ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF TRAINS AT ORANGEBURG.

Table with columns for Passenger and Freight, Day and Night Trains, and arrival/departure times.

Notice. Contract advertisers may change monthly. Every change must be sent in by Monday noon.

New Volume.

With this number we commence the third Volume of the Times. Just two years ago, in spite of the fears and forebodings of those even, who were friendly to the new Enterprise, the first copy of the Orangeburg Times was issued, and our many friends throughout the County will share in our satisfaction that the paper is no longer an experiment, but an established success.

The Tax.

The time for collection of State taxes has been extended until the 7th of March.

Our neighbor the "News" says that Sheriff Cain has settled the deficiency against him, and resumed the duties of his office.

Branchville has had a rousing meeting on the subject of taxation. We are glad to see our Sister town is lending aid to the radical chase.

Honor to the dead.

The trains of Wednesday as they passed Orangeburg were draped with mourning in memory of the late John Boyden.

Messrs. Moseley, Crook & Copes have just received a fine lot of seed (Irish) potatoes—you had better go and purchase quick for they are going very rapidly being such a fine lot.

We are informed that Dr. A. Webster has purchased the handsome town property of Col. T. Oliver. It is to be improved and renovated for a hotel, and will be a most desirable resort.

Teacher's pay certificates and "sich" are of course not receivable in part pay for taxes, but several "Uriahs" take them for a mere consideration. How considerate, How affectingly humble.

T. B. Boyd.

This gentleman has added a fine stock of groceries to his store, and invites the public to examine his stock before buying elsewhere, and see if he can't sell as cheap as any body else.

TAX OF 1865,

Under Governor Orr—$260,248.

TAX OF 1874,

Under F. J. Moses $2,257,646.

An increase of ten for one, and all for rascality and shame.

Sign Painting.

Mr. E. G. Tobin has just painted a sign for Messrs. Moseley, Crook & Copes, which shows what perseverance can do. Mr. S is a young man who taught himself the art, and we venture to say that there is not a painter in the State of his age who can do as well as he.

Dr. E. J. Oliveros.

See, and read carefully the advertisement of the Doctor and you are sure of finding something that you need, and if you don't see in his advertisement any thing that you want, all you have to do is to give him a call and ten to one he will produce the article wanted.

Terrible Accident.

On Tuesday night Mr. John Boyden was killed by a train, which knocked him down in the Charleston depot and passed over his body. Mr. Boyden was one of the oldest and most esteemed officers of the road. His untimely death is a source of sorrow to all who knew him.

Ho For Texas!

Read the advertisement of the Lone Star Route published in another column. This route offers such advantages to persons wishing to emigrate that it would pay to write to Mr. S. M. Miller G. T. A. to find out the particulars, and we are sure that your letter will meet with prompt attention.

Horse Killed.

A day or two ago, we understand, that a fine "blooded" horse was killed by a train of the S. C. R. R. It required the united efforts of one man to remove the valuable carcass from the bed of the road. Suppose we will hear further of his racing qualities, pedigree &c., when the parties bring suit. Hope all invalid horses will take notice and not frequent the bed of the road.

Geo. H. Cornelson.

Call and examine the stock of Mr Geo. H. Cornelson, his store is filled with all the good things of this world, anything in the Dry Goods or Grocery line he is sure to have, and as for Hardware and Hats his store is actually full of them. His attentive and polite clerks are always ready to wait on customers, and out of his variety there is bound to be something you will want.

Burglars in Charleston.

The hotels of Charleston were visited by burglars last week, and the detectives were led to look after some suspicious characters. The rooms of the Waverly had been entered, and a boarder had been threatened with a pistol if he made an alarm. An officer afterwards attempted to arrest the bold burglar, and received a shot in his hat, and another in his shoulder. The light fingered gentleman was arrested however, and is held for trial.

Rain, slop, and mud abound, and the streets are in horrible plight. What is to be done with Russell Street, is a grave question, and puzzles the Mayor, as much as it does the luckless pedestrian who has business on the opposite side to where he may stand. How to get over it, concerns everyone, and his horse. A ferry cannot operate without a charter, a charter can not be had without "greasing" and the grease pot 'is gin cout.' The better plan is to plank the street, it will furnish a roadway desirable in every respect, and durable. Who is in favor of a plank road.

Letter From Texas.

We have received a letter from Mr. Avinger (who resides at Hickory Hill Texas). He gives a very cheering account of the affairs in the "Lone Star" State, and closes with the hope that old South Carolina will soon be rid of her troubles, &c. The gentleman has our thanks for a file of Texas papers.

Bamberg & Slater.

Now is the time to get the best horses or mules for the least price, and as Messrs. Bamberg & Slater have just received the finest lot of horses and mules ever brought to this market, we advise all those who may wish to purchase, to do so at once. Messrs. Bamberg & Slater are a new firm just established, who have their stables in the rear of Messrs. Vose & Izlar. Give them a call.

New York Herald.

See the advertisement of the New York Weekly Herald. The Herald is the finest paper in the United States, and its influence in political and social circles is a living monument to its founder. It offers liberal inducements to clubs, and we are sure that if you take it once that you never will be without it. It fulfills all to the letter, and that its advertisement promises. Only $2.00 a year—Address New York Herald, New York.

What Does it Mean

On Saturday last the Treasurer had turned over $5000 to the Express company to go forward to Hardy Solomons President of a Columbia bank, and the parcels were about to be delivered at the train, when a runner arrived requesting the Express agent "not to forward." A minute later the Treasurer came up in seven-league boots and producing a mysterious telegram from Columbia hinting something about a bank, countermanded the order to deliver the $5000 where it had been marked. Stand from under;

First Immigrant.

To our enterprising young townsman Mr. C. D. Kortjohn belongs the honor of first bringing an Immigrant to Orangeburg. This gentleman conceived the plan of having one to clerk for him, and telegraphed to Charleston for one on Saturday and the next day the clerk arrived. Just go to Mr. Kortjohn's and see how he (the Immigrant) can clerk. He can speak English and wait on customers as well as any body—if you want an excuse to go to Mr. Kortjohn's to see him, why take a little change along, and buy some of those fine segars which Mr. K has just received.
