CHARLESTON, S. C., December 12—At a meeting of the council last night an ordinance was passed to meet the discensary situation in this state. In its pensary situation in this state. In its "whereas" clause the ordinance recites the fact that "it seems the duty of this municipality to enforce the dispensary law within its limits, because the sale of intoxicating and spirituous liquors other than in state dispensaries is prohibited by the state law."

The ordinance requires the mayor to appoint three special detectives to be known as dispensary law detectives, who shall constitute a part of the city police force, but shall not be required to appear in uniform, whose chief duty it will be to keep a constant lookout for violations of the state dispensary law. Persons found guilty of violating the law to be fined $100 for each and every offence. The city police court and the city court of Charleston are both vested city court of Charleston are both vested with special jurisdiction in the premises. It is now the duty of the entire police force of the city to co-operate with the special detectives in the rigid enforcement of the dispensary law.

THE ARGENTINE REPUBLIC.

ATLANTA, December 12.—Official no tice has been received by the Cotton States and International Exposition that Dr. Zeballos, minister of the Argentine Republic to the United States, has advised his government to make an exhibit at the exposition in Atlanta next year. The invitation to particiadvice was asked by his government. He conferred with the secretary of the interior and asked for information as regards the matter. He has recom-mended an independent building for the Argentine Republic. He has cabled the Argentine Republic. He has cabled his government announcing that the material used at Chicago by the Argen-tine Republic is still at Philadelphia and asking for instructions about its transportation to Atlanta.

LADY SOMERSET SAYS NO. he Is Not Making a Fight Against Ameri-

New York, December 12.—Lady Somerset has announced that she is making no crusade against living pic-tures as presented in this country. She has written a card to the newspapers of this city, in which she says:

"The invariable kindness and cour tesy which the American press has shown to me encourages me to ask you as a matter of justice to myself to state that the assertions that have appeared in many papers that I am organizing or assisting to organize a crusade against living pictures in this country is with-out foundation.

I have no thought of interfering with the exhibitions given in America. There are plenty of citizens wise and vigilant who will watch over the morals of this land. I raised my protest in England against entertainments that I considered likely to demoralize the spectators and performers. I have not visited, nor do I intend to visit the theatres where living pictures are given in America. I would wish absolutely to contradict such statements through your columns. Yours truly,
ISABEL SOMERSET.

AN ASTOR TRAMP.

NEW YORK, December 12.-The trial NEW YORK, December 12.—The trial of John Gravey, the tramp who three weeks ago was found sleeping in the laundry room of Mrs. Astor on Fifth avenue, and after being fined for disorderly conduct, was indicted for attempting burglary, was begun today before Judge Fitzgerald in general seasions. The judge seemed annoyed at the efforts to magnify his petty trial. Besides the special attorney who had been sides the special attorney who had been engaged by the Recorder to defend Garvey, there were present more than a dozen newspaper reporters and cor-respondents, who completely filled the enclosure at the left of the bench, while the large room was crowded with spec-tators. The defense, it was announced would be alleged insanity of the tramp. The jury returned a verdict yesterday afternoon of "guilty of unlawfully entering the house of Mrs. Caroline As-tor." The prisoner was remanded for

Ashley, a member of the for the appointment of a committee to investigate the matter. He says in the

"Tillman denied at Union, during the canvass, that he had ever received the rebate of seven cents a gallon on the whisky he bought from the whisky trust. I am creditably informed that he did receive that rebate, and a check was sent him for the amount, and he returned the check and asked them to send the money in currency by express; that the money was sent, and received by Tillman, amounting to many thouands of dollars, that ought to have gone to the credit of the taxpayers. Furthermore, I am informed that the railroad company that transported the liquor, paid Tillman a rebate on the

"I understand that Tillman got a good slice out of that Port Royal lawsuit, and that is the reason why Tillman is afraid of Irby. There is no doubt that Tillman and John Evans got a good slice out of the $118,000 given to Rhind in funding the state debt. Why don't you demand a committee to investigate these things? The people ought to know the truth, and if are not true Tillman, Evans and Irby Ex-Governor Tillman's friends do not believe that the statement is true.

Tillman Makes This Denial,

COLUMBIA, S. C., December 10. Through a friend, ex-Governor Tillman has given to the press his defense against the charges affecting his official integrity which are made by B. F. He was accused of buying property largely be-yond his means, and it was charged that he had received and pocketed re-bates on whiskies sold the state dispensary. The president of the South Carolina National bank of this city nished $8,000 of the money secured by these mortgages, six thousand of which was furnished to pay for the plantation was furnished to pay for the plantation he has lately purchased. The president of the railroad which has brought the dispensary liquors into the state makes denial of the statement that his road gave or Tillman recieved a rebate on the freight. An agent of the Mill Creek Distilling campany, of Cincinnati, from which Tillman bought most of his whiskey, in an interview, states that his company gave no rebate on it, the purchase being made at a price which excludes the rebate.

The defense does not cover the charge that Tillman borrowed to pay mortgages on his property, fourteen thousand dollars from his brother, ex-Congressman Tillman, before his election and has repaid the money since; nor does it deny that he has lately bought aix thousand dollars worth of factory stock. The ex-governor, however, privately denies that he owns any stock mittee on Banking and Currency. What the Secretary Thinks Should be Done.

WASHINGTON, December 11 .- Secre tary Carlisle in explaining to the house his proposed plan for a new banking law, said that one great advantage of his plan was that it would furnish an elastic currency. The entire National bank deposit would not be filled up to house, charging ex-Governor Tillman with receiving all kinds of rebates and other dishonest transactions, and urging Ashley to call upon the legislature for the appointment of a comparison of the transaction it must send to the transaction it must send to the transaction it must send to the treasury lawful money of the United States of the requisite amount: and it was not allowed to withdraw this amount for circulation for six months. Under the new plan a bank might retire its circulation and increase it tomorrow.

Mr. Walker (republican, Mass.) wanted to know whether Mr. Carlisle had drawn a bill embodying his views. Mr. Carlisle said he had a sketch of uch a measure, and promised to furnish the committee with a complete bill as soon as he had perfected the draft he

Mr, Carlisle took up his suggestion that "no national bank note shall be of less denomination than ten dollars, and all notes of the same denomination to be uniformly designed; but banks desiring to redeem their notes in gold may have them made payable in that coin. The secretary to have authority to keep on hand ready for issue upon application, a reserve of blank national tion having circulation.' This suggestion, he said, would have the effect of placing the silver certificates of small denominations in circula-tion. The idea was not to issue national bank notes of less denomination than ten dollars. This would force the peo-ple to call for the silver certificates which were now piled up in the treasu-ry. The silver certificates were, of course, redeemable in silver dollars. He believed that the notes issued under the New system would be carried at a parity with gold. To Mr. Sperry democrat, Mr. Carlisle said his plan contemplated the ulti-mate retirement of greenbacks and notes issued under the Sherman law, and there would then be no other paper of the government redeemable in gold. "We should then be on a silver basis," said Mr. Sperry.

MAY ELECT BRECKINRIDGE.

The Defeated Congressman Said to Have a Chance for the Senate.

LEXINGTON, Ky., December 11.—Just before Senator Blackburn left for Wash-ington the democrats of Woodford county, his home, held a private caucus the result of which has just been learned from a gentleman who was present. The object was to ascertain the choice of the democrats of Wood-ford for United States senator. The vote resulted in an endorsement of Mr. Blackburn, with Breckinridge as second choice. Col. Breckinridge, before leaving for Washington, declined to say whether or not he should be a candidate for Blackburn's place, but there can be no mistaking the fact that his friends are working toward that end. The action of the Woodford county democrats will likely be followed by similar action in the various counties in this district. Fayette county is pretty evenly divided between Blackburn and reckinridge, with the chances in favor of the latter. It is now certain that Breckinridge will be a factor in the race. Blackburn returned to Washington Saturday night.

THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

What Has Been Done and is Expected In Commercial Circles. New York, December 8 .- Bradstreet's report today says: At the larger castern cities retail trade has assumed the characteristics of the holiday season. The demand from jobbers is mainly to fill out depleted stocks, and activity is mainly among retailers. An encouraging report regarding the outlook is received from Baltimore, but Boston, Buffalo, Pittsburg and Philadelphia announces trade quiet, with the volume for November less than 1898. At the south there is a reasonable activity in staple goods with a moderate mprovement at Nashville, Chattanoga, Savannah, Augusta and Jacksonville. Southern jobbers are paying as much attention to collecting bills as to sell-ing goods. At Charleston, Memphis and Birmingham trade is quiet and un-changed. New Orleans and Galveston. likewise send unfavorable reports of the movement of merchandise, but at the first named the free marketing of crops makes money more plentiful, though the demand of funds are small.
