MIMNAUGH'S

— WARNING SHOT! —

We Have Just Returned from the Eastern Markets!

We Have, During the Past Week, Received Goods by the Car Load, and Still They Come!

There has been no backwardness in our buying and wherever there was a bargain to be had it was bought, and by the time the entire has been placed in

The Big Store

it will, beyond the shadow of a doubt, eclipse any previous effort in the mercantile arena in upper Carolina. What is found on our counters is high grade, strictly first class.

A Power of Value Giving!

It's not so much what we say that is responsible for the business this store is doing, but what we do is up to date. All our energies and endeavors are bent towards making this store the very best in South Carolina. The story of success is written all over the store; it's evident any way you turn in the right management, the right goods and the right prices. The old antiquated idea of small sales and large profit is buried beneath our modern policy of large sales and small profit. The coming feature of our fall business lies in three majestic words, viz:

CHEAPER THAN EVER!

While in New York I ran across a big lot of Millinery which I bought at less than 50c. on the dollar. Don't buy your hats until you see our line. Miss Ella O'Rourke, of Baltimore, has arrived and taken charge of our

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT.

She is the young lady I had last season. She is the best Milliner that ever came down South. When you want a Hat or Bonnet come to Mimnaugh's.
