THE GOEBEL MURDER TRIAL.

YOUSEY, THE ACCUSED, EITHER A LUNATIC OR AN ACTOR

Remarkable Scene in the Court at Georgetown, Kentucky. Youtsey Shrieks, Cries and Groans and Shouts: "Goebel is not Dead; all the Demons in Hell Could not Kill Him!"

Georgetown, Ky., October 9.—One of the most remarkable scenes ever enacted in a Kentucky Court occurred tonight in the trial of Henry E. Youtsey, charged with being a principal in the shooting of Governor Goebel, the defendant himself being the chief participant. The Court room was crowded at the time and the excitement was intense. Doc Armstrong, the Louisville detective, had just told of his talks with Youtsey before and after his arrest. Then Arthur Goebel was put on the stand and Judge Ben Williams, who for the first time appeared for the prosecution, did the questioning, Arthur Goebel said:

"I talked with Youtsey the day he was arrested late in the afternoon, in the jail in Frankfort, in reference to the murder of my brother."

Just at this point Youtsey arose behind his attorney and in a loud voice said: "It is untrue; it is a lie. I never spoke a word to that man in my life, nor he to me."

Col. Crawford told him to keep quiet and sit down, and others took hold of him.

"I will not sit down. I never said a word to that man; it is untrue."

He was shouting by this time and everyone was becoming excited. Youtsey's wife sprang to his side. Then Youtsey hysterically shouted again: "I am innocent; there is no blood upon my hands; these men are swearing my life away."

Two or three deputy sheriffs went over and grabbed him. He struggled wildly and said: "Let me alone. I will not sit down."

Arthur Goebel meanwhile sat sphinx-like in the witness chair and never turned his head. Finally after Youtsey was forced into a seat he shouted again: "Goebel is not dead—All the demons in hell could not kill him."

"Mr. Sheriff, if the defendant does not behave himself I will hand him," said Judge Cantrell. Meanwhile the audience could not be forced to keep their seats until the most radical party type, who despite his years, experience and scholarship, appears absolutely to abominate the southern school of statesmanship to which Senator Tillman belongs.

The Springfield, (Mass.) Republican, taking Senator Hoar's expression as a cue, goes a great how shot beyond the Senator in jubilious, fair and rather eulogistic views of Senator Tillman. This double testimonial comes at times when Senator Tillman is most fiercely assailed and misunderstood in Republican and so-called Gullible Democratic sources. We reproduce the Springfield Republican's complimentary article which will be read with amazed interest even in the south. Senator Tillman's frank, bold, and able course has won the admiration and respect of his Republican colleagues in the Senate, and this public testimony must be extremely gratifying to him. We agree with the Springfield Republican that if he tempered his statesmanship with more charity, or mercy he would correct a defect in his remarkable character. Perhaps his own idea about that is something like Mr. Stephens' notion. When somebody asked Mr. Stephens why he did not stop politically fighting a certain distinguished individual, he said: "Well let him quit and then I will stop."—Augusta Chronicle.

Youtsey still occupied his chair with his eyes closed, apparently in a half fainting condition. After the crowd passed out, Jailer Reed and deputies carried Youtsey to the jail as he was unable to walk. Various reasons are assigned for his out-break, the first being that his long confinement and strain of the trial caused him to become hysterical and lose control of himself. Another is that he is really demented as shown by his remark that Goebel was not dead. He is being attended by physicians and relatives at the jail and his condition is deemed critical.

WHERE WHEELER STANDS.

THE OLD HERO OF THREE WARS IS REQUESTED TO SPEECH.

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 12.—The Journal this afternoon published an open letter to Gen. Joseph Wheeler, signed by Jordan McDonald, president of the Bryan and Stevenson club, calling upon him to repudiate the position in which he is put by the published reports of Roosevelt's address delivered at Indianapolis yesterday in which he is quoted as saying:

"I am glad to see the men who were the blue in the Civil war; I am glad to see also the men as were the gray, such as General Buckner and 'Fighting Joe' Wheeler stand with us this year."

General Wheeler has not yet replied to the letter.

GROVER'S VIEWS.

THEY HAVE UNDERGONE NO CHANGE SINCE 1865.

Louisville, Oct. 12.—Ex-President Grover Cleveland has replied to a letter written to him by John S. Greene of this city, inquiring if the former president had changed his views on the financial question as expressed in his letter to the Chicago business men April 13, 1895.

Mr. Cleveland in his letter, which is dated Buzzard's Bay, Oct. 7, 1900, replied as follows:

"I have received your letter enclosing a copy of my letter written more than five years ago to the business men of Chicago. I had not seen it in a long time, but it seems to me I could not state the case better at this time if I should try.

"I have not changed my opinion as expressed in the last."

S. MCINTOSH TILLMAN.

One of the remarkable signs of the times is the high compliment Senator Hoar of Massachusetts pays Senator Tillman of South Carolina, in the course of an article in the October number of the North American Review. This compliment is, in some respects, the greatest the South Carolina senator ever received, coming as it does, from a political enemy of the most radical party type, who despite his years, experience and scholarship, appears absolutely to abominate the southern school of statesmanship to which Senator Tillman belongs.

The Springfield, (Mass.) Republican, taking Senator Hoar's expression as a cue, goes a great how shot beyond the Senator in jubilious, fair and rather eulogistic views of Senator Tillman. FOR MALARIA,
CHILLS AND FEVER.The Best Prescription Is Grove's
Tasteless Chill Tonic.

The Formula Is Plainly Printed on Every Bottle,
So That the People May Know Just What They Are Taking.

Imitators do not advertise their formula knowing that you would not buy their medicine if you knew what it contained. Grove's contains lion and Quinine put up in correct proportions and is in a Tasteless form. The lion acts as a tonic while the Quinine drives the malaria out of the system. Any reliable druggist will tell you that Grove's is Original and that all other so-called "Tasteless" chill tonics are imitations. An analysis of other chill tonics shows that Grove's is superior to all others in every respect. You are not experimenting when you take Grove's—in superiority and excellence having long been established. Grove's is the only Chill Cure sold throughout the entire material sections of the United States. No Cure, No Pay. Price, 50c.
