A HOME FOR THE SOLDIERS.

The question of building a home for ex-Confederate soldiers is being agius that "there are three old soldiers in the Laurens poor house today." This printed $150,000 for pensions, but it some of them from going to the poor house. Whether the sum is not large enough or the trouble lies in the distribution of the appropriation we cannot say. Whatever it is, semething should be done to keep ex Confederates out of the poor house. Such a thing is a crying shame on our State. Homes have been built in several of the States recently, and are proving satisfactory.

the stage.

CONFEDERATE REUNION.

the Confederate Veterans' Reunion to county and they will not be disapbe held in Columbia next week, and pointed. Columbia is getting ready for it. Homes for the visiting veterans will be provided in private houses without cost to them, and carriages will be furnished for all those who are unable to walk in the parade. The hotels have received more requests for accommodations than they have ever had for fair week, and from all indications it seems that Columbia is to have one of the largest crowds that she has ever attempted to entertain. All who can should attend. Thirty five years have passed since the war and most of those who took part are now old men, and it must be a joy to them to come together again and and uprightness in his dealings with talk over the experiences of the days his fellowman. One by one they are when they withstood and oftentimes repulsed the fierce onslaughts of Northern hosts—once again to march shoulder to shoulder with the comrades who stood with them on the field of battle. It is at not less than forty dollars.

Stomach and Liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was whooly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all Stomach, Liver But it must be a greater joy to them to see the great throngs of people who have assembled to see them and talk that their memory and their cause will people. Let all go who can, and they

President McKinley has received great ovations on every stop he has made on the tour which he is now making through the Southern States. Enthusiastic crowds have greeted him everywhere and prolonged applause ha. sounded in his ears from the start. The Southern people have shown and are showing their respect and honor for the President of a great country and their own country. While they do not commend his course, and in fact condemn it, yet they have nothing against the man himself. The great majority of them voted against him a year ago and would vote against him today, but while he is their President they will show him the respect due to the office which he holds and uphold him when he treads the path of duty will not regret it.

The State newspaper seems to be greatly interested in malaria and mosquitoes. If you want to escape both come Newberry and spend the summer months. Both are unknown here, and we have cool and refreshing breezes while some of our neighboring towns are sweltering under the fierce heat of the summer sun. And then we have the best and purest water that can be found in the State, not even excepting the mineral springs.

The monument erected in Charleston to the memory of Henry Timrod was unveiled Wednesday afternoon. Timrod is South Carolina's own poet, and then return to Georgia. it is but meet and proper that her sons should have erected this monument to tell of her "sweet singer" and to per petuate his memory.

Beware of a Cough,

A cough is not a disease but a symp tom. Consumption and proncenus, which are the most dangerous and fatal qiseases, have for their first indication a persistent cough, and if properly treated as soon as this cough appears are easily cured. Chamberlain's Cough

"It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Colle, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Druggist A. W. Sawtelle, of Hartford, Conn. "A lady customer, seeing the remedy exposed for sa'e on my show case, said to me: 'I really believe that medicine saved my life the past summer while at the shore,' and she became so enthusiastic over its merits that I at once made up my mind to recommend it in the future. Recently a gentleman came into my store so overcome with colic pains that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose of this remedy which helped him. I repeated the dose and in fifteen minutes he left my store smilingly in-forming me that he folt as well as ever." Sold by W. E. Pelham.

"Sing their own praise."

For the benefit of those who wish to purchase a piano from the present time to the first of September, we have decided to offer the Stieff Piano on very convenient terms. You will not have to pay very much cash down. We can arrange that to suit your own convenience. Then a payment can be made in the fall to suit, and the balance, if any, can be arranged in a satisfactory manner.

Remember Chas. M. Stieff manufactures his own pianos and will not burden you with an unnecessary profit, for we are selling to you direct instead of to a retail dealer to resell.

Our pianos will only have to be seen in comparison with the best to convince you that it will be to your interest to buy the Stieff, and all we ask is that you try our piano, give it a critical examination, and if we do not show you more value for the money than you can possibly get in any other make, then buy from any one you may choose, but don't take our envious competitor's word and buy from him before trying the Stieff.
