Hargrove Sent Up

Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock a preliminary trial was held in the case of Will S. Hargrove, charged with housebreaking and larceny, breaking in and stealing $22.77 worth of cloth last Saturday night from the Newberry Cotton mill, an account of which was published in our last paper. Magistrate Chappell decided after hearing the testimony submitted to bind Mr. Hargrove over to the Circuit court. Mr. Hargrove gave the $200 bond and went his way. The case is a peculiarly sad one, Mr. Hargrove being white and of a good family.

MORE CLOTH RECOVERED. Monday morning several little negroes while playing under the O'Neal bridge discovered some cloth, which proved to be of the same quality of that found with Mr. Hargrove. The little darlings reported their find to their parents and they to the chief of police. Chief Hunter on investigation found 250 yards of cloth under the bridge. They have some slight clues and are working on the case. Further developments are expected in a few days.

To Members of Cannon's Creek Alliance. Several of the Alliances in the county are reorganizing. Those of the old members of Cannon's Creek Alliance who would like to reorganize will meet at the school house on next Saturday, October 12, at 2 o'clock for that purpose. Since 1855 he has been troubled more or less with indigestion and constipation and has tried almost everything in use for those ailments. ESCAPED CONVICT CAPTURED.

A Young Convict Escaped from the Juvenile Reformatory in Lexington. Captured by Policemen Bradley and Carter in Newberry.

Telegram was received here last Tuesday from Sheriff Buford, who was in Columbia at the time, to look out for a young negro convict, who had escaped the night previous from the juvenile reformatory in Lexington County.

The city police and deputy sheriff were on the look out for the young criminal, who had been convicted in Greenwood on a charge of arson and sentenced to 15 years, and each train was watched.

Wednesday morning about 3 o'clock Policemen Bradley and Carter met the north bound train on the C. N. & L., and soon located the boy, whom, with some assistance of the train crew, they succeeded in catching.

The boy was about 17 years of age and said he walked all the way from Columbia through the woods, and on arriving here was given an old suit of clothes by some negroes and was in the act of mounting a train when he was caught.

A reward of $50 had been offered for his capture and when Mr. Carter carried the boy to Columbia Wednesday the conductor claimed half the reward, and it is yet unsettled.

Advertisement for Chas. M. Stieff. YOU CAN'T DOWN THE STIEFF! There are all kinds of men in the Piano business, but the nearest competitor that has attracted our attention recently, is the man who sets to and fully tries to dissuade customers that have already bought fine Pianos by telling them they have been "winded," etc. We would advise such men as this to get out to work, put in the time they waste in such work as this in hunting new customers, and perhaps they could sell a Piano once in a while. The class of people who buy the STIEFF PIANOS are the best people on earth, and their minds are not to be changed by every little wind that blows. STIEFF PIANOS are the very finest Pianos made, and are sold all over the world on merit alone. It's the old reliable STIEFF PIANO all the time, and when anyone tells you he can furnish something as good for less money--just remember you have heard "Ghost stories" before.
