THE WEEK IN CONGRESS

Proceedings in Both Branches Outlined for the Next Few Days.

SPIRIT SCHEDULES DOING THE SENATE.

District Day in the House Followed by the nsideration of the Indian Appro-priation Bill and Other Rountine Matters.

WASHINGTON, June 12 .- The order of work for the house this week is pretty clearly blocked out by the managers, out that the house will fulfil their desires is very uncertain. Today will be devoted to the affairs of the district of Columbia. Then the Indian appropriation bill, of which seven pages were considered last week, will again be taken up under the five minute rule. It is the hope of the leaders that it will be out of the way by Wednesday night, but the outlook is not flattering. If the bill still drags along later in the week, a summary end to debate may be secured by means of an order from the committee on rules. Next in order will come the bill to erect a government printing office on one of the public reservations in the city, Mr. Hatchs antioption bill, or Mr. Coopers bill to tax greenbacks as other money is taxed. These three bills are marked for consideration after the Indian bill is out of the way, and before the general deficiency bill shall be called up. The order in which they will be considered, however will depend upon the action of the house itself.

The Week in the Senate. The fourth draft of the pending tariff bill which was laid before the senate for consideration the 2nd of last April names the 30th of June as the time when the law shall go into effect. That day ends the fiscal year and throughout all the prolonged debate which has since occupied the senate Jones and Harris have contended they would begin collecting duties under the new law with the beginning of the new year. The present condition of things hardly supports their belief. There are averal important schedules yet to be considered, to say nothing of matters that have been left open pending final action when the bill comes out of the committee stage and goes into the senate.

The spirit schedule will probably be completed today and the debate on the mittee on schedule will then be-

The wool schedule and the putting of raw wool on the free list-questions which will follow—are bound to call out protracted debate. Prolific-sub-jects of discussion will also be found in the rates fixed on silk, papers, and in the sundries schedule, where coal will be found. Pearl buttons and gloves will be made the basis of coniderable talk and the free list can hardly be disposed of in a day. Three great items in the free list agricultur-al implements, lumber and raw wool will be stubbornly fought for the purpose of making a record but without hope of changing the result.

When the bill has been finally con sidered in the committee of whole and reported to the senate, the struggle over sugar will be renewed. Meanwhile the condition of appropriation bills is giving the democratic leaders uneasiness and if they do not get through by June 30, joint resolutions extending the terms of the present appropriation bills will have been passed.

THE TRADE REPORTS. Bradstreets Frankly Admits that South is

YORK, June 9. - Bradstreets says: Nearly all the unfavorable business conditions of the past three weeks continue to exercise an influence. The few exceptions where improvement is noted are of practically local importance. Retail trade at many centers has been interfered with by unfavorable weather and by further restriction of the purchasing power of thousands of wage earners, by further industrial trouble or by shrinkage in production. Mob violence, with attacks on life and property, have been a feature of the situation, necessitating interference by state troops in many localities.

At larger eastern centers, there is no aprovement in general business. Among southern cities covered, Richmond, Savannah, Jacksonville and Augusta report the more favorable condi-At the first there is a better demand for groceries and provisions, for agricultural implements and leaf tobacco, which is quite active. Eastern Florida vegetable regions report continued improvement in crops and corresponding stimulation among mer-chants, while at the Georgia centres the volume of business is fair in most lines and improved in one or two. Elsewhere south, dullness, slow collections and surplus funds in banks, characterizes business conditions. There is little that is far reaching amending evidences of improvement reported from the west.

Dun Regards the Outlook Bright. R. G. Dun & Co's., weekly report of trade says the outlook for business seems a little brighter on the whole. though the change is not great. Moreover, it is impossible to distinguish between mere replacement of orders cancelled for want of fuel or other causes, and the new business for which works are anxiously looking. That cancelations have been heavy is certain, and it is not entirely clear that orders of equal magnitude have gone to other works that are able to fill them. Through the agency of strikes, the interruption of industry and commerce, ncreases every week. Hence it is some what encouraging that the decrease in payments through clearing houses is but 24.3 per cent for the first week of June 27.2 at New York, but only 19.4 elsewhere. The decrease in comparison with 1892 is about 30 per cent.

BIRMINGHAM, June 12.-At an early our yesterday a bridge on the Linton Branch of the Louisville & Nashville was burned. This is the third railroad bridge that has been burned within the past four days and all of which fires are supposed to have been of incendiary origin. Investigation showed that the Linton bridge was set on fire, for brush and oiled timbers were found at either end. Suspicion points to the striking miners but so far nothing has been learned that will warrant the arrest of suspected strikers who were known to have been lurking in the vicinity of the fire only a few hours before it started. Saturday morning on the Kansas City, Memphis and Birmingham railroad near Adamsville, in front of a limited mail from Memphis a bridge was fired but the fire was discovered in time to prevent the train from running into it.
