Notice.
Contract and effects may change monthly. Every change must be sent in by Monday noon.

J. N. Cardezz, Esq., oldest journalist in the Country, died on Saturday night last in Savannah. The deceased was remarkable as a political economist and in his long and successful career as an editor, his great theme was the welfare of the South.

The Orange Base Ballists appeared in their jaunty crimson caps on Monday afternoon. They played a game among themselves. The score stood 10 to 20.

We are pleased to learn that the colored members of the Presbyterian Church, are building a church for their own use. Their Sabbath School is a success.

We call attention to the resolutions adopted at the meeting of last week, referring to the attempt to disturb the meeting of Tuesday night, the 26th inst.

The card of Miss R. S. Albertotti's School appears in another column. The large patronage hitherto enjoyed, renders this excellent school both favorite and popular.

Dr. W. A. A. Deas a young Physician of Georgetown while attempting to save his servants life, who had fallen into Bulls Bay, was drowned. The act was a crowning glory to a valued life.

Beef a la Mud.
A suburban resident, enticed with the fascination of sale-day, made an early appearance in town on Monday, in company with his hopeful son, and loaded with a beef which was designed for sale, the proceeds of which sale was to be appropriated to "doing up the burg."

Whether the bewildering display of the beauties of Russell Street, upset his equipoise, or the town water disagreed with him, we are not informed, but passing along that thoroughfare had a curious effect on his locomotion and articulation, and furthermore enlarged his estimate of his importance. His first step after vitiating between a straight cut fall, and a sitting, was to compromise matters, and enjoy the privilege, allowed the hogs of cooling in the mud, which delectable refreshment put him in an amiable humor, and thereon he employed an agent (colored) to sell his beef. The son, emulating the example of his sire, and being somewhat overcome by the soda water he had not drunk, assumed a longitudinal position, face upward and with flashing eye looked at the noon-day sun and proudly waved his hand to him to move on; a gesture intended had for several sympathetic passers-by, who mistook him for a sick man. The agent left to his responsible duties all alone, sold the beef, or as much of it as he could, at a low price. Price and weight were small considerations, and what was not disposed of was left to the mercies of a score of hungry canines, and a blazing sun. The happy couple dozed it out, only to wake and find the find the beef bedraggled in mud, the agent NON CUM ATIBUS, and Orangeburg in the same place, with enough of the critter to "down 'em agin."

The communication of Suburban in our last, and the reply to it in this issue are both of so personal a nature, that in future we must decline such articles. Both sides have now been heard from, and here so far as we are concerned, the matter must drop.

Cotton Gin.
Mr. James H. Fowles announces that he is prepared to gin and pack cotton on reasonable terms.

Fair Association.
At a meeting of the Stockholders of this association the Capital was increased to an amount of 100 shares, at $25, each. This is a good opportunity to invest.

A Farmer's Wife.
Sends the Times a valuable communication which will appear in our next issue, in Agricultural department. We doubt not many readers of our paper will thank her for valuable information contained therein.

Destructive Fire.
We regret to hear of the loss of Mr. Jas. Rast, of St. Matthews, who had his barn struck by lightning on the 28th ult. and entirely destroyed. Mr. Rast, we learn, lost two horses and a large quantity of fodder.

Death of Benjamin Rush, Esq.
This estimable gentleman and valuable citizen died at his home in Poplar township on the 23 d of August, at the age of 31. The energy of his character and close attention to his business, promised it a successful career of useful life. His place will not be easily filled as a friend, or citizen.

Tournament.
Our ambitious young Knights will be glad to learn that there will be a grand Tournament during Fair week. Capt. T. A. Jeffords is at the head, and will give you all information. It is desired that a large number should contest, at any rate be prepared for a splendid list of competitors, and a thousand bright eyes. Come one and all and make the tournament a grand affair.

Sale Day.
Passed off quietly; the only occurrence of any note being the meeting of stockholders of the Fair Association, and of citizens favoring the establishment of a Cotton Factory in this county. The following were the sales by Sheriff: One tract, 1030 acres, (swamp) property of C. S. Bull, bought by H. Klatt & Co., for $195. One tract, 1031 acres, owned by same party, bought by S. Dibble for $185. One tract, 282 acres, property of Estate of Felix Rush, bought by S. Dibble, Agt., $500.

Death of Capt. Jno. R. Riley.
With great regret we are called upon to announce the death of this estimable citizen, which occurred last week, at his residence at Riley's T. O., on the S. C. Railroad. Capt. Riley served with great zeal and fidelity as Ass't Commissary during the war, and since has been actively engaged in the milling business and planting. His health had been feeble for some time past and he had lately returned from a trip to Georgia, made with a hope that a change would be beneficial to him. His family has of sincere sympathy.

The Committee.
Appointed to report on the subject of a Cotton Factory, have selected Mr. H. Riggs, Chairman, and called a meeting of their members for Saturday, Sept. 13th.

Any parties desiring to make offers or furnish information on the subject are requested to confer at once with any member of the Committee, whose names will be found published elsewhere.

Messrs. T. Kohn & Bro.
Announce that they have moved into their New Store, which is, indeed, a splendid establishment, and does great credit to the enterprise of this go-ahead firm. The arrangements of this establishment are more business like than in any house in town—the Dry Goods, Notions, Shoes, Hats and Clothing department being entirely separate, each having a counter to itself. Go and see for yourself.

Our Ticket.
At the meeting of citizens favoring an Independent Ticket, held on Wednesday night of last week, the committee appointed at the previous meeting announced the following ticket, as their candidates for Mayor and Aldermen of the town at the approaching election, which takes place on Tuesday next, the 9th inst.

FOR MAYOR.
JOAB W. MOSELEY.
ALDERMEN.
Henry Washington,
Joseph Harley,
Robert Copes,
P. Doyle.

The last two named declined to serve, as their private business would not permit them to devote the necessary time, and the names of Barnabas Williamson and Townsend D. Wolfe being substituted, the names of our candidates are before the people as they stand at the head of our local columns. We need not say that they have our hearty commendation, and we earnestly hope to have the pleasure of announcing their election in our next issue. This we can do, if our people work with a will. Remember the registration of voters which take place on the 5th, 6th and 8th of the month.

The fall trade has now opened, and with a view to meet all its requirements, I. H. Hall & Co., Proprietors of the Great Southern Builders' Emporium, Charleston, S. C., have made at the Factory large quantities of Doors, Sashes, Blinds, &c., from fully seasoned Lumber. There immense sales enable them to offer number one work at low price. Before beginning your building, send for their price list and size card. They are also Agents for Asbestos Roofing Felt and Paint. Last year millions of feet were sold for covering roofs, lining rooms, painting, &c.

Carpenters, Pattern Makers, and Cabinet Makers.
Will take notice that P. P. Toale, of Charleston, has on hand and for sale, White Pine of the finest grade, wholesale and retail. Also, Walnut, Oak and other hard wood.

CONSIGNEES PER EXPRESS.
T. Kohn & Bro., H. Livingston & Co., Miss M. Myers, Miss V. C. Bull, Dr. A. M. Snider, J. J. Salley, S. S. G. Gause, Miss N. Tartigue, G. G. Salley, J. C. Arrant, Broynning & Browning.
