NEWBERRY COLLEGE DAY

We would like to call the attention of the Charleston Exposition authorities to the fact that we have a college here, and a college which we think of sufficient importance and worth and influence to have a day at the exposition, South Carolina College is to have a day set apart to her, and which is to be called South Carolina College day, and why should there not be a Newberry College day?

We would like to see some efforts made by the college authorities in this direction, and if the effort is made to secure a Newberry College day we can see no reason why it should not be successful.

If you want to build up your town, when you see a man trying to build new enterprises or put life into old ones that are dead, even if you can't subscribe any stock, don't discourage him by telling him nothing will succeed here. Have faith in the future of your town and have faith in your people, and don't hesitate to let people know it.

There are a few people here, and we are glad to say they are very few, who seem to take a special delight in looking on the dark side of things, and they seem to have no mission in life except to stand around on the street corners with a long-drawn out mouth and prophecy failure for every new enterprise that is proposed. Wherever you go they are there with the same old story, and they can point you to every enterprise and every man that has failed in Newberry within the last twenty or thirty years. Avoid them as far as possible, and when you want to accomplish anything do not listen to their doleful stories and be discouraged, but go ahead and do what you intended to do and their little plans to discourage you will be defeated.

The State newspaper seems to be doing all in its power to get General Hampton into politics again, and if this is done the peace and quiet of his old age will be broken into without the least chance of his being sent to the United States Senate. General Hampton has served his people and his people have honored him more than they have ever honored any other man, and they love him and respect him. Much better to leave him where he is than to have him again go through the heat and turmoil and bitterness of a campaign for the Senate.

We hope those in charge of the Newberry County exhibit at the Charleston Exposition will not let the interest of the people in this matter lay. The exposition is going to be a big affair, and people will be there from every part of the world, and by all means we must have a creditable exhibit. The importance of this matter can not be too strongly urged upon our people.

Leon Czolgosz, the murderer of President McKinley, was put to death at 7 o'clock this morning. There were only a few persons present when the fatal current was sent through the body of the murderer, and the notoriety so much sought by him was denied him even at his execution.

Having nerves dine at your table doesn't seem to be a healthy pastime, even for the president of the United States. However it is none of our business who eats at his table. It does not in the least hurt us, but the harm done the negro race in the South by this act is going to be felt by them.

Only the chronic kickers who kick for the sake of kicking, have not been pleased with the weather we have been having for the past two weeks. We cannot remember a more pleasant fall.

A good many of our people are going to the State Fair this week and all of them should go to the circus next week and the week after, and with the fair and the circuses everybody should be happy for the next few days.

The Circus.

The Walter L. Main New Fashion Plate Show, which is announced to appear in this city on Tuesday, November 5th, is said to be the most complete organization of the kind that ever took the road, at least the press of other cities where it has exhibited speak of it in the highest terms and unanimously agree that the organization is justly entitled to its appropriate title. The New Fashion Plate Show is made up on strictly modern lines, fully in keeping with the new century and that Mr. Main's efforts have been appreciated is testified to by the enormous crowds that have greeted his enterprise at every stand. This mammoth aggregation, which is new in every particular, is the outgrowth of several years' careful thought and study, and Mr. Main has every reason to feel proud of the outcome. The program is also an innovation in circus ideas and presents an entire new array of eminent artists, embracing several European novelties, which were secured at enormous expense by Mr. Main during his recent extensive foreign tour. The show, as a whole, is a model of its kind and well deserves the ovation it has met. The old Main show was always a strong drawing magnet in this city and it will no doubt be greeted by large audiences on this occasion.

THE SESSIONS COURT.

THE QUESTION OF THE CONSTITUTIONALITY OF THE ACT OF 1899 RAISED.

No Cases Tried Where Objection Was Made—The Little Business Transacted—The Post Jurors Dismissed—Only Remains for the Grand Jury to Make Their Presentation.

The Court of General Sessions convened yesterday morning. There were but few people in town, everybody, we suppose, taking it for granted that no court would be held.

Solicitor Sease and Stenographer Campbell arrived in the city on Sunday and were at their accustomed places ready for business. Judge Gage came in on the freight from Laurens Monday morning which was delayed, and the jurors had been gotten together and everything was in readiness when he arrived.

THE QUESTION RAISED.

The Solicitor had his witnesses called and was ready to hand out the indictment in the case of the State vs. Amelia Speake charged with assault and battery with intent to kill when Mr. Bleuse arose and stated that he thought it would save the county considerable expense and the Court a lot of trouble to make a motion he had in mind at this stage of the proceedings stopping the handing out of indictments. He stated that all knew the condition of affairs as regards the jury law and that he for one would object to any of his cases going to trial.

Mr. Solicitor Sease thought that Mr. Bleuse was springing the question too early, that the proper time would be when the case was called for trial. He only wanted the action of the grand jury in certain cases—there may be "no bills" in some cases.

Col. George Johnstone sustained Mr. Bleuse's position in a short but forcible argument going to show that it would in his opinion be to the Solicitor's interest to have the question settled at this stage of the proceedings for if they waited and the question raised for the case was going to trial and the judge decided that the law was unconstitutional, that would quash all the juries and stop the proceedings of the court, but if it was decided now and allowed to go on with those cases in which no question was raised some cases might be disposed of. Mr. Sease agreed to the motion and his Honor stated that he would not consent for any case to go to trial where the question was raised, that he would give evidence and head to the general opinion of the Bar of the State, it being that the Act was unconstitutional, not because he himself was satisfied that the law was invalid, but there is a grave doubt and he thought best so to proceed.

BILLS HANDED OUT.

Solicitor Sease then handed out the following bills for the grand jury:

- State vs. Lee Glymph—murder.
State vs. Wm. Turner—assault and battery with intent to kill and carrying concealed weapons.
State vs. George Krell—assault and battery with intent to kill and carrying concealed weapons.
State vs. Amelia Speake—assault and battery with intent to kill.
State vs. George Y. Hunter and J. S. Wheeler—violating the druggist's law.
State vs. Charles Pitts and Anthony Pitts—larceny of live stock.
State vs. Charlie Johnson—assault and battery with intent to kill. True bill, plead guilty and sentenced to thirty days on county chain gang.
State vs. Wm. Hunter—bigamy. True bill, released on bond of $200 until next court.

CHARGE TO THE JURY.

In handing the bills to the grand jury the judge said in substance: Gentlemen of the jury, I regret that I detained you this morning. My train was late. You have heard some discussion here this morning as to the validity of the jury. It is obligatory upon me to explain to you the facts. There is no exception to you, to the character of the men who compose the jury, no fault with your sheriff or officers in drawing the jury. The legislature of 1899 undertook to pass an act regulating the drawing of juries. That act has been declared by some of the circuit courts to be unconstitutional or in conflict with the constitution of 1895, as the new law applies to only certain counties. There is such a grave doubt that I feel that it would not be safe to press cases to trial. So we will submit to you only such cases in which the question is not raised. There are only four prisoners in jail—one murder case, two assault and battery with intent to kill, and one for bigamy. This speaks well for your county. It then charged as to the indictments handed out and the grand jury retired.

BILLS RETURNED.

- State vs. Lee Glymph—murder—true bill. On motion of Mr. Bleuse, Solicitor Sease consenting, the defendant was ordered released from the custody upon entering into bond in the sum of $500, conditional for his appearance at the next term of Court.
State vs. Wm. Turner—assault and battery with intent to kill and carrying concealed weapon—true bill. This case was tried and a verdict of guilty rendered and the prisoner sentenced to fifteen months at hard labor on public works of the county or same period of time in the State penitentiary.
State vs. George Krell—assault and battery with intent to kill—true bill.
State vs. Amelia Speake—assault and battery with intent to kill—true bill.
State vs. G. Y. Hunter and J. S.

Wheeler—violating of druggist's law—true bill. Plead guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $5.00 each, it being estimated that the costs of the case would not exceed that amount.

State vs. Charles Pitts and Anthony Pitts—larceny of live stock—true bill. State vs. Scott Johnstone—violating dispensary law—sentenced to three months of court to pay a fine of $125 or to be imprisoned at hard labor on public works of the county, or in State penitentiary for a term of six months.

On motion of Attorneys Selampert & Holloway execution of this sentence was suspended until December 1st, and an order issued releasing Johnstone from custody on a $200 bond, conditional to abide the sentence of court after that date.

The business of the court being about completed, as far as no objections were raised, the petit jurors were dismissed. This morning the grand jury rendered their presentment and the criminal court will adjourn sine die.

Dentist.

Dr. E. C. Jones will be at Little Mountain, S. C., on the third Monday of each month, commencing Monday, September 10th. He will be pleased to offer his professional services to all who need it.

The best and cheapest line of Ladies' Jackets and Capes is at Copeland Bros.

The State Convention.

Mrs. Bullock, who lectured here last May on temperance and who organized a District Union at Newberry, will be again in our midst next Tuesday and assist Mrs. Hayes in the State Convention. The exercises at this convention will be very interesting—talks from several of our pastors will be given, recitations from members of Y. W. C. T. U. and one or two parliamentary drills. The devotional meetings will be held in the new Central Methodist church, and the music at all the sessions promises to be exceptionally good.

Strict Rules of the P. O. Department.

"Anent" the Fair matter at Newberry a postal employe made a startling statement yesterday. Mr. Fair's friends allege that he was ousted from the postoffice on a technicality. It is a violation of the postal regulations for a postmaster to substitute a check for cash. Moreover, it is against the law for him to substitute from his own pocket for money of even value in the cash drawer. If a patron hands a $20 gold piece, the postmaster cannot substitute for it four $5 bills out of his own pocket. However, he can send out and get it changed.—The State, 28th.

THE SHOE HOUSE OF NEWBERRY.

Our stock of Men's, Ladies' and Childrens' Cheap and Fine Shoes is the largest ever shown in Newberry. I haven't room or time to tell you about the different kinds of shoes I keep, but it will be a sight for you to see one entire side of my store room, 100 feet long, filled up to the ceiling with nothing but shoes. A man remarked the other day "that he believed I had enough shoes to supply every man, woman and child in Newberry county." Come, look and see what you think about it. A thousand soldiers may fight, but one can lead, I am the leader. Use your sense and save your dollars trading at MIMNAUGH'S.

Clothing, Hats and Gents Furnishings.

Here is where I am going to open the eyes of the merchants as well as the people and I want to tell you right now that I didn't steal these suits. I made a good trade on several hundred of them, in fact I took all the party had and paid him spot cash for them. I could sell every suit I have to any big clothing merchant, but I prefer to give you my friends and customers, the advantage of this great pick up.

100 Children's Suits at Half Price.

You will make a big mistake if you buy your clothing before you have seen our line. By all means look before you buy. I have set in to do the business and its just like Mimnaugh to undersell them all.
