THE LEGISLATURE—OUR STATE

Went to business on 21st. The first subject was a matter of raoney. The Georgetown member (Brawley) was on the QUI VIVE to have current expenses provided for, and offered a bill to authorize the Treasurer to issue $200,000 of the remaining $500,000 of the act of Dec '65 for the purpose aforesaid.

Gen. Hooker, in the late reunion of the army of the Comberland, referred to the Confederate army, against which he had fought, in these terms: "Search the world over and you will not find the like of them. I have had an opportunity of seeing some of the armies of Europe since then—the French, Prussian and Austrian—and I tell you it will be down hill work to fight them, compared with our late foes."

COMMUNICATED.

MR. EDITOR:

There is an order in Orangeburg County as well as elsewhere and every where in the United States known as the Patrons of Husbandry. At a meeting of Orange Grange of the Patrons sometime since a resolution was offered and adopted inviting the different Granges of Orangeburg County to appoint delegates to meet at the court house for the purpose of organizing the Granges of the County into an association.

Maj. Paul S. Felder, was elected President Dr T. A. Elliott, vice President M. L. Baldwin Secretary Morgan Keller Treasurer and James Stokes door Keeper. A committee was appointed to report, a constitution and by laws; the Association adjourned to the first Monday in October inst., to allow the Committee full time to prepare their report.

gates there. A Constitution and by laws were reported by Worthy Master Norris which with a few alterations was adopted. The preamble to the Constitution was as follows, Whereas, The Granges of the Patrons of Husbandry for Orangeburg County feeling the necessity of a closer Union for carrying out the objects of the order have united themselves into an association, and do hereby adopt the following Constitution and By Laws for the government of the same.

Now Mr Editor we would have no objection to publish our Constitution and By Laws but we think this Communication sufficient long. We think the separate straws of Granges twisted together in an association can operate in the purchase of supplies and the sale of produce to much more advantage than singly. Being so united we invite bids for our custom: all of which as for as the Granges are concerned will be confidential. Merchant and producers and consumers will perceive it is not the custom of only one Grange but of a dozen or more united which will be obtained.

M. L. BALDWIN, SEC'Y.

Don't be afraid of having a little fun in the family. A merry disposition in the God-send for a home. There's the case of a man in Nelson street' for instance. Saturday he went into the kitchen ahead of his wife, and seeing two huckleberry pies steaming on the table, he hastily concealed them in the ice-chest which stood open in the back hall. Then he went down town chuckling to himself, and ten minutes later the ice cart drove up, and the ice man brought in a fifty pound cake, and started for the ice-chest, followed closely by the fond wife expatiating upon the 'muss.' He put the cake upon the edge of the chest and gave it a push over, and when it came down upon those two steaming pies, a huckleberry geyser followed. The ice man with eyes and face full of the discharge, tumbled completely over the woman and disappeared out of the door. The wife recovered her balance as soon as possible and catching up a broom, went after the ice man, but he escaped her; then she come back and looked in the ice chest and down at the oil cloth, and up at the ceiling, and around on the walls. The men at the store who were let into the joke by the facetious Nelson street man, are anxiously wondering how it turned out—

A Lincoln man, whose wife has been ill for some time, came out one day with a face longer than his arm. A friend who met him grasped him by the hand in tearful sympathy and murmured: "O, when did she die?" "O goodness," was the solemn reply: "she ain't dead, she's cleaning the house."

The late Mr. Cain, it has been conclusively established by an article in the Lancet, was insane when he killed his brother Able; and a proposition has been made to start what is called a "Cain Fund," for the relief of the distressed descendants of the unhappy man.

"You have played the deuce with my heart," said a gentleman to a lady who was his partner in a social game of whist at an evening party. "Well," replied the lady with an arch smile, "it was because you played the knave."

The late fire at Mr. Bolivers saw-mill resulted in the sad occurrence of the Death of Elvin Bozard who having been severely burned, expired ater much agony.
