Our friends wishing to have advertisements inserted in the TIMES, must hand them in by Monday morning, 10 o'clock.

The Hook and Ladder Company meets on Monday night. Attend for members!

The Episcopal church will be open on Sunday, Rev. Wm. H. Johnson officiating.

SILVANO is coming on Monday night, November the 16th. Read his notice. He promises a treat.

The Lutheran church at this place will be dedicated on Sunday morning. Rev. W. S. Bowman of Charleston will preach the Dedication sermon. The public are invited to attend. All a help to the church!

An interesting game of base ball was played during the Fair between the Orange club of this place and the Branchville Club in which the score stood 66 to 30 in favor of the Orange.

CHAMBERLAIN and Co., have done a poor business at speech making, judging by the nearly two thirds reduction of the Radical majority since 1870. It may have been better to have done like Scott, and kept quiet.

Over fifty cages of living wild animals, containing rare specimens known to naturalists, can be witnessed by visiting old John Robinson's great show which exhibits in Orangeburg on December 2nd.

The Fair is over and so is the election, but not DeMars and his Enterprise Saloon. He still has the best of liquors and cigars always on hand, and visitors to his well fitted rooms will receive every attention, either from the proprietor himself or his courteous assistant Mr. Robert Jones.

Our County Fair is getting out of sight. Was more of a success than they have at first been anticipated. It was crowded every day, not only with the youth and beauty as well as the matrons of our own County, but with visitors from various parts of the county.

It is gratifying to notice the interest that is taken, even from abroad, in our efforts to develop the resources of our County.

It is impossible to particularize the articles on exhibition. Suffice it to say that the stock was full, and indicated an earnest interest on the part of the people in the laudable and public spirited efforts of the Board of Directors and various officers.
