NEWBERRY MARKET

Table with market prices for various goods including Butter, Eggs, Chickens, Corn, Sweet potatoes, Turkeys, and various flours.

We hope our subscribers and those who owe us on other accounts will not forget to call at the office and settle. Cotton is coming in and it will take a very small part of a bale of cotton to pay your subscription and we beg you to remember this small matter. In many cases we have been waiting long and patiently.

Money to Loan. On long time and easy terms, secured by first mortgage on improved real estate. Apply to Hunt, Hunt & Hunter, Attorneys at Law.

For Rent. A good three-horse farm, near Bethlehem church, known as Geo. B. Suber's. Bounded by the land of J. D. Suber, Mud and Cannon Creeks. Worked this year by Mr. Thomas Adams. Has a good dwelling, tenant houses, hay meadow, pasture, summer and winter, and other conveniences. For further information apply to Forest H. Suber, care of Lorick & Lowrance, Columbia, S. C.

The old adage "a new broom sweeps well" does not apply to our business, for our work improves every week. Our business is improving too, by the way. You had better join the procession to the Newberry Steam Laundry Co.

Highest price paid for hides. Mr. J. W. White has moved into his new quarters, the store lately occupied by Mr. T. Q. Boozier. He is in the same line and will be glad to serve his customers. Call and see him. His stock is good and his prices are right.

We are here to please the most exacting. If we have failed to do so in your case, let us know about it, for we are here to serve well. Newberry Steam Laundry Co.

In my larger and more central store, the T. Q. Boozier stand, I am better able than ever to serve my customers. Come in and see me and I'll treat you right, whether you want cooking stoves, tinware, China or a gun. A line of high grade bicycles at low down prices. J. W. White.

Prices of Ladies ready-made waists and skirts greatly reduced, at Wooten's. Died on September 16 Edward W. D. Barry, son of J. B. Barry, of West End, of cholera infantum. Aged one year and 11 months.

A prominent business man in town said the other day: "I have sent my laundry to this town and that town, had it done in New York and Philadelphia, but for constant and new service, with work that always pleases, I send it to the Newberry Steam Laundry Co."

Teacher in the Graded School Elected. At a meeting of the trustees of the Newberry graded school last night, Miss Una Lake was elected teacher to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Lilla Kibler, who goes to the Indian Territory. Miss Lake is well fitted for the position and her election will give general satisfaction to the patrons of the school. She will teach the ninth grade.

It Dazzles the World. No discovery in medicine has ever created one quarter of the excitement that has been caused by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It's severest tests have been on hopeless victims of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Pleurisy and Bronchitis, thousands of whom it has restored to perfect health. For Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Hay Fever, Hoarseness and Whooping Cough it is the quickest, surest cure in the world. It is sold by all druggists who guarantee satisfaction or refund money. Large bottles 60c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

For the next thirty days we will laundry your lace curtains at 30c. a pair. So cheap that it is almost free. When we finish with them your neighbor will say that they are brand new. When they call for them? Newberry Steam Laundry Co.

THE BELLS TOLLED.

Newberry Shows Her Respect for the Nation's Departed Chief. When it became known in Newberry early Saturday morning that President McKinley had breathed his last there was a very general feeling of sorrow and sadness. The news of his death was a shock to the people and a feeling of indignation against the assassin ran high. Saturday at exactly twelve o'clock the city bell began to toll, striking fifty-eight times, one time for each year of the president's age. Several of the church bells were also tolled. Death of Mr. Fayette Johnson. Mr. Fayette Johnson, of Belton, formerly of Newberry County, died of typhoid fever at Belton on last Thursday, aged about 30 years. The remains were brought to Newberry Friday and carried to his old home for interment. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn their loss. Miss Elsie Hallett Wins the China Set. The voting contest at Pelham's Pharmacy closed last night and Miss Elsie Hallett will receive the set of Havarian China offered to the young lady receiving the highest number of votes. The vote is as follows: Miss Elsie Hallett, 123; Miss Rosa Moore, 67; Miss Mattie Sloan, 45; Mrs. D. C. Flynn, 29; Miss Bernice Todd, 20; Mrs. R. B. McCarty, 12; Mrs. R. C. Perry, 10. A Debate. The West End debating society met in regular session and was called to order by the president, Mr. T. E. Wicker. The following subject was discussed: Resolved, That whiskey has been more destructive to our country than war. After a close discussion on both sides the committee's decision was rendered in favor of the affirmative. Meeting every Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. All are invited to attend. T. S. Hudson, Secretary.

Opening of the Graded Schools. Monday, September 23d, the first day—a change of Geographies—all Pupils Desired to be Present on the First Day. The next session of the Newberry Graded schools will begin Monday, September 23d, 1901. The schools will be opened promptly at 9 o'clock. Pupils who on account of sickness were not present at the examination last June may report for examination and classification Monday when the schools open. Only two changes will be made in the use of text books. Frye's Geographies will be substituted for Maury's, and Maxwell's Writings in English will be used in the eighth grade instead of Lookwood's Lessons in English. B. H. JOHNSTONE, Superintendent. Examination for Teachers' Certificates. The summer school for the teachers of Newberry closed Friday, and on Friday and Saturday examinations for teachers' certificates were held by County Superintendent Werts and Prof. Johnstone. Only two teachers who did not attend the summer school stood the examination. The papers have not yet been examined. To Teach in Indian Territory. Miss E. Lilla Kibler left on Saturday morning for McAllister, Indian Territory, where she has accepted a position in the city schools. Miss Kibler had been elected teacher in the Newberry graded school, but upon being offered a much better position, she sent in her resignation to the board, and it was reluctantly accepted. We wish Miss Kibler much success in her new field. The Newberry Steam Laundry Leased. Mr. L. B. Aull has leased the Newberry Steam Laundry and from this time on the business of the laundry will be under his direction and control. Some more machinery will be put in and Mr Aull will be prepared to do first class work and promptly. The machinery in the laundry is of the latest model and turns out work first class in every particular. Resolutions of Respect of Deacon J. T. Davis. Whereas, It has pleased God in his wisdom to remove from us our beloved brother, deacon Josh T. Davis and Whereas, His life was one worthy of honor, and an example which should stimulate others to nobler deeds; therefore, Resolved—That we bow with humble submission to Him who doeth all things well, and say with our departed brother "Thy will be done." Resolved, That we recognize in the life of Deacon Davis, real devotion to his church, and every cause tending to the advancement of the Master's Kingdom here on earth, and a deep interest in the spiritual welfare of others. Resolved, That we thank God for the life and example of Deacon Davis and commend it to others as worthy of imitation. Resolved, That we, the church, extend to his family our sincere sympathy, and pray God's choicest blessings to rest upon them in this sore trial. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minute book of the church, and that the Baptist Courier and County papers be furnished with copies for publication and a copy be sent to his family. By order of church, Sept. 7, 1901. R. G. WALLACE, G. C. GLASSGOW, J. W. SMITH, Committee.

Miss Kibler had been elected teacher in the Newberry graded school, but upon being offered a much better position, she sent in her resignation to the board, and it was reluctantly accepted. We wish Miss Kibler much success in her new field. The Newberry Steam Laundry Leased. Mr. L. B. Aull has leased the Newberry Steam Laundry and from this time on the business of the laundry will be under his direction and control. Some more machinery will be put in and Mr Aull will be prepared to do first class work and promptly. The machinery in the laundry is of the latest model and turns out work first class in every particular. Resolutions of Respect of Deacon J. T. Davis. Whereas, It has pleased God in his wisdom to remove from us our beloved brother, deacon Josh T. Davis and Whereas, His life was one worthy of honor, and an example which should stimulate others to nobler deeds; therefore, Resolved—That we bow with humble submission to Him who doeth all things well, and say with our departed brother "Thy will be done." Resolved, That we recognize in the life of Deacon Davis, real devotion to his church, and every cause tending to the advancement of the Master's Kingdom here on earth, and a deep interest in the spiritual welfare of others. Resolved, That we thank God for the life and example of Deacon Davis and commend it to others as worthy of imitation. Resolved, That we, the church, extend to his family our sincere sympathy, and pray God's choicest blessings to rest upon them in this sore trial. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minute book of the church, and that the Baptist Courier and County papers be furnished with copies for publication and a copy be sent to his family. By order of church, Sept. 7, 1901. R. G. WALLACE, G. C. GLASSGOW, J. W. SMITH, Committee.

THE BELLS TOLLED.

Opening of the Graded Schools. Monday, September 23d, the first day—a change of Geographies—all Pupils Desired to be Present on the First Day. The next session of the Newberry Graded schools will begin Monday, September 23d, 1901. The schools will be opened promptly at 9 o'clock. Pupils who on account of sickness were not present at the examination last June may report for examination and classification Monday when the schools open. Only two changes will be made in the use of text books. Frye's Geographies will be substituted for Maury's, and Maxwell's Writings in English will be used in the eighth grade instead of Lookwood's Lessons in English. B. H. JOHNSTONE, Superintendent. Examination for Teachers' Certificates. The summer school for the teachers of Newberry closed Friday, and on Friday and Saturday examinations for teachers' certificates were held by County Superintendent Werts and Prof. Johnstone. Only two teachers who did not attend the summer school stood the examination. The papers have not yet been examined. To Teach in Indian Territory. Miss E. Lilla Kibler left on Saturday morning for McAllister, Indian Territory, where she has accepted a position in the city schools. Miss Kibler had been elected teacher in the Newberry graded school, but upon being offered a much better position, she sent in her resignation to the board, and it was reluctantly accepted. We wish Miss Kibler much success in her new field. The Newberry Steam Laundry Leased. Mr. L. B.
