THE PRESS GANG SAFE IN BUFFALO.

A Delightful Day at Albany—Will Visit Exposition Today, and Monday Then on to Niagara, etc.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 27.—Our party spent a day most pleasantly and profitably at Albany, leaving for Buffalo this morning at 12 o'clock. We left on a special car of the New York Central railroad and the journey here occupied the remainder of the day most pleasantly. Tonight we are seeing new sights and hearing new sounds in Buffalo with the exposition in prospect for tomorrow or Monday.

We go to Niagara, Toronto, Montreal and Quebec later, then back to New York. At Albany, among other pleasures, our party was shown over the State house by Judge Joyce, who acted for Gov. O'Dell, who was absent. President Aull has given the best sort of management to every detail of the trip and is receiving the thanks and congratulations of every member of his press gang. S. E. Erwin.

IN ALBANY. The Albany (N. Y.) Argus, in speaking of the North Carolina Press Association while in Albany, says: The men of the party are a representative body and are typical Southerners. They are a genial, whole-souled crowd and are going to get every bit of fun and pleasure they can out of their long trip.

The ladies are beauties, every one, and were admired on the streets last evening as they took short strolls after supper. A number of the party visited the capitol and rode about on the belt line and Pine Hills trolley cars during the evening. This morning will be given up to the sight seeing and President Aull, of The Herald and News of Newberry, S. C., who is in charge of the party, said that he hoped to have the tourists visit all the places of interest to be seen before leaving here.

What is Newberry's Debt? Mr. Editor:—As the election on the question of issuing city bonds to the amount of $25,000 is to be held within the next few days, 20th of August, and believing that the taxpayers of the city should be in possession of the true condition of affairs, many taxpayers would consider it a favor if you would secure and publish an itemized statement of the outstanding debts of the city, including all bonds and floating debts, and let them see where they "are at." This is not asked by way of an argument against sewerage, for the writer expects to vote "yes" on the question, but it is information which the voters should be put in possession of. Taxpayer.

Cotton Mill to Close for a Week. On Saturday, the 10th of August, the management of the Newberry Cotton Mill have decided to close the mill for one week, mainly in order to give the mill hands a needed rest.

President McCrary, who always bears in mind the interests of his employees, says that all the water-melons and fruit will be ripe and plentiful about that time, and he wants to give the operatives an opportunity to spend a week pleasantly with their friends. And then there are some repairs which are needed and which will be made during this week. But the main object in closing the mill is to give the hands a short period of rest and enjoyment.

A Runaway Accident. Saturday morning while going to a picnic in Saluda county Miss. Eva Teague, Miss Christyberg, who is visiting her and another young lady, were thrown violently from a buggy. When about fourteen miles from town the horse became frightened and when the young ladies saw they were unable to control it they decided to jump from the buggy, but just at that instant the buggy ran over a stump and they were thrown backwards.

Miss Christyberg struck the back of her head and was unconscious for several hours. The other ladies were only bruised a little. They were near Mr. Charlie Smith's residence when the accident occurred and were taken to his home. Dr. Ellisor was sent for and he and Major Copeland left immediately. The accident was not as serious as was at first thought and the young ladies were brought home Sunday and are all right again.

Yo Song of Yo Foolish Old Woman. I saw an old woman go up a steep hill, And she chuckled and laughed, as she went, with a will. And yet, as she went, Her body was bent, With a load as heavy as sins in lent. "Oh! why do you chuckle old woman," says I, "As you climb up the hill-side so steep and so high?" "Because, don't you see, I'll presently be, At the top of the hill. He! he!" says she.

I saw the old woman go downward again; And she easily traveled with never a pain, Yet she loudly cried, And justly sighed, And groaned though the road was level and wide. "Oh! why, my old woman," says I, "do you weep, When you laughed, as you climbed up the hill-side so steep?" "High-ho! I am vexed Because I expect," Says she, "I shall ache in climbing the next."

—H. Pyle. A Busy Day in the Magistrate's Court. "Since you are cowardly enough to take a blow from a negro and not resent it yourself but have come to law seeking redress I do not propose to fine the negro who hit you anything." This was in substance what Magistrate Chappell told a white man in his court yesterday who had caused to be arrested and brought before the magistrate one Fanny Sims, charged with assault and battery with intent to kill. It seems that this white man had been ploughing and on coming close to where the negro woman was sweeping, his mule became frightened and he told her to stop-sweeping, whereupon she threw four or five rocks at him, hitting him once.

Then turning to the negroes in his court Magistrate Chappell said: "Because I have not fined this negro woman do not think you can do as she has done, for if this white man had given her a good beating I would not have fined him a cent. The only reason I did not fine this negro woman was because this white man was two cowardly to resent in person a blow from a negro. But so long as I am magistrate I propose that the white men shall rule their own plantations." A civil case, Day vs. Hipp, for rent, was transferred to Judge Hare. After hearing it was decided to leave the case to arbitrators, but the arbitrators could not agree and the case is still open.

The State vs. Warren Watts, charged with whipping a negro was called late yesterday afternoon. Magistrate Chappell said that the negro whipped by Watts was an impudent negro who loafs around Helena and had given Watts some impudence, and Watts had taken a brush broom and given him a good whipping. Watts pleaded guilty but asked to make a statement. After hearing the statement the court remarked that no words would justify a blow, "but in order to show the negroes of this county that they mustn't give white people impudence and not be punished I will only impose a fine of fifty cents."
