VOL. XXI, NO. 42.

DARLINGTON, S. C., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1894.

WHOLE NUMBER 1,028.

LOCAL LACONICS.

MATTERS IN AND AROUND THE TOWN OF DARLINGTON.

A Column of News, Tersely Told, of Interest to Our Many Readers.

Mr. Robert E. James spent Sunday at home.

There has been a slight frost for several mornings.

The family of the late Dr. W. J. Alexander has moved to Spartanburg.

Mr. Walter Griffin left on Saturday to attend the Charleston Medical College.

Mr. Geo. J. Brown, the State Constable, is figuring in liquor raids over in Sumter.

Messrs. Woods & Milling are the sole local agents for Young's celebrated hats. Read their advertisement.

The annual examination of those desiring to teach in the public schools of the County will be held in the Court House to-morrow (Friday).

Read the new advertisement of Miss Maggie Jones, the popular milliner, who has returned from the North with all the latest styles in ladies' hats.

Mr. Carl Hill, a son of Dr. Hill, and Mr. John Waddill, a son of Mr. J. M. Waddill, will leave on Sunday next for Citra, Fla., "to seek their fortunes."

The rains of last week prove to have been unusually heavy. The Pee Dee rose to thirty-five feet above low water mark, and considerable corn was destroyed.

The meeting of the Anti-Tillman Democrats, for the purpose of nominating full County and Legislative tickets, is to be held next Monday in the Opera House.

The amount of the loss resulting from the burning of the Hartsville depot last week is estimated at $10,000. It is all, however, thought to be covered by insurance.

The Confederate monument has been taken down and the several parts carried to the Square on the north side of the Court House, where it is now in process of re-erection.

Lucius Bacot, the well known colored man, had the misfortune on Tuesday night, to lose his horse, which fell dead in harness while being driven along Pearl Street in front of Mertz's store.

Mr. C. Alexander lost a fine horse on Friday. The driver was on his way to McIntosh's Mill, and in trying to cross Black Creek, the unfortunate animal got beyond its depth and was drowned.

About a dozen Darlingtonians were in Florence Saturday night to see "The Silver King." They were well repaid for their trouble, for the play itself and the manner in which it was rendered were both superb.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Carter lost on Saturday their little boy, who was just three years old. He was buried at Swift Creek Church on Sunday. The parents have the sympathy of all in their bereavement.

There was another large tobacco sale at the Warehouse on the 11th. Twelve planters from Clarendon County were in with their crops. The prices were good and the strangers seemed pleased with their visit.

It is said that Columbia, Florence and Darlington have all three been removed from the "black list" on which they were placed by Gov. Tillman, and that they will hereafter receive their share of the dispensary profits.

There is no longer any doubt that the Atlantic Coast Line people have secured a controlling interest in the C. S. & N. road, and that, before very long, the two lines running into Darlington will be under one management.

The rendition of the comedy "Jane" at the Opera House last week was simply delightful. The troupe is a good one all around, decidedly the best that has ever appeared here. The acting of "Jane" was "im-mense"; the large audience present were convulsed with laughter from the beginning of the play to its end.

Those in need of buggy and wagon harness would do well to call at John Siskron's shop, as he is selling it off at cost.

Hard times prices on Domestic sewing machines; $45 the former price, $25 the present price, $20 saved on each machine. McCall & Burch.

Round trip tickets to the State Fair at Columbia (including the price of admission once to the Fair Grounds) will cost $3.35. They will be put on sale Nov. 11, and will be good to return on until Nov. 17th.

One of the handsomest show-windows in town is that at the new stand of Mr. S. Wolfram, the enterprising jeweler, and will well repay the inspection of those who have not yet seen it. Read his new advertisement in this issue.

The Town Council have placed on the Square two iron drink-troughs for horses, one on either side of the Court House. By a unique automatic arrangement connected with them the water in the troughs is kept fresh and clear all the time.

The wonderful effect the Tariff Bill has had in reducing the price of men's clothing cannot be properly appreciated until you examine the samples and prices of Mr. Howard Norment, local agent for the celebrated house of Wannamaker & Brown.

A barrel of good family flour for $2.90 at Blackwell Bros.

The cheapest "made to order" suits of clothes in the world are to be had of Wannamaker & Brown; Howard Norment, agent for Darlington.

One boy's suit, pair of shoes and socks, and a nice tie, all for $2.25 at Blackwell Bros.

At the Churches.

Rev. W. M. McPheeters, D.D., a professor in the Theological Seminary at Columbia, will preach at the Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning next, the services beginning at 11.30 o'clock. Rev. F. M. Satterwhite will preach at the Baptist Church. The only service at the Episcopal Church will be conducted by the Rev. R. W. Barnwell, at 8 P. M. The Rev. Mr. Aitkins will preach at Society Hill both morning and evening.

A fine overcoat for $4 50 at Blackwell Bros.

$15 suits reduced to $9 at Brunson, Lunn & Co's.

We claim that our $4.90 men's winter suits can't be beat. Call and see them; Blackwell Bros.

Improving the Morals of Florence.

The Hon. W. W. Hursey, Mayor of Florence, writes to ask Gov. Tillman to restore to his town the privilege of participating in the dispensary profits, and promises, in return therefor that he will see that the law is enforced with vigor, and will lead in a regular crusade against the "blind tigers" in his vicinity. The Governor replies in his usual "if-you-will-be-a-good-little-boy-you-can-have-some-cake" style, and ends as follows: "If you will co-operate with him [the constable stationed at Florence], there is no doubt that the illicit sale of whiskey can be stopped and the morals and good order of your town improved."

MARRIED.

On Sept. 26, at the residence of Mr. T. C. Harrell, the bride's father, by the Rev. W. O. Petty, Miss Hellen Harrell and Mr. George Lee, both of Darlington County.

The New Pastor.

[The Ocala (Fla.) Banner]

Rev. Jno. G. Law, of Darlington, S. C., with his family, arrived in Ocala last Friday, and the new pastor of the Presbyterian church preached his introductory sermon Sunday morning to a good sized congregation. He selected his text from John, the 4th chapter and 34th verse. It was a highly spiritual sermon and the application was direct and pointed, namely, to do the Master's will with apostolic zeal and devotion. Rev. Mr. Law spoke without notes. His ideas were clear and his command of language good, his diction that of the people, plain and simple, yet forceful and impressive. His delivery is earnest, the force of which is somewhat impaired by what sounded as slight throat troubles. Mr. Law's audience was pleased with his sermon. He is a man about 55 years of age, rather tall, of medium mould, with a pleasant face, a mild blue eye, which when he speaks lights up with pleasant effect, but in repose has a sad and thoughtful expression. The new pastor comes with the highest recommendations as a man and a Christian. He throws his whole soul into his ministerial labors; is possessed with a deep sense of his spiritual work and has a most solicitous and watchful care over every member of his flock. The Banner extends a cordial welcome to Rev. Jno. G. Law and his family, consisting of a son, a daughter and a Miss Taylor, and trusts his pastorate in Ocala will be profitable and pleasant in every sense of the word. They will occupy Dr. E. C. Hood's residence.

A good sewing machine for from $5 to $15 at Blackwell Bros.

Frank Spain's Company.

The Sadia Whiteford Company, with which Mr. Frank Spain is connected, will be here two nights next week, Oct. 24th and 25th. The house would doubtless be crowded on both occasions if the people of Darlington were influenced only by a desire to see their popular young fellow-townsmen, Mr. Spain, in his new role. But the troupe itself is said to be an unusually fine one. On the 24th "Ingomar" will be played and "Pygmalion and Galatea" on the 25th. Mr. A. B. Williams, of the Greenville News, (in which city the troupe appeared a few days ago), says of Miss Sadia Whiteford, the "star": "She has talent and brains and taste and the mysterious thing we call power—the ability to put herself in intellectual communication with people and to make them understand and feel her thoughts and emotions. She has all the natural advantages of beauty and voice. She needs some ripening and training, and is obviously a worker and in Parthenia has fewer crudities than Mary Anderson had at her age. There is every reason to believe that the place on the American stage left vacant by the retirement of Miss Anderson is to be filled by Sadia Whiteford."

No one stops to ask why trade is good with us. They all find goods cheaper than ever before: that's one reason; Blackwell Bros.
