JOHNSON AND LATIMER.

Striking Resemblance Between the Two Congressmen

(Spartanburg Herald.)

Many people say there is a strong resemblance as to personal appearmee between the Fourth Districts newly elected congressman, Jos. T. Johnson, and the Third District's old reliable, Asbury C. Lavimer, Each of them claims to be the handsomest and both have their personal as well as political admirers.

Both the old and the new congressmen are fine products of upcountry farms, Mr. Latimer from Anderson's level fields and M. Johnson from Laurens' red hills. Both are large, good-natured, easy and popular in manner, and both of them have wen their fights against ig odds. Mr. Latimer is probably the older in years as well as in oftice holding. but both commenced running for congress the same year. The probability is that Mr. Johnin will hall on to his high commis-
