NATIONAL GOOD ROADS CONVENTION.

The National Good Roads Convention will meet in St. Louis next Monday. It will be a most notable gathering and we should like to see South Carolina well represented.

President Hyatt of the South Carolina Association has made the following announcement for the day.

Referring to the arrangements for the trip to St. Louis to attend the National Good Roads Convention and the Judiciary Conference at the same time, the following is the program for the day.

Miss L. P. Cannon and her daughter, Alice, left today for Columbia, where they will spend a few days with her mother, Master Washington Herbert.

Miss L. P. Cannon and Mrs. Walter Herbert gave the little boys an egg hunt at Mrs. Cannon's home Saturday evening.

Easter Sunday was enjoyed by all who came to New Chapel church. The program for the day was exceedingly interesting.

Miss Neale Thomas sent a few lines to her sisters, Mrs. B. and Mrs. M. yesterday.

Misses Belle and Daisy Cannon are spending a few days with their mother, Mrs. H. Cannon, at Newberry.

Mr. J. B. Hubert and family of Atlanta have returned to Prosperity where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mathis have been visiting relatives in Newberry. Mr. Mathis is now in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hunter were in the city last Saturday. They were accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. J. C. Schumpert.

Mr. W. A. Lutz and Mrs. J. H. Lutz, of Greenville, are off on a visit to Newberry.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hunter were in the city last Saturday. They were accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. J. C. Schumpert.

Mr. W. A. Lutz and Mrs. J. H. Lutz, of Greenville, are off on a visit to Newberry.

Constable Howie gets suspended ten days for obeying orders. And if he ever refuses to obey orders he will be discharged.

tain number on a certain street. It is not a good soldier who questions the wisdom of the order of his commanding officer. There are plenty of places to raid in Charleston outside of private residences, and even if there should be a suspicion that liquor is illegally kept in some private house it would be the part of wisdom, it seems to us, to break up the other places first.

Mr. Jno. R. Mathis has severed his connection with the Union Times and with journalism. Mr. Mathis has been editor of the Times for the past four years, during which time he has conducted a bright and clean newspaper.

BACHMAN CHAPEL LETTER

T. J. W. Writes interestingly on Union Academy Subjects.

I told you we would have plenty days to plow and they would come in plenty time. So never mind the weather if the wind does blow.

The fruit crop is badly injured by the cold. Some peaches, very few apples, hardly any cherries, and scarcely any plums. The first crop of figs was pretty well killed.

A very remarkable incident occurred in this section last week. Mr. E. L. Strauss threw two seasons together. He butchered some of his winter meat and planted cotton seed the same day.

We learn that the Fork school closed last Saturday with a picnic and exhibition.

We return our thanks for an invitation to attend the closing exercises of Prof. D. A. Quattlebaum's school at Delmar, Saluda County, on May first.

We think that the demand for pigs is about satisfied.

The gardens are way behind this spring. Very few of our good old Dutch women were able to get anything green from their gardens to cook on green Thursday.

There will be communion at Bachman Chapel on Sunday next. Preaching also on Saturday evening at 4 o'clock.

Carol Wicker killed a wild turkey a few weeks ago near Cannon's Creek which weighed 21 lbs.

Macomb L. Long sold nine babies of cotton two weeks ago which brought him a little over four hundred dollars.

The cotton of our section is all gone now, so far as we know, in fact it is about as much cleaned up out of the country as we ever knew it.

When it has quit raining so much and the mud has dried up, but we hope that the good road advocates will not become careless in the matter.

We hope to see every township in the county organized before now.

There has been a very scarce throughout the county. In fact everything has been sold out of the past month, and we had but very little time to write as we have yet to do about it.

When it rains they are the same. They are the same. They are the same. They are the same.

When it rains they are the same. They are the same. They are the same. They are the same.
