The opening service at 7.30 p. m., last night, began with a song service led by Prof Excell and the audience ably assisted the Professor in rendering some beautiful selections. At 8 p. m. Dr. W. E. Pelham made the address of welcome which was responded to by Dr. T. H. Law, of Spartanburg. After this the "International work" was most ably presented by R-v. B. W. Spilman, a member of the International party. Prof. H. M. Hamill then gave a most excellent address upon "The Modern Sunday-set ool." Dr Hamill is an able speaker and never disappoints his hearers. His address was filled with good things and they were appreciated by his audience.

The program for the entire convention is made up of interesting topics and will be found of much value to the delegates and other workers who are privileged to attend the meetings. For the benefit of our readers we print the program, which is as follows:

Appointments

Governor McSweeney has appointed Wallace C. Cromer auditor for Newberry and Jno L Epps, treasurer for the county. Mr. Cromer succeeds himself and Mr Epps will take charge about the first of March. Mr. Boyd will be ready to transfer at that time and the new treasurer can make up the penalty book and collect the delinquent taxes. Mr. C F. Boyd will retire from office with the well-done of every citizen of the county. The best we can wish for Mr. Epps is that he will Imake as efficient and as courteous an official as his predecessor has made and we feel sure he will strive to do so.
