

To change Contract Advertisements, notice must be given before Monday noon.

ADVERTISEMENTS will be inserted at the rate of one dollar and a half per square for the first insertion, and one dollar per square for each subsequent insertion.

Liberal terms made with those who desire to advertise for three, six or twelve months.

Marriage notices and Obituaries not exceeding one square, inserted free.

Henceforth, all legal advertisements, of County interest, whether notices or others, will be published for the benefit of our readers whether they are paid for or not.

SUBSCRIBERS

Will have their papers regularly mailed. Send us new names, build up our paper, and let every household in the County be a supporter of our enterprise.

LATEST

The passenger train of yesterday was delayed in consequence of a coach taking fire. The damage was confined to the roof of the car.

Persons desirous of obtaining Italian immigrants can confer with Mr. A. Moroso, 165 King St., Charleston.

The action brought against the Citizens' Savings Bank of Columbia, by J. L. Watson, County Treasurer of York, to restrain the Bank from paying out any more money will be resisted by the bank.

HOW INDULGENT

The overweening regard of the legislature for the prosperity of "our State" induces them to allow the tax to be paid in two instalments. They can afford to be indulgent.

ON TO RICHMOND.

Gen. Grant has not declared his policy with regard to the inhuman massacre of the crew of the Virginia by the Spaniards. It is supposed that the affair will be submitted to arbitration.

Two colored men near Charleston fought with razors. Both held out until exhausted and were badly cut.

Mr. Hamilton Slawson was knocked down by a dray in Charleston, from the effects of which he died.

HYMENEAL.

MARRIED—On the 18th Nov., 1873, by the Rev. J. L. Sibley, Mr. FRANCIS P. LANGLEY, of Charleston, S. C., to Miss BELL MOORER, youngest daughter of Henry M. Moorer, of Orangeburg County, S. C.

effrontery to expect the people to bear with them yet longer. In the name of humanity to your children, and in the name of justice to decency, make an effort to arrest this outrageous spoliation, before you are hopelessly and ignominiously enslaved.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Adjourned at Columbia on the 24th, having cost the State about $125,000 for the session. This expensive farce, suits the ring, but it militates fearfully with the peace and welfare of the people.

Other heavy charges are against him, which if produced will astound those only who may not have heard of the distinguished personage before.

CHIPPINGS.

—Boss Tweed, the scientific robber of public funds in New York, has been sentenced to twelve years jailing in the county prison and $12,000 fine.

—The house of W. H. Gardner of Sumter (County Treasurer) was set fire to on the stormy night of the 21st. The loss was very heavy.

—Some of the claimants for confiscated property at Beaufort S. C. have been successful, among them Dr. H. M. Smeak, Mrs C Johnson, heirs of Dr. Thos Fuller, and Miss Catharine Housal.

—Two colored men near Charleston fought with razors. Both held out until exhausted and were badly cut.

Mr. Hamilton Slawson was knocked down by a dray in Charleston, from the effects of which he died.

PLANTATIONS

AIKEN AND ORANGEBURG Counties, at

Site of Assignee in Bankruptcy, At Aiken, S. C.

BY VIRTUE of an order in bankruptcy of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Georgia, before a Register therein, and by Hon. John Elskin, Judge of the said court for said district, will be sold at public outcry,

Free From Liens and Incumbrances of Creditors of the Bankrupt, at the Court House door in the town and county of Aiken, and State of South Carolina, on the first Monday in December next, 1873, a certain portion of the Estate of Michael O'Dowd, bankrupt, to wit: A certain tract of land, with improvements thereon, situated in the said county of Aiken, formerly Orangeburg district, containing two thousand and fifty nine acres (2,059) acres, more or less, on the north side of the Edisto River, on the waters of Hunter's Branch, known as the "Casper Staley Plantation," made up of several smaller tracts of land, and more fully described by a plat thereof by H. D. Ott, on 15th November, 1862, being same land conveyed to said O'Dowd, by L. A. Culler, Executor of Casper Staley, by deed dated 23d December, 1872.

And by virtue of the same order, will be sold, at public outcry.

Free From Liens and Incumbrances of Creditors of the Bankrupt, at the same time and place, a certain other portion of the bankrupt's estate to wit: A certain plantation in the said Orangeburg county, formerly district, consisting of one tract, containing eight hundred and seventy two (872) acres, more or less, lying in the fork of Edisto River, on Goodland swamp, bounded by lands of Porter, Winningham, Martin and Allen Corbitt, Heathington, Friday and other lands, and another tract containing forty four (44) acres more or less adjoining the last foresaid tract, lands of said Winningham, Mary and Allen Porter. The two last tracts conveyed to M. O'Dowd by J. H. Morgan.

Terms, as per order cash. JOHN T. SHEWMAKE, Assignee of M. O'Dowd, Bankrupt. Nov. 13, 1873 39 3t

ADVERTISEMENT.

THE stringency of money requires me to sell exclusively for cash, until all old accounts are settled; after that time I am willing to render all accommodation possible to customers. I tender my thanks to all who have settled their accounts; and earnestly request those who have not, to do so at once, as I have already performed my part of the contract.

Very Respectfully F. H. W. BRIGGMANN. Nov. 20, 1873 40 1t

A. CARD. OFFICE OF SECURITY LIFE INSURANCE AND ANNUITY CO., OF N. Y.

No. 40 Broad Street Charleston. It having been brought to the notice of the General Agent of this Company, for the States of North and South Carolina, that some parties, with a motive, which can only be surmised, have been propagating, with great industry, through Orangeburg and the adjoining Counties, a report that THE COMPANY HAD FAILED, he deems it proper to publish the payments, of the last two years, and to add, that, because the investments of the Company are largely in Securities, which have risen since the panic, the Company is stronger than ever.

In 1872, the payments on losses in South Carolina amounted to $28,500, among which was one on the life of G. D. Kett, and another on that of Jaby Weeks, both well known in Orangeburg, each for $10,000.

In 1873, February 8th, on life of G. E. Steinmyer $10,000; May 20th, on Rev. F. B. Davis $2000; May 26th on life of Rachael A. A. Rice, "Grahams" $1000; on July 12th John Watson $4000; Aug. 15th on J. H. Schult $3,000; GABRIEL STROCK $2000; John H. Milhous, paid to his wife 15th Nov. 1873 $1000; and on the same day, the Company offered to pay another $1000, which Mr. Milhous took out for a minor child; but the payments had to be postponed until a Guardian can be appointed.

General Agent for the States of North and South Carolina. nov 22 1873 11

SOUTH CAROLINA.

ORANGEBURG COUNTY.

IN THE COMMON PLEAS,

William C. Hane and John K. Hane plaintiffs against George Boliver, as administrator, of the Estate of William C. Cofer, deceased, of John W. Jackson, Mary A. Weeks, wife of H. Weeks, Anna Cofer, Sarah Ery, wife of Jacob Ery, Martha Weatherbit, wife of James W. Weatherbit, Thomas L. Cofer and M. K. Cofer, defendants.

Copy Summons for Relief (Complaint not served) TO THE defendants Thomas L. Cofer and M. K. Cofer: You are hereby summoned and required to answer the complaint in this action, which is filed in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for the said County, and to serve a Copy of your answer on the subscribers, at their Office at Orangeburg Court-house So. Ca. within twenty days after the service of this summons on you exclusive of the day of service, and if you fail to answer the complaint within the time aforesaid, the plaintiffs will apply to the Court for the Relief demanded in the complaint.

Dated at Orangeburg, October 21st 1873. D. STREVILLE & WHALEY, Plaintiffs' Attorneys.

To Thomas L. Cofer and M. K. Cofer, defendants above named: Take notice That the summons and Complaint herein, were filed in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for Orangeburg County, at Orangeburg, South Carolina on the 21st day of October 1873.
