CHRISTMAS PLAY SUNDAY AT AVELEIGH CHURCH

On Sunday night, December 18, at :30 the Young People of the Aveleigh Presbyterian Church will present a play, "Christmas Is a Miracle," by Joyce Vernon Drake. The scene of the play is laid in a deserted church, Though people have ceased to worship in this church, Uncle Jed, the old caretaker, is still faithful. Every Christmas Eve he rings the old bell, and there has been built up a legend of those things which happen when the bell rings. Some say a miracle takes place. On this Christmas Eve Nickie, a crippled boy, has come with Uncle Jed to the church. Nickie is so awed by the place that when Uncle Jed rings the bell he imagines he sees the story of the first Christmas relived. Nickie himself and Uncle Jed are shepherds of long ago and the miracle of the first Christmas is unfolded in lovely fantasy.

Taking the part of Uncle Jed to gly Hannah, Henry Longshore and William Neville are in charge of the staging. Mr. W.

Wathan, a shepherd, is played by Bill Workman. The three wise men are Chevis Boozer, Jr., Kenneth Stokes, and Lamar Neville. Miss Mazie but are not believed to have anything to do with the 0.00 per cent of nitrogen as nitrates but are not believed to have anything are Mrs. Albert McCaughrin and Mrs. George Davenport, responsible for properties and costuming. Messrs. Neil E. Truesdale Guy Hannah, Henry Longshore and William Neville are in charge of the staging. Mr. W.

Taking the part of Uncle Jed the old caretaker in Part I, and Jediah, the old hsepherd in Part II, is Skeet Martin.

M. Workman, Sr., is responsible to with the single word Jediah, the old heepherd charge of the staging. Mr. W. Part II, is Skeet Martin. M.
