ORANGEBURG ACADEMY.

The undersigned have this day formed a Partnership for the purpose of uniting their separate Schools into one, under the name of the ORANGEBURG ACADEMY. Having individually enjoyed a liberal patronage at the hands of the Community, together they beg a continuance of it to them under the present arrangement, promising unabated energy and industry together with the further advantage of being enabled, under the changed circumstances, to devote themselves more exclusively to his own particular branches.

Terms payable as heretofore, at the end of each month.

PER MONTH: Classics, - - - $4.00 English, - - - 3.00

Next term will commence on the first Monday in (being the second day of) September next.

Board can be obtained, in private families, at very moderate rates. JAS. S. HEYWARD STILES R. MELLICHAMP, has taken the premium over all Competitors, for speed and Staple. In a late contest one of TAYLOR'S 50 saw GINS, picked more cotton than a 70 saw rival GIN, and the cotton sold for a better price. For sale at Factory prices, adding freight.

TAYLOR'S COTTON GIN

JOHN HAMILTON, Agent for Orangeburg.

HAIGLER'S ACADEMY.

The exercises of this School will be resumed on the 2nd of September, and end last Friday of January, 1872.

THE TEMPERANCE ADVOCATE

IS A FAMILY TEMPERANCE JOURNAL, DEVOTED TO Temperance, Literature, Social and MORAL REFORM.

TERMS: $2.00 per Annum IN ADVANCE. $1.00 FOR SIX MONTHS.

The Advocate is now in its 2d year, and is the ONLY TEMPERANCE PAPER IN THE STATE.

It is the Organ of the Sons of Temperance of South Carolina, and therefore has such a circulation as to render it a desirable medium to advertise in by those who wish to reach the whole State.

Hundreds who are not members of the ORDER take it. THE VERY LOW PRICE at which is offered places it within the reach of EVERY FAMILY in the Land.— All should take it. Parents can not be too careful in selecting reading for their children. Nothing is more injurious to the morals of the country than the trashy literature of the day.

THE ADVOCATE

REMEMBER That THE ADVOCATE is reformatory in its tone, and aims to elevate humanity.

Send for Specimen Copies, to F. P. BEARD, Editor and Proprietor, Orangeburg, S. C.

ESTABLISHED 1836.
