PROSPERITY

Perry-Cromer
A marriage of cordial interest was that of Miss Henrietta Perry of Saluda and James Jacob Cromer of Newberry which took place Thursday afternoon, August 18, at 4 o'clock at the home of the Rev. J. B. Harman, D.D., who performed the single ring ceremony.

Mrs. Cromer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perry of the Bethany section of Saluda county and graduated from Hollywood High School. She wore a becoming aqua crepe dress with black accessories. She was an employee of the Palmetto Hosiery Mills of Saluda.

Mr. Cromer, the son of Mrs. Annie K. Cromer of Newberry and the late James A. Cromer is a World War II veteran, having been in the U. S. Navy for two years. He attended schools in Newberry and Union. At present he is employed by the Lydia Mills in Clinton.

The couple will have their residence in Newberry.

SPECIALS

Long-Dudis
Mt. Pilgrim Lutheran church was the setting of a lovely wedding on Sunday morning, August 21, at eight-thirty when Miss Emma Lillian Long of Prosperity became the bride of Edward Dudis of Dayton, Ohio. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. B. Heidt, pastor of the bride, in the presence of a large assemblage of friends and relatives.

Mrs. Irvin Denlinger of Eaton, Ohio, sister of the groom and L. S. Long of Brunson, cousin of the bride, furnished the wedding music. Mrs. Denlinger played "Venetian Love Song" by Ethelbert Nevin; "Good" also by Nevin. Mr. Long sang "I Love You Truly," and the Lord's Prayer. The traditional wedding marches were used.

Vases of tuberoses and lighted candles decorated the altar and tall baskets of white gladioli, smilax and cathedral candles in floor candelabra were used in the chancel.

The usher groomsman were Boyd Long, brother of the bride, and Millard Haltiwanger. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, R. I. Long wore a white wool gabardine suit, a lavender flower hat and lavender and black accessories. She carried a white prayer book topped with a purple-throated white orchid, showered with white satin ribbons.

The bride's sister, Miss Floy Long, was her maid of honor and only attendant. She wore an aqua dress and a ping pong corsage with pink accessories. Her corsage was pink.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Charles Dudis, of Dayton, Ohio, as his best man.

Mrs. Long, mother of the bride wore a navy dress with navy accessories and a pink corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore white and black, white accessories, and a white corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Large arrangements of white tuberoses and white gladioli were used in the home.

Receiving at the door was Mrs. Annette Brooks who presented the guests to the receiving line composed of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Long and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dudis, parents of the groom. Mrs. Charles Cromer had charge of the register. Miss Mary Long invited the guests into the dining room. The tables, centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a wedding bell was covered with a lace cloth. A tracery of green was used at the base of the cake and on either side of the cake were lighted tapers. Serving punch was Mrs. L. K. Counts. Passing cheese biscuits and sandwiches were Miss Ruby Counts, Reba Quattlebaum, Minnie Kinard, Drucy Lovelace and Marian Livingston. Mrs. Von A. Long cut and served the wedding cake.

Mrs. Dudis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Long. She is a graduate of the Prosperity High School and Winthrop College and last week received her masters degree from the University of S. C. During the recent war she served in the Waves. She has taught in the schools of Florida and South Carolina, having been a member of the Prosperity School faculty last year.

Mr. Dudis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dudis of Dayton, Ohio. He received his education in the Dayton schools and Antioch College at Yellow Springs, Ohio. He served three years in the US Army during World War II. He is employed with the Chrysler Airtemp in Dayton, where the couple will be at home after a wedding trip.

Miscellaneous Shower
Mrs. Jacob Dawkins and Mrs. J. D. Hamm were joint hostesses at a miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Hubert Bedenbaugh, a recent bride, on Wednesday afternoon, August 17, at the home of Mrs. Dawkins.

A miscellany of garden flowers was used in the party rooms.

The guests registered on a rolling pin at the door and were given tiny pink and white umbrellas as favors.

A variety of appropriate games was played with prizes awarded the winners.

The hostess served ice cream with individual cakes iced in pink.

Party Honors Mrs. Harmon
Mrs. George W. Harmon entertained with a lovely party Thursday afternoon, honoring here daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wallace Harmon, of Dallas, Texas.
