sell tickets from all stations at one fare for the round trip. Tickets will be on sale April 21st, 22nd, 23rd, and 24th, with final return limit April 30th, 1900.

The occasion this year promises to surpass all former efforts. Free amusements, and performances on Broad street every day during the week.

VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

Miss Alma Bishop is visiting in Columbia. Hon. H. H. Evans left yesterday on a business trip to Atlanta. Go to the opera house Monday night and hear something good.

Miss Mary Coffield, of the Maybinton section, was in the city yesterday. Scott's creek was higher Wednesday than it has been for two or three years. Rev. Wm. A. Julian, of Lake City, Fla., is visiting friends in this county.

J. W. Watts is announced in this issue as a candidate for County Supervisor. Great damage has been done by the floods in Alabama and Mississippi the past few days.

Mrs. E. P. Pawley has gone to Cuba to spend a few weeks. Mr. Pawley has located at Mantanzas.

Hon. Geo. S. Mower returned yesterday from Columbia, where he had been on professional business.

Misses Janie Vance and Agatha Davis, of Clinton, have been visiting at Mrs. Glenn's the past few days.

Miss Bessie Fields, who has been a visit to Mrs. Frank Pant, has returned to her home in Kentucky.

Those who occasionally or continually talk too much should read the article on our first page on tattlers.

One of our correspondents says that there will be only half a crop of peaches, and that plums will be a failure.

Magistrate Chappell sent John Coleman, cold, to the chain gang for thirty days, yesterday, for stealing from Wooten's store.

The State Inter-Collegiate Oratorical contest is being held in Greenwood today. Mr. J. B. Derrick represents Newberry College.

Supervisor Hill had the chain gang to take up the old stumps on the public square yesterday in view of the Court House. It is a great improvement.

Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning we had hard and washing rains. We hear that considerable damage was done in the country on farms.

Mr. W. W. Bora-by will begin work in a few days on a neat cottage on the corner of Nance and facing Johnstone street. E. H. Leslie has the contract.

The meeting at the Methodist church has continued, although the rain has poured down and will continue through Sunday night. Rev. Herbert is assisted by Rev. T. C. Ligon.

Mr. J. B. Coleman has moved his family over from Saluda. Mrs. Coleman and little one came over a few days ago, and for the present are stopping at Mrs. Blaise's.

President T. J. McCrary was recently elected a director of the Mutual Fire Insurance Company, and has been absent this week attending a meeting of the directors in Baltimore.

The phonograph exhibition at the opera house Monday night, by Mr. J. W. Atwood, will be worth going to hear. He has a fine instrument and a first-class collection of records.

Mrs. E. P. McClintock returned Tuesday from Lake City, Fla., where she spent a month. She was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Euphemia, who spent a few days at home.

The case in the U. S. Court against H. W. Goodwin, of Vaughanville, for criminal carelessness in handling mail while postmaster, was not pressed by District Attorney Lathrop at Greenville on Wednesday.

Mrs. E. Y. Morris was bitten on the thumb by a small spider Wednesday evening, which caused her considerable pain. Dr. Kibler was called in and relieved her suffering, and she is fast recovering from the bite.

Polk Miller gave one of his delightful and highly pleasing entertainments at the opera house Wednesday evening. This was the close of the series of lectures, and we believe the best was saved for the last.

Mr. L. G. Balle, City Clerk of Laurens, stopped over Wednesday with his friend, Mr. Joseph Mann, while en route to Columbia, where he goes as a delegate to the meeting of the Grand Lodge Knights of Honor.

The property holders of Laurens are petitioning for an election on the question of issuing bonds to extend the water works and put in sewerage. We suppose Newberry will remain silent on the question for a while.

INDUCEMENTS TO MANUFACTURERS.

The City Council Willing to Exempt All Manufacturing Enterprises Hereafter Chartered from Municipal Taxes for Five Years.

The regular meeting of the City Council was held last night. The full Council was present and the regular routine business transacted.

The following resolution was introduced by Alderman Cabanis and was unanimously adopted, which will likely prove an inducement in bringing manufacturing enterprises to our city, in which it seems for the past few years we have been badly behind:

Whereas the city of Newberry seems to have reached a stand in her industrial affairs almost bordering on stagnation, and realizing that capital waits for inducements; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the City Council now assembled, that we pledge to any manufacturing interest of any kind whatever that may be hereafter chartered, to remit all municipal taxes for a period of five years, and agree to do all in our power to get the citizens to ratify this pledge by vote whenever requested by any parties or corporations so to do.

The Mayor was requested to attend the Mayors' Convention in Spartanburg on May 2nd, and Alderman Evans was elected his alternate.

It was decided to build a bridge over Scott's creek at the O'Neal crossing.

By vote of the Council it was decided that all fines be required paid immediately after sentence is pronounced, or sentence executed. This rule will be strictly enforced hereafter.

CENSUS ENUMERATORS.

Appointments Made for the Entire County and their Commissions Forwarded.

The following list of census enumerators for this county has been forwarded The Herald and News by District Supervisor, David H. Russell, of Anderson. The selections are good ones and the work will be done properly:

- No. 1—Welch Wilbur. " 2—S. S. Gunningham. " 3—F. E. Maybin. " 4—J. L. Epps. " 5—J. H. Crisp. " 6—J. Y. Floyd. " 7—M. J. Longshore. " 8—S. S. Weris. " 9—R. A. Slight. " 9—J. I. Bedenbaugh. " 10—V. A. Counts. " 11—J. C. Chalmers.

City—S. G. Welch and W. H. Wallace.

No. 9 (Stony Battery) has been divided into two enumeration districts. The compensation is 25 cents per capita in rural districts, and 17 cents for each farm enumerated. In the towns it is 2 cents per capita.

Yours, &c., DAVID H. RUSSELL, SUPERVISOR.

A Happy Marriage.

Mr. L. B. Aull and Miss Ella G. Riser were married by Rev. M. G. G. Scherer on Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. S. A. Riser, in the presence of relatives of the contracting parties and a few close friends. Immediately after the marriage the happy couple were tendered an informal reception at the residence of the groom's brother, Mr. E. H. Aull. The groom is the youngest brother of Editor E. H. Aull and his list of friends embraces the entire city, and the bride is one of Newberry's most excellent young ladies. They have the best wishes and happy congratulations of their many friends.

Spain's Greatest Need.

Mr. R. P. Olivin, of Barcelona, Spain, spends his winters at Aiken, S. C. Weak nerves had caused severe pains in the back of his head. On using Electric Bitters, America's greatest Blood and Nerve Restorer, all pain soon left him. He says this grand medicine is what his country needs. All America knows that it cures liver and kidney troubles, purifies the blood, tones up the stomach, strengthens the nerves, puts vim, vigor and new life into every muscle, nerve and organ of the body. If weak, tired or ailing you need it. Every bottle guaranteed, only 50 cents. Sold by all Druggists.

Capt. Grenacker to Wed.

Capt. Eugene F. Grenacker, of the Augusta Division of the Southern Railroad, is to be married on Wednesday next to a charming young lady of the city of Augusta. He and his bride will come to Newberry on a visit to his mother, Mrs. Corrie Grenacker. We extend congratulations to "Gene" in advance.

THE FATS AND LEANS.

THE SCORE 12 TO 13 IN FAVOR OF THE LEANS.

A Good Game by Rusty Players—Witnessed by a Large Crowd—The Game by Innings.

The game of baseball between the "fats and leans" of this city was pulled-off on Tuesday afternoon, and it was a great game.

There were present, we would guess, about 400 persons to witness the sight—the sturdy, solid business men of Newberry—merchants, bankers, lawyers, farmers, clerks and members of the S. P. A., rigged out in gray uniform, playing ball; and those who failed to see it, missed something that they will always have cause to regret.

Early in the afternoon Dame Nature went in anticipation of the defeat of the fats, and after the ending of the sixth inning poured down tears in showers to dampen the enthusiasm of the leans over their hard fought victory.

It was a little royal, and those who went expecting to see "no ball playing," were agreeably disappointed, for the fats and leans both surprised their friends and played good ball—considering their enormous quantities and deficiencies.

Some of the players caused considerable amusement by the get-up of their uniforms and the oddity of their appearance. The one which probably elicited the most comment was that of Dr. Theo. Johnson, who was a facsimile of "Uncle Sam" in appearance, and gave the spectators considerable amusement. His was a happy idea.

In the absence of Hon. George S. Mower, Mr. J. D. Luthr. was requested to umpire the game, which he did with satisfaction to both sides.

The following is a list of the players, the substitutes being run in in order to give all a chance to take part in the game:

- FATS: C. J. Purcell, P. S. J. McCrary, John M. Kibler, M. C. Lewis, J. A. Bedenbaugh, D. L. Cooper, E. W. R. Hopp, A. T. E. Wood, R. J. Smith, C. W. B. Shop, O. M. H. Jones. LEANS: R. D. Smith, W. C. T. Smith, W. K. Slight, W. G. Housen, Z. F. Wright, G. B. Cromer, L. W. Jones, M. L. Spearman, T. H. Pope, J. H. W. Lee, J. E. Cook, J. J. Lane, W. F. Egan, Theo. Johnson, Ed. Scholtz, H. A. K. Olin, H. A. W. Hill.

We endeavored to take down the plays as they were made and give it below as accurate as it was possible to get it, in order to give our readers an idea as to what was done, and give it below by innings.

FIRST INNING.

Col. Purcell went to the bat first for the fats. Caught out on foul knock by catcher.

McCaughrin came next, knocked ball to first and was put out.

John M. Kinard third to the bat. Sawed out and retired the side with a big goose egg to its credit.

R. D. Smith first batman for the leans. Knocked ball to right short-stop, went to first and stole to second and third and scored on a pass ball by the catcher.

Spearman came next to the bat. Went to first on a pop-up. To second on a wild throw from the field. Stole to third, and scored on a base-hit by Slight.

Slight came next to the bat and made a base-hit, stole to second and scored on a pass ball.

Dr. Housen next took the stick—struck out and went to first on a pass ball.

L. W. Jones came next, made a base-hit, went to first and sent Housen to second, both finally scoring on a wild throw from pitcher to second base and from second to third.

Prof. Cromer fanned.

J. H. Wicker took the stick and knocked a two-bagger.

A. J. Cook came next, sent the ball to third, which was muffed, allowing Wicker to score, he taking second base on a wild throw from third to second. Scored on a wild throw from home plate to third.

T. H. Pope came next to the bat and verified the little song:

"Tom Pope, Tom Pope, what's you about, One strike, two strikes, three strikes, out."

Z. F. Wright then came to the bat and sent the ball whirling to left short-stop and was caught on first, which retired the side with seven runs to its credit.

This set the "rooters" for the leans to yelling and lean stock went whirling for a few minutes, but the "fats" were ready to play ball and say nothing.

SECOND INNING.

Alderman Cabanis took the bat and sawed out.

Holmes came next and followed the example set by Cabanis.

Blackwelder took the stick, struck out, but made first on pass ball.

Copeland fanned and put another goose-egg in the nest of the "fats."

Smith then went to the bat for the leans and got his base on balls.

Spearman came next, but died on first, and Smith got caught on second.

Slight's time came and he sent the ball to short stop, who got it to first base ahead of the runner and retired the leans with a goose-egg in their column. Fat stock then took a rise and the "fat rooters" wanted to rush the game.

THIRD INNING. Edw. R. Hipp struck out. A. T. Brown struck out, but went to first on a pass ball.

E. Cavanaugh came next to the bat and covered himself with glory by knocking a home run, he and Brown both scoring, and the fats and their admirers in the grand stand simply went wild.

Purcell knocked a foul, which was caught by Slight, and stood him aside.

McCaughrin went next to the bat and sent the ball to center field, a two-bagger. He stole to third and finally scored on a pass ball.

Kinard came next, sawed the air and retired the side.

Housen next took the stick and sent the ball with lightning speed to right field. It was stopped, knocked up and caught by C. W. Bishop. This was one of the prettiest catches of the game.

Schenck came next to the bat and went to first on a knock to the pitcher, who let the ball pass to short stop.

Cromer batted next and knocked the ball to right field. He went to first and sent Schenck to third.

Wicker was the next batter. He knocked a high ball to right field, a two-bagger, which gave him second and scored Schenck and Cromer.

Cook was the next to take the stick. He went to first on a pop-up.

Tyree at the bat—knocked ball to right field, which scored Wicker and sent Cook to third. Tyree caught on second.

Wright came next and went to first on knock to pitcher.

Smith was the next batter. He knocked the ball to left field, which gave Holmes a pretty catch and retired the side.

FOURTH INNING.

Bishop was called to the bat. He knocked the ball to pitcher and was put out on first.

Holmes came next. He went to first on a knock to third, which was muffed by the third baseman. Went to second on a pass ball and stole to third and was put out.

Blackwelder got his base on balls and stole to second and died there.

Copeland fanned.

Hipp sent the ball to right field and failed to make first base, which retired the side with another egg in the basket.

Spearman then took the bat for the leans. Knocked the ball to right short-stop and was put out by Blackwelder on first.

Housen knocked a liner to second and made first base, but was caught on second.

Schenck knocked the ball to pitcher. It was caught and the side called out, both sides having been shut out in that inning.

FIFTH INNING.

Brown was first to the bat in the fifth. He hit the ball, but was put out at first.

Cavanaugh came next and went to first on a knock to right field.

Purcell next to the bat—knocked the ball to center field, gave him first and sent Cavanaugh to third.

McCaughrin next knocked a three-bagger. Sent Cavanaugh and Purcell home and scored himself on a pass ball.

Kinard knocked a fly to second base, which was caught by Housen and stood him aside.

Bishop came next to the bat. Struck out and made second and third on pass balls and scored on a wild throw by the pitcher to third base.

Holmes came next to the bat. Struck out, but got first on pass ball, and was left there by Blackwelder, who fanned the air and retired the side.

Prof. Cromer then came up for the leans and went to first on knock to short stop and finally scored on pass ball.

Wicker was next to the bat. He knocked the ball to the pitcher and was put out at first by a pretty catch by Kinard.

Cook came next, knocked the ball to second, but failed to make first.

Schenck knocked ball to left short stop and the side was retired by the pretty catch of C. E. Summer.

SIXTH INNING.

C. E. Summer was the first batter for the fats in the sixth inning. He struck out, but made first on pass ball, stole to second.

Hipp was the next batter. Sent the ball to short stop and was put out on first. Summer went to third on this knock.

Bishop came next to the bat and went to first on a knock to left short stop, which scored Summer. Bishop went to second, third and finally scored on pass balls.

Cavanaugh was next to the bat. Knocked ball to short stop, made first and went to second, third and scored on pass balls.

Purcell came next, struck out and went to first on pass ball.

McCaughrin sent the ball to second, made first base and sent Purcell to second. Purcell stole to third.

Kinard fanned out.

Cabanis made a base hit, which scored Purcell and sent McCaughrin to third and scored on pass ball. Stole second by swift run and made third on a pass ball.

Holmes struck out, but went to first on a pass ball, and stole to second.

Blackwelder sawed out and retired the fats.

Henry Kinard led off for the leans and showed plainly that he couldn't hit a "feather bed with a base fiddle."

Wright was the next, and got his base on balls. Smith followed with a knock to center, which gave him first and sent Wright to second. Wright stole to third.

Spearman struck out. Slight sent the ball to left short stop, which scored Wright and sent Smith to third.

Housen made a knock to center field, got to first, scored Smith and sent Slight to second base.

Jones came next, failed to make first and retired the side with Housen on second and Slight on third.

This was the end of the sixth inning, and on account of the rain the game was called, the score standing 12 to 13 in favor of the leans.

SPECIAL FEATURES.

Some special features were: Bishop's catch in the field—"a favorite play of his."

Cavanaugh's home run. Holmes's pretty catch in third inning. Summer's catch in the fifth inning. McCaughrin's three-bagger. Cabanis' swift running.

The loose friend was in evidence on every side, and no doubt some funny snapshots were taken. One young lady we know got the "fall and short of it."

We understand that about $200 was realized, which will be quite a help in buying a telescope for the college.

An effort will be made to repeat the game in the near future, as we understand that the "fats" are satisfied they can beat the "leans." It wouldn't be a bad idea. So let's have it over.
