

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT.

Mr. J. J. Langford Thrown From a Buggy and His Leg Broken—His Little Son Considerably Bruised.

Late yesterday afternoon while attempting to drive across the Southern railway Mr. J. J. Langford and his little son were violently thrown from a buggy; Mr. Langford's leg was broken and the little boy was kicked in the face by the horse and otherwise painfully bruised.

Mr. Langford was driving towards town and the accident occurred exactly in front of Davis' shop. The horse was within a few feet of the track when it became frightened at a shifting engine. It immediately began to back and when Mr. Langford attempted to control it it commenced kicking. There was a sudden turn and both Mr. Langford and his son were thrown violently from the buggy and against the sidewalk next the shop.

Mr. Langford in the fall must have had his leg wrenched in some way. The bone was completely severed just above the ankle on the right leg and could be seen protruding through the flesh. The pain was excruciating and the wounded man appeared to be suffering intensely. Dr. P. G. Ellisor was found and immediately took the sufferer in charge. Morphine was injected, the leg was carefully bound with pillows, and Mr. Langford was carried home on a mattress.

The little boy was probably kicked by the horse after he fell. His face was considerably bruised and bloody.

The total number of pensioners in the State is 7,750. The number receiving aid from the artificial limb fund was 87, the amount paid out being $1,999.26.

College Orchestra.

An orchestra including at least seven pieces will be formed at Newberry College in the very near future. The young men interested in the movement have already begun practice, and looking towards a definite organization. Mr. W. B. Seabrook has been chosen president and Mr. W. P. Roof, Jr., secretary and treasurer.

It is a movement in the right direction, and if successful will be of benefit in many ways to the whole college.

Last Day for Signing Pledge.

Pledges of candidates for Mayor and Aldermen and Commissioner of Public Works who will go into the Democratic primary to be held on next Tuesday, the 25th, must be signed and placed in the hands of the Executive Committee before 12 o'clock today. This is in accordance with the rules adopted by the citizens' meeting, and the rules will be strictly enforced and to the letter. Hon. Cole L. Blease is Chairman of the Executive Committee and Hon. P. H. Dominick secretary.

At the Baptist Church.

Large audiences have greeted Rev. L. M. Roper in the First Baptist church at every evening service during the protracted meeting which he has begun, and a most gratifying interest has been manifested. The attendance at the morning services also has been fairly good. Mr. Roper is a clear and forceful speaker, and has already accomplished much of good and of benefit to the community.

The services will continue throughout the week. This afternoon at 4 o'clock a special meeting for the young people will be held, and all the young people of the city, of whatever denomination, are extended a cordial invitation.

A Popular Lecturer.

The second entertainment in the Lyceum course arranged by the Bachelor Maids will be given in the opera house on Friday evening, the 21st, when Dr. H. W. Sears will lecture. Mr. Sears is a popular speaker and has gained for himself quite an enviable reputation.

Speaking of the man and his lecture Capt. Richard Pearson Hobson says: "I have heard Dr. Sears lecture and can commend him most heartily and enthusiastically, both for royal good entertainment and solid and eloquent thought. As a humorist he has no superior." Mr. Sears, in fact, comes highly recommended by all who have heard him. Tickets are on sale at Mays' Book Store.

Sentences Revised.

In the case of Charley H. Counts, convicted at the last term of the Court of General Sessions of violating the dispensary law, and sentenced to serve eight months upon the chain-gang and to pay a fine of $100, Judge O. W. Buchanan, who was presiding, has ordered "that the above sentence, or so much thereof as refers to work on the public roads, be suspended, and that the fine be reduced to $200." Defendant has given notice of appeal.

In the case of Jeff Wilson and Ed Eigner, convicted of larceny and sentenced to eighteen months on the chain-gang, Judge Buchanan has ordered that the sentence be so revised as to read eighteen months on the chain-gang or $50 fine for each.

The Mayor's Court.

Mayor Klettner during the past several days has had before him a number of cases of negro women charged with disorderly conduct, and has pretty well succeeded in making them resolve to do better in the future. Yesterday morning he had several of these cases before him, and a nice little amount was turned into the treasury.

Mayor Klettner in conversation the other day stated that he is often at a loss to know whether in cases like these it would not be better to impose a small fine and one that the offenders may be able to pay. When a comparatively large fine is imposed, and it is usually deserved, these women are not able to pay, and they are placed in the guard house. Here there is no work at which they can be put, and it costs the city fully $5 per month to feed them and provide bedding. The point Mayor Klettner wanted to make was that there should be some kind of work provided at which they could be put in case they do not pay the fine, some work whereby they could be made to support themselves. As matters now stand confinement in the guard house is very light punishment and not very much feared.

The point is a good one, and worthy of consideration.

THE RISER MILLINERY CO

DIDN'T LIKE THE MARRIAGE.

A Runaway Match in West End Causes a Deal of Trouble and is Followed by Another—Mayor's Court Brought Into the Transaction.

There have been several sensational denouements to the rather romantic marriage of Mr. Clyde Longshore and Miss Thura Rikard, in West End, on last Thursday afternoon.

As reported in the last issue of The Herald and News, the couple were joined together without the consent of the young lady's uncle and guardian, Levi Gruber. Miss Rikard and Mr. Longshore were working in the mill when they finally decided to take each other for better or for worse. And it did not take them long to put their intentions into effect. Going down stairs on the elevator, they sent for Magistrate J. H. Chappell, and on the spot he soon made them man and wife.

When the affair was reported to Gruber, to say that he was mad is putting it mildly. He was mad with Miss Rikard for getting married, if married she was. He was mad with Mr. Danielson because he took the couple down on the elevator. Then he decided that the girl wasn't really married, and got mad with everybody who told him she was. And the language he used in stating his thoughts wasn't exactly what is taught in the Sunday Schools. Finally, the whole of his wrath centered upon the bride, and continued to be poured out in this direction, even after she had promised that she wouldn't do it again. Then he got too hot for words and struck the girl.

Things by this time had come to an interesting pass. A relative of Longshore, standing near by, espoused the cause of his kinsman's bride, and Longshore himself went for the police force, or as many of them as he could find.

When Messrs. Franklin and Carter went over they found not exactly a pretty scene. Gruber was sitting near the reservoir, the bride on one side of him, and her sister on the other. Gruber's son, Jeff, was standing near brandishing a knife which looked as though it might recently have been the mainstay of some butcher shop, and at the same time in very offensive language promising to protect his papa, and to do various things to any who might be so bold as to oppose his slightest wish. Soon after the policemen reached the scene he decided that one knife was not enough and dived deep down in his pocket for another.

It was a pity to put a stop to such a pretty and harmless little drama, but Messrs. Franklin and Carter are at times a little averse to watching plays, especially when they have no galleries to look after, and they put a stop to the whole matter by arresting both Gruber and his son. Mayor Klettner next day gave Gruber $2.00 and the young man $5.00 and it was thought the matter was entirely ended.

But there was one other party that had not been taken into consideration. This was Miss Rikard's sister, who had witnessed the whole affair. She, too, had been caught in the net of an undying love, and was a young lady with too keen a sense of humor to let such an opportunity pass. Besides, she wasn't going to be anything but a star in any performance, no matter of how great reputation. So Friday afternoon, she, too, ran away and was happily married to Mr. Will Williams.

And thus the matter ended, and Gruber has two less on his list of supporters, and two less to whom to carry dinner. What a feeling of sadness the tap of the noon bell now brings to his heart!

To be Made Knights Templar.

Messrs. Frank R. Hunter, A. J. S. Langford, G. M. B. Epting and S. H. McLean, go to Columbia today, where tonight they will have conferred upon them the rank of Knight Templar. They will be accompanied by Sir Knights W. E. Pelham, F. H. Dominick and Guy Daniels.

Notice to Taxpayers.

The county treasurer has called the attention of the taxpayers to the Act fixing a penalty to be added to all taxes not paid on or before the 31st day of December. The governor and comptroller general have already refused to extend the time. Whether or not the legislature will do so is a matter for conjecture, but from present indications it is hardly probable that it will take any action.

Why so Popular.

The popularity of "Clifton" flour is due to its unequalled quality—absolutely pure, retaining all the nutritive and healthful qualities of the finest selected wheat. Call for "Clifton" if you want the purest and best. Call at either of these groceries: E. R. Hipp, Hayes & McCarty and L. W. Cosby.

Stocks and Bonds bought and sold on commission.

FOR RENT.

A good two horse farm for rent, near Poinaia, S. C. There is a first class dwelling house on it, and all the out-houses are good. There are good pasture lands and hay meadows on the place. It is convenient to two schools, and Bethlehem Lutheran Church. It was the home place of J. D. Suber, deceased. For terms apply to R. H. WEICHL, Newberry, S. C. f&3t.

A Flour of Quality.

No flour sold in Newberry matches the "Clifton" in purity and quality. The wealth of rich gluten contained in this flour makes sweet, wholesome bread of a nutty flavor. L. W. Cosby, Hayes & McCarty and E. R. Hipp have it.

CLOTHING

IT is an important subject. We want to talk about it. We spend more than half of our existence in Clothes and the subject is certainly worth talking about. Sixteen years ago we began the Clothing business on a small scale in Newberry. We saw the possibility of building up the business on correct methods, and we started out with the determination to do our best to make it pay us and please the people. We devoted both time and money to the study of the subject and we confidently assert that today we stand on the vantage ground of success.

WE HAVE THE PROOF.

WE are still moving forward to higher heights. There is no progress in standard methods. Here is the proof. Our September and October sales for the season of 1902 have eclipsed all our past records in the Clothing business and we have made some mighty good records in the past sixteen years. The people have come to us from far and near for EVEN now unless we can give you the best Clothing for your money that you can find anywhere. Neither do we want the earth, but we are here to build up our Clothing business bigger and better and give the people the greater satisfaction, so we have determined to round out this record-breaking season of great selling in Clothing in a style never to be forgotten.
