Still We Grow!

THE BIGGEST STORE IN THE TOWN OF NEWBERRY.

THE BIGGEST STOCK IN THE TOWN AND WE ARE ENJOY-

ING THE BIGGEST TRADE IN THE TOWN.

No old fashioned, pokey, high-priced system, and today we stand before the public on our merits as "THE GREAT UNDERSSELLER," of Newberry. No doubt you have heard lots of talk about MIMNAUGH and how cheap I am selling goods and what a big business I am doing. Come and see for yourself if all the talk about MIMNAUGH selling goods for less than other stores is true. Watch the old regiment of high priced credit stores, they have fallen in line behind. We have the best selected money saving stock in upper Carolina. New arrivals in Millinery, Jackets, Dress Goods and Underwear. The most elegant stock of ladies' dress goods in South Carolina. I can show you more dress goods than all the stores in Newberry combined. If you want a fine dress and hat to match, I can fill your bill from A to Z. I guarantee newer goods and fresher goods than any other store and at the same time sell them for less. Still they come,

Every train is bringing us new goods. Look out boys I didn't steal these goods, I have always paid 100cts. on the dollar.

300 bolts of Sea Island 6 1-4 kind 4 1-2 one yd. or a thousand.	200 bolts the best 10c. Outing only 7 1-2c. yd.	200 doz. Men's Undershirts and Drawers, the 50c. kind, now only 25c.
200 " " Androscoggan in bleached cloth 8 1-2 kind, 10 yds to a customer 7 1-2.	25 bolts Feather Ticking, A. C. A., as long as it lasts, 12 1-2, worth 16 2-3c.	200 doz. King's Spool Cotton, 5 Spools for only 10c.
250 bolts Indigo Blue Calicoes, the 5c. kind only 4c.	25 bolts pretty, bright Creton, sells anywhere else 10c. now only 7c.	100 bolts Kid Cambric Dress Lining the 5c. kind only 4c.
100 bolts Black Piques for Skirts, the 15c. kind only 8 1-3c.		20 bolts 9-oz. Jeans the 20c. kind for only 12 1-2c.
		20 bolts Jeans, 33 1-3c. kind for only 24c.

If you don't see what you want ask for it. I have more goods on the second floor than some of the one-horse concerns in Newberry have altogether. I want 1,000 Ladies and Children. I don't want to give them positions as bookkeepers or collectors, because I have no experience in that line. I do strictly a spot cash business. I want you to see my store and fine stock of New Shoes, for Ladies and Children. When I introduce my Shoes to you it will be to friends that I recommend, friends that you will be favorably impressed with, and you won't be ashamed to go on the streets with them or take them as your escort to church, because they are substantial, whole-soul friends that will be lasting. I can sell you Children's Shoes that will make them good companions and agreeable playmates and at the same time protect their feet from the rough earth. If you care anything about spending your dollars to the greatest advantage come to this store. We have yet to find the customer who was ever displeased with "Drew-Selby" footwear. A carload of Trunks just opened. 200 Overcoats at half price. 50 pr. All-wool, Elkin, North Carolina Blankets will be sold at $2.98 a pair. These Blankets have been sold by the Newberry merchants for years at $5.00. This is the greatest Blanket offering in the history of the trade. The people are fast finding out there is only one first-class store in Newberry, and that is Mimnaugh's.

THE INVITATION TO THE MILITARY.

SOLDIERS OF OTHER STATES WANTED AT EXPOSITION.

The Announcement is Made—Invitations Prepared by Adjutant General Floyd for the Committee to be Sent out at Once.

[The State, 7th.]

Adjutant General Floyd, who is the general chairman of the committee in charge of the military feature of the Charleston exposition is doing all in his power to make this department of the show a great success. Yesterday Gen. Floyd prepared the formal invitation that will at once be printed and sent to the adjutant generals of the various States and other military officers all over the country, urging the attendance of troops.

The following is the text of the invitation:

Sir: On behalf of the executive committee and the military department of the South Carolina Interstate and West Indian exposition, together with the adjutant general's department of the State and the whole volunteer soldiery, you are warmly and cordially invited to visit our exposition at Charleston, S. C., which will be open on December 1, 1901, and closed on the 31st day of May, 1902. A hearty welcome will await you at any time your command can visit us while the exposition is open. A permanent military camp will be located within the exposition grounds and excellent drinking water, shower baths, floored tents, bed sacks filled with straw, and electric lights, will be furnished free to visiting military.

Commands can come provided to do their own cooking and messing, or arrangements can be made at the military mess at twenty five (25) cents per meal. It is intended that extra special railroad rates—not to exceed 1 cent per mile—will be given to all military organizations belonging to the national guard of the different States.

Organization of companies, battalions, regiments or brigades will be amply provided for, and upon the payment of one entrance fee of fifty (50) cents a pass for the remainder of the time spent will be given. Each soldier should bring a blanket, and timely notice should be given the military committee of the acceptance and date the organization desire to come and probable length of stay. A military detail will meet promptly every organization on arrival and escort them to the camp. It has also been determined by the military committee (the executive committee of the exposition joining therein) to make Washington's birthday, the 22nd of February, the grand military display day of the exposition, and it is likewise the hope and desire of the adjutant general's department to make that occasion a grand and glorious one in the history of the volunteer soldiery of South Carolina, and begs to assure visiting national guards that a warm and chivalrous welcome awaits their presence.

Any other information will be gladly furnished at any time upon application to Col. Henry Schuchte, chairman of the local committee of the exposition, or Gen. J. W. Floyd, chairman of the Military department, Columbia, S. C.

Respectfully,
J. W. Floyd,
Adj't and Inspector General.

LEE COUNTY A WINNER.

State Board Canvassers Returns and so Declares.

[The State, 9th.]

There was a special meeting of the State board of canvassers at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the office of the secretary of State for the purpose of canvassing the returns and declaring the result of the recent election held upon the matter of the formation of Lee county. The board after carefully going over the figures found that the new county's vote came easily within the constitutional majority, and so declared.

No protests or contests were made to the board of canvassers and the matter goes to the general assembly for ratification as required by the State constitution.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

GOVERNOR McSWENEY HAS ISSUED HIS PROCLAMATION.

He Tells in Eloquent Terms Why South Carolina Should be Thankful For the Blessings of God During the Past Year.

The Governor has issued the following Thanksgiving proclamation: It is a beautiful and time honored custom which sets apart one day in each year as a day of thanksgiving and prayer for the blessings of life and liberty which we enjoy.

In our State there has been nothing during the year to mar the happiness and prosperity of our people, and the labor of our hands has been amply rewarded. Good feeling continues to be manifested, and we have been spared any visitation by plague or pestilence. The education and moral uplifting of the people is evidenced on every hand, and the material progress and development of the State call forth the favorable comment of all thoughtful people.

To the end, therefore, that we may give evidence of our appreciation to the Giver of all good, and without whose sustaining hand we could do nothing, and in conformity to the proclamation of the President of the United States, I, M. B. McSweney, Governor of the State of South Carolina, do hereby set apart Tuesday, the 28th day of November, 1901, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer to be observed by all the people of this State.

On this day let all the public offices be closed, and all private business and labor of every kind cease, and let our people assemble in their accustomed places of worship and render thanks to our Heavenly Father for the blessing we enjoy, and beseech Him in humility not to withhold his sustaining hand, but to continue the sunshine and the rain, the seed time and the harvest. It is proper on this occasion, also, to remember the poor and the orphan. In no better way can we show our appreciation of the good things we enjoy than by giving to those who need our gifts.

HELP THE ORPHANS.

Where a Spare Dollar Would Do Great Good.

The Thornwell Orphanage, Clinton, S. C., established in 1875, is a home school for orphan boys and girls from any part of our sunny south, and from any denomination, who need and will work for an education.

It is under the care of the Presbyterian church, but makes no discrimination against any child because of the religion of its parents.

Two hundred and fourteen orphans were under its care during the year just ended. These were supported and educated by the generous gifts of a multitude of people. As Thanksgiving and Christmas times are drawing near, not only this, but all other orphan institutions should be remembered by the good people of our land. Who could not spare a five dollar bill to educate and clothe and feed an orphan for a month! But small as well as great gifts will be accepted by our orphanage—gifts for the Thornwell orphanage should be sent to Dr. Jacobs, Clinton, S. C.

Get a View on Hell.

[National Magazine for November.]

My reader is, of course, dissatisfied. My reader is surfeited with literature and even the people that write only to please him, are rarely to his taste. In the present case my reader is also dissatisfied because I have said nothing about hell. As my reader is justly convinced that after death he will find his way there, he would like to know something about hell during his lifetime. Really I can't tell anything pleasant to my reader on that score, because there is no hell, no fiery hell which it is so easy to imagine. Yet, there is something else and infinitely more terrible.

REIGN OF TERROR.

TWENTY-SIX CONVICTS ESCAPE FROM THE FEDERAL PENITENTIARY AT LEAVENWORTH.

A Desperate Fight Between Citizens and Criminals in which Four Convicts are Killed and Several Others are Wounded.

Leavenworth, Kan. Nov. 8.—Forty mounted guards are beating the country, over a radius of five miles around the Federal penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth in search of 26 convicts who succeeded in escaping from the guards late yesterday. The country is wild and rough and affords ample opportunity for escape and as all convicts are desperate and are armed, conflicts will doubtless result before they are captured. The not known result of the mutiny and the following fight with the guards was one convict killed and four guards shot or otherwise hurt, but it is believed that many of the fleeing convicts received serious wounds from bullets sent after them by the pursuing guards. The dead convict is Quinn Fort, a desperate criminal from the Indian Territory, who is believed to be the ring leader of the outbreak. The wounded are: Joseph B. Waldrup, prison guard, condition critical; Arthur Treford, captain of the guards, not serious; C. E. Burrows, guard, shot in the leg, and Andrews Leonard.

Later: Word has just been received that three of the twenty-six convicts who escaped from the federal penitentiary have been killed at Nortonville, where the citizens gave them battle and killed three. The other two were captured.

Both Eden Items.

Cotton and corn is nearly all gathered in this community. Farmers are very slow about sowing grain, this ought not to be, as a full grain crop will be a great relief next summer when we are paying high for corn and other provisions.

Our School commenced last Monday with Mr. Henry Cannon as teacher. We anticipate a prosperous term for him. Mr. L. A. Hawkins returned from a trip to Greenville last Saturday. Some of our neighbors are enjoying Opossum and potatoes.

EDITORS AND THE CHARLESTON MEETING.

EFFORTS TO SECURE A LARGE ATTENDANCE DEC. 12.

The State Press Association—President Aull Makes an Announcement of Interest to the Members—What He Desires.

[The State, 9th.]

Every possible effort is being made to make Press Association day at the Charleston Exposition a notable one, and every member of the association is being urged to attend the Exposition on this occasion. President Aull, who, with the executive committee of the association, has the matter in charge said yesterday:

"I would be glad if you would say that the special meeting of the Press Association will be held in Charleston on the morning of December 13th, which is Thursday. I am very anxious that every editor in the State will meet with us on this occasion and make it the biggest meeting in the history of the association. I have talked with a number of the brethren met from time to time, and all of those whom I have seen have assured me that they would be on hand. It is to be hoped that they all realize that the Exposition is a big thing for South Carolina and that we should give it our encouragement and support by our presence on Press Association day, and make it one of the great days of the Exposition.

"As to the program and the place at which we will stop while in Charleston due announcement will be made in a few days. There will be no place of rendezvous until we get to Charleston. The editors from points above Columbia, however, might so arrange as to meet in Columbia and go in a body from this place. If they will let me know in time, so that I can estimate how many will go with us, I will endeavor to arrange for a special coach for the party from Columbia to Charleston.

"All those who desire transportation for themselves or members of their families should notify me at once."

"The officers of the association are doing earnest work in order to make the gathering a most representative one.
