Chamberlain is said to be the leading candidate for Governor: A Northern exchange thinks Moses is bad enough, but says Chamberlain will be worse.

NEAGLE has had a general free fight in Columbia with wife, friends and garrison of post. Like a true man he beat his wife, and like a true friend spared his friends, until an officer of the garrison threatened to chastise him for playing with a musket. Neagle is only a specimen ruler. Did he not once threaten to shoot the young Governor?

THE "Day Book" is not dainty in its caricature of the Republican party; yet its unsightly frontispiece of the 13th, instant may not be over drawn. The carcass of a dead horse represents the party, a wagon packed with "plunder, custom house frauds, back pay, Presidential presents, bribes, credit mobilier &c.," and summed up as "garbage" is in charge of General Grant, with his bull pup; and Beat Butler is afoot worn out with lashing the old beast, and disconsolate at failure. A score of favorites are on the scamper from the defunct and rotten mass. It is a sad sight that both State and federal affairs are in such hands, as cause the atmosphere of reflection to be foul with shame.

ORGANIZE THE TAXPAYERS UNION.

We have been asked; what this Union will effect? If carried out as proposed it will effect a systematic and powerful moral combination against the fraud and peculation existing in public places. It will be able pecuniarily, and on account of its extended ramifications to bring defaulters to trial, employ the best of counsel to aid the prosecution, and adduce proof of the guilt of the accused. It will be setting up sentinels on every hill top over the Hessians, and will effect in every way what in our present unorganized condition is impossible. The manipulators of our degradation and ruin are all organized, shall we remain inactive.

WHO WOULDN'T LOVE HIM.

The "New York Times" Grants organ, says of our "Young Governor": "The evidence is overwhelming that he is about as fit to be Governor of a State, as any BURGLAR who prowls about the street of New York at midnight." It is wrong for the "Times" to write this as Moses is said to be a candidate for re-election. "He has helped himself to public funds and has turned over the key of the treasury to anybody else (who scared him) who happened to be short of money." For shame "Times" remember he is our Governor; His private character is so simply detestable that we had to strike out passages (referring to it) offensive to decency. Our saintly Governor; These extracts are from a paper whose reporter in Columbia saw things as they were, and as they long have been.

The Executive Committee of the "Taxpayers' Convention" calls a meeting in Charleston, for the special purpose of organizing taxpayers unions. The sooner the better.

AN IMPORTANT MEETING.

The members of the Executive Committee of Taxpayers' Convention of South Carolina are hereby requested to meet at the Rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, in Charleston, on Thursday, the 18th day of June instant, at 12 o'clock meridian. The main subject of consideration will be prompt and efficient organization of Tax Unions throughout the State.

Those members who cannot attend are invited to send opinions and proxies to the chairman or to other members of committee. JAMES CHESSNUT, Chairman Executive Committee.

Our fellow townsman Mr. G. A. Neuffer who is posted gives us the following:

Immigration to the United States from foreign countries, from 1776 to 1873, a period of ninety-seven years, is 9,443,865. Fully three-fourths of this number came from the United Kingdom of England, British America and Germany. The largest Immigration was in the last three years averaging 400,000 per annum. The average from 1820 to 1830, was only 15,000 per annum, from 1850 to 1870, 260,000 per annum. Taken from special report on Immigration page 11, by Edward Young, G. W. D., Chief of the Bureau of Statistics, Washington D. C. The total of Immigration has been 9,043,865, in ninety-seven years.

MR. EDITOR:—In your issue of the 11th ultimo you state that the petition of the citizens of the town, asking Council to remove the hogs from the streets, was laid on the table. Such was not the case for the petition was laid over for action at the next regular meeting of council, at which meeting Council will endeavor to provide for the removal of the so-called nuisance.

The citizens probably are not aware that there are some difficulties in removing the hogs from the corporate limits.

JUSTICE.

We are happy to be informed that the petition has been before Council, and for the first time we entertain a hope that the hogs will be kept at home. Our remarks in the last paper, had no reference to the action of Council, as we were under the impression, that the petition (as we saw it in the Post Office with a limited number of names, some times out of sight, and now and then on the floor,) had been removed entirely as a lost question and that Council had not seen it. And we applied the remark "laid on the table" intending to convey the idea of the indifference of the public. Our town Council has the support of the "TIMES" so far in all they have done and we are waiting to hear the verdict. Justice has our thanks for his correction.

MR. EDITOR:—Thinking that a word from the "Mountain city" might be of some interest to your readers, I have concluded to ask space in your columns for a few lines. For several weeks past it was very dry, and the dust arose to such an extent as to render it quite disagreeable. If this were the only inconvenience which would be likely to accrue from being without rain it would be a small matter, but I was fearful that the farmers would suffer very much, and that their crops would be cut short. The drought, however is over: for on last Monday, we had quite a refreshing shower, and since then we have had several others, which have settled the dust and caused vegetation to have quite a changed appearance.

The examinations for honors are now being carried on in Furman University. The Annual Address before the Literary societies of this Institution will be delivered by Rev. J. K. Mendershall, of Columbia, on the evening of the 16th inst, and the regular commencement exercises will take place on the morning of the 17th inst. There are about fifty students in the Collegiate and near one hundred and thirty in the Preparatory department of the University.

Greenville is quite a city. The first issue of the "Greenville Daily News" came out a few Saturdays ago.

"The news boys in every direction are crying 'Daily News', like each one's life depended upon selling that bundle of papers."

The completion of the Air Line R. R. has added considerable to its trade.

Greenville has not felt so severely the iron hand of Radical misrule as our county. The county Treasurer however, was found a defaulter in several thousand dollars. GEO. W. GARDNER.

A negro in Franklin county Georgia, while returning home from plowing fell from the animal, his foot catching in the trace chain. With characteristic animosity, the mule started on a run and banged the life completely out of the poor fellow.

South Carolina has hitherto claimed the lead for defaulting tax collectors, but Georgia begins to loom up unpleasantly. Decatur and Houston have had their stall, and now the collector of Colquitt, Samuel C. Gregory, is announced in default for $917 State tax 1873.

Laurens County Commissioners will grant no licenses to sell liquor in any part of the county in the next twelve months.

The "Situation"

From the New York Day Book.

If Massachusetts, or New York, or Congress, or any power under heaven, can enter the State of Virginia and change the local status of one man, woman, child or negro there, whatever we may call Virginia, a province, satrapy, or department, it is a lie and imposition on common sense to call it a State, for a State, to exist at all, must have absolute charge of the relations and status of the population within its borders. Moreover, if this thing is done, if any outside power has entered Virginia and changed the legal relations of its people from supremacy to equality with negroes, it has an equal right and equal power not only to enact the so-called Civil Rights bill, but to absolutely reverse the condition of 1776-1865, and force the people into the status of the negro during that long and glorious period. These propositions are absolutely and unavoidably true; therefore, if the so-called amendments are assented to, the Federal Union, the American system, the United States, that grand fabric of freedom won by the blood and heroism of the men of 1776, is a wreck, a shapeless ruin, and the man calling himself a Democrat who "accepts the situation", is a traitor to American liberty or he is a fool unfit for the duties of citizenship. Meanwhile, it is a fact, a terrible if not fatal fact, that an outside power, by military violence, has forced the negro element out of its normal condition, and it is now running loose in Virginia, &c. How shall the American Democracy deal with this fact? They must remove that military force—all external force—and leave the people of Virginia to adjust their legal and social relations with the negroes as God and nature and the necessities of human society ordain, for to interfere, to restore the normal order, would be as wrong in principle, though as beneficial in practice as the interference of Lincoln, Grant & Co. is anti-social and atrocious. And "to this complexion it must arrive at last," for a time must come when the Northern producing classes, unable to bear the taxation, to continue this devil's dance after an imaginary freedom for negroes, the Northern collapse will restore freedom to the Southern people, and leave them to adjust their relations to the subordinate race as best they may, and the necessities of social order reign. Such, briefly, is the "situation"—such the tremendous necessities wrapped up in it, and the problem before us is as simple and obvious as it is pretentious and terrible—if there be sufficient sense, virtue and manliness in the Democracy to grapple with it and make the direct issue in the fall elections of hands off and immediate restoration of self-government in the South, we shall sweep the land like a whirlwind; but if the old huggler-mugging "policy" of the past twelve years prevails, all that has been accomplished in the last twelve months will be lost, and the country left to drift into anarchies that may last for half a century. In view of a "situation" so simple but charged with possibilities so wide reaching and horrible, what is to be the position of the gallant and indomitable Democracy of Connecticut?

HIGHLY IMPORTANT

TO FARMERS AND PLANTERS. AMMONIATED MUCILAGE, FOR Steeping and Preparing Seeds before Planting.

This preparation, lately introduced to the Agricultural world, has been found to surpass all that has ever been attempted in that line. It not only contains all the elements and fit food for the seed in its infant state, which positively claim that it is strong and vigorous, but exists where it is applied, and proving a certain preventive against the Potato rot. It dissolves readily, and forms a mucilage by which any material can be made to adhere to the seed. Coal Tar being a very small portion of this valuable compound to prevent the ravages of birds and insects, but so united and prepared as to form a dry powder, which dissolves readily, one pound producing one and a half gallons, or fifteen pounds of mucilage. On every farm there are to be found in abundance valuable materials which should never be neglected. These are rich dry black earth and wood ashes, or lime, and should be mixed in proportions of one part of wood ashes or lime, to three parts of earth. By the aid of the mucilage, much of this material can be made to adhere to each seed, which never fails to show good results. It has been tried on corn, rice, cotton, wheat, potatoes, peas and all the cereals with marked effect, none showing any signs of rust, blight or fungus where it was applied. Put up in one pound Packages at 30 cents per pound, which dissolves and forms one and a half gallons of Mucilage, sufficient to roll seed for one acre land. 600 Planters used it last season with remarkable success.

Every Farmer and Planter should use it. FOR SALE BY KIRK ROBINSON, Agent. Orangeburg, S. C. Feb. 26 3m.
