ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF TRAINS AT ORANGEBURG.

Table with columns: PASSENGER, FREIGHT, DAY TRAINS, NIGHT TRAINS. Includes arrival and departure times for various routes.

Contract advertisers may change monthly. Every change must be sent in by Monday noon.

Our neighbors at Lewisville are getting ready for fall business. Cotton is coming in.

The boys expect to get up an amusement shortly. For further particulars, inquire of Master Willie DeTreville.

We noticed on the street, yesterday, a new issue of FARE tickets by the S. C. Railroad. They are of different denominations—the one marked $5.00 being good for one hundred and twenty-five miles. They will hardly be current—as money.

The Spirit of the Times enters its eighty sixth volume with the last issue. It is primarily the standard authority for sporting matters. Its literature is of high tone and its entire get up is first class. The success of the Spirit of the Times is well earned.

Orange Grange. There will be a meeting of this Grange to-day, at 10 a. m., in the basement of the Presbyterian Church.

The Scythe. We have received the prospectus of a new Agricultural paper, with the above name, which will be published in New York next month, by the "Scythe" publishing Co. Terms, $2.50 per annum, in advance.

Vose & Izlar. Are confining themselves strictly to a first class Grocery business, and find it pays them. The enterprise and fair dealing of this young firm have already given them a well established reputation. Call and see their stock for yourselves! All goods delivered free at your residence.

The Cotton Factory. Committee met on Saturday last, and were occupied with examining the merits of different Mill Sites offered them. The first question, it appears to us, is to decide finally, whether the power shall be water or steam. Several liberal offers were made by different citizens of the County, but the duty of the committee being only to gain information, to enable them to report upon the feasibility of the factory scheme, nothing final was determined upon. They will meet again, on next Saturday week, the 27th inst., and request all communications to be sent in before that time.

Those of the County who are interested will remember that this committee is to report at a meeting of citizens on Saturday next to be held at the Engine House at 12. M. Let every go ahead citizen be present and this all important matter can be successfully carried out.

Divine Service. May be expected in the Episcopal Church on Sunday morning and afternoon next, the Rev. N. B. Fuller officiating. This Church is now open on the first and third Sabbaths of each month. We learn that efforts are being made to induce Mr. Fuller to make Orangeburg his home.

Personal. Messrs. D. Louis, Jos. McNamara, and J. M. Danner (the latter representing the large business house of Geo. H. Cornelson Esq.) have gone North to lay in winter supplies.

Groceries, Liquors And Segars. Are advertised in great quantity, and of unquestionable quality by Mr. O. D. Kortjohn who sill finds printers ink a valuable aid in increasing trade.

Mr. Kortjohn is well up with the "Times" he pays printers as well as all other bills promptly and customers can, always count on being politely served with the best goods in his line.

Horses And Mules. Mr. F. M. Bamberg announces that he will have a drove here by the 20th inst. He is too well known to need any recommendation from us. Mr. A. McQueen Salley attends, as usual, to his business at this place. Remember you can supply yourselves with stock on the 20th inst.

Messrs. L. E. Connor & Son. Of Charleston S. C. publish their card in this issue, to which we would call particular attention. They do a Wholesale & Retail Grocery and Genl commission business. Messrs Connor & Son are well known to many of our citizens, and we cordially recommend them for the patronage of the community.

Religious Intelligence. During the past week a most interesting series of meetings have been held at the Zion Church, (Methodist) Rev. J. L. Sifley officiating. On Sunday a large gathering of the neighborhood filled the church, to hear an impressive sermon from the Pastor. After which numerous accessions were made in membership. The interest manifested was gratefully encouraging.

Deaths. We regret to record the following deaths, which occurred in the County during the past fortnight:

Our fellow townsman, Jas. A. Williams Esq, lost his little daughter Ruth, aged 2 years 4 months 11 days on Saturday night the 6th inst. He has our hearty sympathy in his bereavement.

Mr H. Bull, son of Middleton Bull Esq, in the neighborhood of Providence Church, was killed on Monday, the 8th instant, by being severely kicked by a mule, which he had been riding.

Mr Andrew E. Mervin a well known and rather eccentric citizen of our town, a brickmason by trade died at Dukes Hotel on Saturday morning last, and was buried by the County Commissioners on the same afternoon. We have heard comments on the unnecessary haste shown in performing the last rites so soon after his death.

On Sunday morning last, Mrs. Rachel Smoak died in the fork of the Edisto. We learn that her sickness lasted about two weeks.

The Rural Carolinian. The September number of the Rural Carolinian, so universally acknowledged to be the leading Agricultural Journal of the South, and, we think, the best on this Continent, has come to hand. This number, which closes the fourth volume of its publication, contains a complete and comprehensive index to the entire volume. It is gratifying indeed to note the evidences of improvement each succeeding issue presents. The number now before us is replete with both interesting and practical information for the agriculturist and the home circle, showing great care on the part of the Editor, (Colonel D. H. Jacques.) in its selection and preparation. The Rural numbers among its contributors some of the most intelligent as well as practical planters of the South, whose contributions have aided materially in the improvement and advancement of agricultural pursuits in the Southern and Southwestern States the past four years.

The next number will commence a new volume, (the fifth,) and we again urge such of our readers as have not already done so, to send in their names at once. We can assure them they will never have occasion to regret it, as oftentimes the information contained in a single number will more than repay the price of a year's subscription, which is only Two Dollars.

The publishers are Walker, Evans & Cogswell and Wm. L. Daggitt, at Charleston, S. C. All business communications should be addressed Walker, Evans & Cogswell, Charleston, S. C.

The fall trade has now opened, and with a view to meet all its requirements, I. H. Hall & Co., Proprietors of the Great Southern Builders' Emporium, Charleston, S. C., have made at the Factories large quantities of Doors, Sashes, Blinds, &c., from fully seasoned lumber. There immense sales enable them to offer number one work at low prices. Before beginning your building, send for their price list and size card. They are also Agents for Asbestos' Roofing Felt and Paint. Last year millions of feet were sold for covering roofs, lining rooms, painting, &c.

Carpenters, Pattern Makers, and Cabinet Makers, Will take notice that P. P. Toale, of Charleston, has on hand and for sale, White Pine of the finest grade, wholesale and retail. Also, Walnut, Oak and other hard wood.

HYMENEAL.

MARRIED, On the 21st August, 1873, by Rev. Dr. I. D. Durham, Mr. JAMES A. COBB, of Greenville, S. C., to Miss S. V. WILSON, of Orangeburg, S. C.

OBITUARY.

The sanctity of home, bright with its innocent treasures, is invaded with a gloom that crushes hearts lately full of promised joy, and plunges them in the depths of bitter sorrow. The grave clouds which heap above the tender form of the child, seem almost a ruthless foe, but the promise carries beyond the tomb, to whither He dwells who said: "Suffer little children and forbid them not."

Little RUTH, daughter of JAS. A. and JANE M. WILLIAMS, was recalled to God—who gave her to fond parents for a little while. Only two years and four months of age, yet the cords so suddenly severed, tear loving hearts.

The brightest blossoms die first; and now no more on earth shall we hear the sweet voice which had just begun to lip "Papa;" but parents, "Wait patiently upon the Lord," and though she cannot again come back to us, you may go to her.
