MAGNOLIA's kind letter is on file for next week. Thanks!

Mr. Dan'l Zimmerman's crop was much injured by the late hail.

SEE the interesting letter of Dr. Barton who is at present in England.

PROF. G. W. Hutson is here on a visit to his father, Col. W. F. Hutson.

THE late Treasurer's account was short; that is he was to have settled but failed.

THE Rev. A. Pope Norris has taken possession of the residence of the late P. Gowan Esq.

MASTER Harry Dawson was knocked down by a horse a few days since, but his injuries were slight.

MR. L. R. Beck with handed around several of the premium lists for the next County fair.

MR. Willcock's gable cottage is a gem, and is located upon a street that is rapidly improving with neat structures

AT the base ball ground during the late game, a gentleman was taken quite ill, but was restored and removed by his friends.

JUSTICE sends us a letter, but gives no name, we cannot publish communications without knowing the author. Please write again.

DR. Oliveros' mansion is being closed in. The mansard roof is a novelty with us. This house will be an ornament to Orangeburg.

SALE DAY last was as quiet as any other summer day, nothing to sell, and no money to buy with had anything been offered. The base ball defeat was the main topic of interest.

ORANGEBURG has the reputation of trying to bring Moses to trial, and now is being tested as a collecting agency. A bill is here for collection upon F. J. Moses Jr. Wonder if the drawer will shave it; if so he may sell it for a relic of the much abused native Governor.

SEE notice of Dr. T. B. Legare in another column. The doctor's professional skill is established beyond need of mention here, and we are requested to state, that patients needing his services will apply early in person or by letter, that appointments may be made to enable him to give attention to professional calls outside of the town.

THE "Orange Club" has played the first of the series of games for the championship with the Carolinas, and will play the next in Charleston. The correspondent of the News & Courier states that the challenge came from the "Orange club," this is a mistake, the "Orange" accepted the banter of the Carolinas. A little practice will worry up their sturdy opponents.

The Orange club and Swamp Angels met again on Tuesday, and played the last of the match games, and the result showed the Swamp Angels 73 to a score of 43 for the Oranges. This leaves the Orange club defeated in the contest for home championship.

OUR SCHOOLS.—If any community is alive to the interest of good schools it is ours, and to our friends in the country whose children aspire to unusual advantages near at home, we can safely recommend the several schools in Orangeburg. That of Miss Rebecca Albergotti is the oldest, having been in successful operation for the training of young ladies and children even before the close of the war. Miss Albergotti's system and discipline has and always will secure large support. Next in order is the Orangeburg Academy of Mr. Jas. S. Heyward. Mr. H. is a teacher of fine culture and his thorough drill places him in an enviable position for the public patronage. Mr. Stiles R. Mellichamp is in deserved favor with his first class school, and is abreast with the latest modes of instruction. We hope these popular schools will be filled at their next session.

SONS OF TEMPERANCE.—A public installation of officers of this order took place on Monday night at their hall. A large attendance of ladies and citizens gathered and occupied the seats prepared. The venerable Dr. Thos. Elliott acted as Grand Conductor, and G. W. P. Brother Elkins performed the rites. The ceremony of installation is simple yet beautiful, and the following officers took position for the following quarter: John A. Hamilton W. P.; Mrs. Eliza Cannon W. A.; J. C. Edwards R. S.; J. L. Heidtmann A. R. S.; F. Legare F. S.; James A. Hamilton C.; Miss Lucy Danner A. C.; F. S. Dibble Ch.; T. O. S. Dibble I. S.; L. H. Wannamaker O. S.; J. G. McKewen P. W. P. After the installation the meeting was addressed by the W. P. elect with remarks that appealed to the sympathy of the public in the work. Mr. Elkins also entertained the audience with a pleasant speech. A collation among the members ended the interesting events of the evening. The Society numbers about sixty ladies and gentlemen.

THE FOURTH.—A dram and fife at the head of a colored militia company, roused our citizens to the fact that "Independence day" had run its annual round. The column after marching to the engine house halted, and dressed right and left as best they could in undress uniform, and there met the "Comet" fire company in their usual good appearance who were getting ready for the enjoyment of the day. The train from Charleston brought the Carolina base ball club with many visitors from the old city by the sea, and Meroney's bus was never more in demand. At three o'clock the field of contest was alive with anxious faces, and the champion Carolinas in their handsome uniform got ready for the match of their opponents in physique they met them to win or to fight for it. The game excited great interest and greater disappointment, when the result was known, and the Orange club were defeated by a score of 23 to 41. The fielding of the Orange club was said to be excellent, and the general playing of the Carolinas was incomparable. Each club caught ten fly balls. At night a splendid avoition of edibles, drinkables, and mirth making, greeted the guests from Charleston, who left by the night train full of victory, and kind feeling for the generous hosts, and warm welcome had in Orangeburg during the game.

TOWN CLOCK.—Orangeburg needs a Town Clock scarcely any two persons agree upon the time, and the various meetings of our societies are seldom held at the appointed hour, because there is no standard recognized by the community. It is a notorious fact that the services in our various churches do not often commence at the hour stated. Now time (in one sense at least) is money, and if we had a clock which the community would adopt as the correct standard, much time, now uselessly spent in waiting till the latest man's watch shall have indicated the proper hour, would be saved.

The advantages are so obvious, however, that we will next ask, "is it practicable?" We think so. The Steeple of the Baptist church was evidently built with reference to placing a clock there, and we are informed by several Baptists, that it would be entirely agreeable to the members to use it for this purpose.

Is the cost too great? We think not. An experienced watch maker, who has circulars of town clock makers, tells us that a clock with 4 dials (3 1/2 feet in diameter), giving only the time, can be purchased for $250; a clock striking the hours would cost, $425. There would be a few additional expenses incurred, but they would be comparatively small. But who will furnish the money? Where the whole community is to be benefited, we are unwilling to ask a few individuals to bear the expenses, and think the Town should foot the bill. We respectfully suggest to our Council to give this matter their immediate attention. Let every one who is interested speak to the members of the Council on the subject.
