Y. W. A. Meets With Mrs. T. J. Sibert, Jr.

The Y. W. A. members enjoyed their last meeting on Monday night, July 21st, at the home of Mrs. T. J. Sibert, Jr.

The meeting was opened by the singing of "Throw out the Lifeline", and after a brief discussion of business, Miss Marie Sharpton brought the very inspiring devotional, which was taken from Matt. 6:5-15, and Luke 11:1.

Mrs. Sibert had charge of the program for the month and after a song: "Oh, Zion Haste", which is the YWA Hymn, she introduced an interesting subject, "The Plight of the Jews in Other Lands". Talks were made by the following:

"In Germany", Miss Wylene Lee. "In Poland", Miss Emma Rankin. "In Russia", Mrs. W. C. Brown. "In Rumania", Miss Minnie Beth Brown.

"In other conquered Lands", Mrs. J. E. Hutchison. Conclusion", Mrs. Sibert, Jr.

After this, Mrs. D. C. Talbert discussed "Jews in our Own Land and How We May Help Them".

During the enjoyable social hour, Mrs. Sibert, Jr., assisted by Mrs.

G. P. Watkins and Mrs. T. J. Sibert, Sr., served delicious iced tea, sandwiches and candy.
