A Cabin Boy With a History. (Philadelphia Ledger.)

William F. Cody, a cabin boy on the oyster ship Water Lily, gave this story of his life in a New York court, after pleading guilty to a charge of theft. He was christened by Buffalo Bill himself, "and never knew who my father and mother were. I was with the Cheyenne Indians in Wyoming until I was 4 years old, when Buffalo Bill Cody found me and brought me to New York. He put me in charge of a friend of his, Stafford Grafton, who made me act as page in the play of Monte Cristo, of which he was manager. I traveled through England and France with the company, and then came back to this country and joined the navy. After two years' service I deserted, but went back into the navy after a few months. Not long afterward I was discharged for incompetency, and then got a place on the Water Lily."

Malaria and Broken-Down Constitution. WAYCROSS, GA.

Dr. W. H. Whitehead.

Dear Sir—At your request I will state my case. Some years ago I contracted malaria in its most violent form while living at Newark, N. J. I consulted various physicians and took numberless preparations recommended as "sure cures," but it stuck to me like a brother—or more like a mother-in-law. I finally came South, and while here tried new remedies, said to always cure malaria, and it still stuck to me, and you know the broken-down condition I was in when I came to your P. P. P. (Prickly Ash, Poke Root and Potassium), and I improved rapidly, and am to-day in as good health as I ever was—in fact better. As a remedy for a broken-down constitution it has no equal. Yours, etc.

T. P. COTTLE.

In Line of Promotion. (Chicago Tribune)

Fussen—"Will the fact that your rich old uncle has left you his money make any difference in your relations to Miss Fyffe?"

Feathers—"I hope so. I'm going to resign as a brother, anyhow, and apply for some other relationship."

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure of Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. A. NOYES, 82 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y.

Modest, Anyway. (Picaro.)

Elsie—"That young man we met at the seaside, who said he was worth $10,000 a year, may be a fraud, but he is modest."

Effie—"How do you know that?"

Elsie—"I saw him behind a counter at Hostage's dry goods shop to-day, and when I asked him to show me some ribbons he turned all colors."

A Little Girl's Experience In A Light-house.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the Gov. Light-house at Sand Beach, Mich. and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed by a dreadful Cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at Wilcox & Co's Drugstore.

Pay the Price. (New York Herald.)

Smythe—"I dropped a cent in front of a blind beggar to-day to see if he'd pick it up." Tompkins—"Well, did he?" Smythe—"No," he said, "Make it a dollar, boss, and I'll forget myself."

Cotton Sample Improved.

One Cent a Pound by Actual Test. At the Gin-House of Mr. F. H. Roberts, in Richland County, just before starting his SAILOR ELEVATOR, one bale had been ginned by the old method. Just after starting his Elevator, another bale was ginned from the same pile. Without knowing this fact, the cotton buyer offered one cent per pound more for the bale ginned with the use of the Elevator. Read the statement of the buyer and seller:

(Copy) "This will certify that of two samples of cotton offered us to-day by Mr. Rowan Eose, the market value of one exceeded that of the other by one cent per pound." (Signed) D. CRAWFORD & SONS.

(Copy) "This will certify that the bales of cotton offered as above were both from the same pile of seed cotton, and ginned on the same gin. One was carried to the gin in baskets, and one through the Sailor Cotton Elevator." (Signed) J. R. ROSE.
