Notice: Contract advertisers may change monthly. Every change must be sent in by Monday noon.

Dr. T. A. Smythe, of Charleston, died on the 20th.

The frame of the new Fair Building has been raised.

An immense amount of worthless fodder has been stored during the past week, causing constant rains.

The valuable Communication of T. is crowded out. It is good and will, like all good things, keep. It will appear next week.

We learn that the furniture store of Messrs. Girardeau & Co. is to be removed to the New building being erected by Messrs. W. M. Sain & Co.

We are indebted to our neighbor the "News," for the voluntary loan of the paper upon which this issue is published.

A lot of new lumber, sash, doors, &c., have been received at the depot. This has the appearance of fixing up the landmark of the rude ages.

A game of Base-Ball is to be played on Monday next, the 25th inst., between the Orangeburg Base Ball Club, and a SCRUB-NINE.

The case of Mr. Jas. Cannon (Marshal) is one that commends itself to the Council. He acted under their authority, and by them should be defended.

The communication from "Surburb" is at hand and being crowded out in this, will appear in our next issue. We would explain that the communication referred to, was voluntarily offered to us; we had no reporter on the occasion.

CONCEALED WEAPONS. The habit of carrying weapons is so general that anything said against it will have little, if any, effect; yet it is our duty to denounce the practice as conducive only of a reckless disregard of life and law.

peaceable citizen. The case has been turned over to a magistrate, and the accused is under bond for his appearance at next term of court, on the charge of "assault with attempt to kill."

PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY. There will be a meeting of Orange Grange this day, at 10 a. m., in the basement of the Presbyterian Church.

WHO CAN BEAT IT? Mr. Robert H. Wiles has a water-melon vine (volunteer) which has borne 10 melons, averaging 13lbs each.

MISS R. S. ALBERGOTTI'S SCHOOL. Will be opened on Monday, September 8th. See advertisement in another column of this excellent school, which has attained a deserved popularity.

DISSOLUTION OF COPARTNERSHIP. We call attention to the dissolution of the copartnership existing between L. E. Myers and D. I. Carroll, at Fort Motte.

BOARD AT $12.00 PER MONTH. Can be obtained for scholars attending the ORANGEBURG ACADEMY by applying to either of the Teachers at once.

MESSRS. MOSELEY & CROOK. Advertise a fresh supply of Groceries &c., to which we ask attention. Starting, as this firm did, in a dull season of the year, the progress it has made is remarkable.

A KINK SOMEWHERE. We have received another letter from a subscriber he says: "For three or four weeks I have not received a copy of the TIMES, and I feel greatly disappointed."

SUDDEN DEATH. Drs. Dukes and Legare were called on Monday to investigate the case of a colored man who had died very suddenly, on Mr. Mounts place in the Fork.

DEATH OF MR. FRANK STOCKER. This very worthy young gentleman died at the residence of Mr. S. D. Dantzer on Monday last. He had suffered for many months of a lingering and dangerous disease.

SOME COTTON STALK. A lady subscriber tells us of a cotton stalk she has in her crop, one of many, which measures six feet 7 inches high, and has upon it 235 bolls.

CAROLINA MILITARY INSTITUTE. Col. J. P. Thomas, so favorably known in our state, undertakes the management of this military institute. It is to be revived at the ample buildings near Charlotte, N. C.

accommodations for 200 students. Large drill grounds, fine shade trees, and the most beautiful location, are additional recommendations.

DEATH OF MRS. HUGH S. BRYAN. We have been shown a letter furnishing the sad intelligence of the death of this estimable lady, which took place at Burlington, Iowa, on the 21st of July.

BASE-BALL. "Most lively when knocked up—A Base Ball." So, Mr Editor, is a real game of ball lively indeed. Such was the game played Monday afternoon by two Nines of the Orange Club.

FIRST NINE. E. L. Salley, P. 4. 3. L. H. Wannamaker, C. 1. 5. T. Wannamaker, S. S. 2. 5.

SECOND NINE. A. Walker, P. 1. 5. J. A. Salley, C. 1. 5. E. C. Dibble, S. S. 4. 0.

FLIES WERE TAKEN VERY NICELY BY BOTH SIDES, and the game in all respects was a neat one. We were glad to see so many visitors out.

G. W. WALKER, Captain. A. C. Walker, Pitcher, J. Hollman, Catcher, P. G. Cannon, Short Stop, G. W. Walker, 1st Base, J. G. Passalaigne, 2d Base, E. L. Salley, 3d Base, I. H. Wannamaker, L. F., T. Wannamaker, C. F., R. Aldrich, R. F.

The hot and rainy weather is testing all exposed wood work, especially the doors in our Stores and Dwellings. To prevent all shrinkage, and enable them to warrant all work sold by them, Messrs. I. H. HALL & Co., at a great expense, have erected, in connection with their Door Factory, a modern drying room, in which all Doors are placed till fully dried, before gluing, wedging and pinning; this process adds one-third to the durability of the doors.

Will take notice that P. P. Toale, of Charleston, has on hand and for sale, White Pine of the finest grade, wholesale and retail. Also, Walnut, Oak and other hard wood.

ATTENTION ALL?

A Mass Meeting, to nominate a Ticket for Mayor and Aldermen, will be held at the HOOK and LADDER HALL, on Tuesday night at 8:1-2 o'clock.
