[For the Orangeburg Times. September 23, 1878.

To the Editor Orangebury Times: I have read Mr. Bomar's piece earefully, and will endeavor to reply to some parts of it, as briefly, and pointedly as possibly, to do Mr. Bomar justice. Now, he has assumed his full name, Edgar Gedding's Bomar, therefore, the people will admit, his simple name, Ed, ar, is legally termed anonymous, beause, if I would have signed my nam e John, or Lewis, (alone,) who would have known who I was, and all would have undoubtedly pronounced it anonymous. I will say nothing about the purity of his name. Next, I will notice the golden Record of Orangeburg County, and the pride, and satisfaction of Gov. Hampton, in his appointments; those were the silvery misstatements, I alluded to. His laying before the people without his full name, which I believe was, wrong, and he will admit it himself, when in reason.

Next, he manly admits his innocence of designing to misslead, corrupt, or injure, in any way, the Democracy of Orangeburg County, or any other which is satisfactory. Now Mr. Editor, I give the statements he made of the record of Orangeburg County, and the pride and satisfaction Gov. Hampton has had over his appointment, and he must in reason admit he was in error, and when Error is published by an anonymous writer, it must have effect, either for good orbad. My object was (under the circumstances) knowing they were misstatements, to check their bad effects. That is my proof, and I think it is enough for Mr. Bomar, in reason.

Next, Mr. Editor, in regard to the swindler, wire-puller, and fraud, he said, I acused him of. I will say this, I may have used rather harsh expressions, and may have missconstruvoice in the matter. Whilest I do endents and fusionist.

Again, Mr. Bomar, says my piece was not out before the Con ention, there again he is in error.

Now, Mr. Editor, I will pass over a long part of Mr. Bomar's piece and ers of the State would not recognize but he could not get it filled, as my before he advises others about their ask to be excused,) and if he is, I would advise or ask him, in a friendly way to read the rules of the Church

New, Mr. Editor, if Mr. Elgar Geddings Bomar, is sincere in what he told me last Saturday, he will reply in a manly retracting manner, to have come right to me (as he knew who and where I was) and settle the matter at once, without this pap . er controversy. I expect to notice no further paper controversy about the matter.

JOHN L. MOORER.

Democrats, the ticket is before you and as to its being a good one there is no doubt. Now you must be up and doing.

The Rich Men Desert Memphis.

The poor man at Memphis is the sufferer; the man of wealth has gone away with his money or locked it up behind him. Says the Avalenche; "Memphis has many rich men who own palatial stores along Main street. There is not one of these rich men here to-day, in the hour of our greatneither represented in person nor by their surplus dollars. The majority of the men who are standing in the deadly breach, fighting the most gigantic plague that ever cursed American soil, are men who do not own one dollar in real estate in Memphis." Where, it asks, is this man and that man, giving their names. and a score of others that we propose to mention at a future time Have we seen the light of their countenance or the color of their money? Facts are stubborn things, and now we are treating of facts. The men who are to day standing in the fore front of the battle have no capital but their manhood. God bless them."

Everybody seems please I with the nominations made by the County Convention. That's right fellowcitizens, all we have to do to secure success is to be determined and united and we will surely win.

A new publication, to be called the Poets' Journal, and devoted exclusively to original poems, will make its appearance at Burlington, Vt., in a short time. The editor expects to make enough money to keep his paper going by selling rejected poems at two cents a pound.

It is the duty of every true man to ed his meaning, but I do deny any discountenance any thing like indep-

There is much instruction in the following story, which is copied from an old book :

"I saw a gentleman riding before on a fine horse, whilst I was mounted on an ass. Ah, said I to myself, how different is my condition from his! But upon turning about my head, I saw a good looking countryman driving a wheelbarrow before him. Oh, then, said I, if I am not equal to him who goes before me, at least I am superior to him who follows me. I have found that the fable hath at certain times revived my spirit. I have wrote it on a label, and set it up in my study, that I may always remember it."

Good bye Rads and Independents! Old Orangeburg is as certain to go Democratic as the sun shines.

A good writer, who gets things down line, can put several thousand words on a postal card, and the cost is a cent; but if he pastes a printed slip, containing a single word, on the card, the expense is six cents-one paid for the card and the other five coffeeted from the receiver; yet if words are printed on the card itself it is all right. If a person pastes a printed slip on a card the size of a postal eard, and puts the card and slip in an open envelope, the Government will carry card, slip, and envelope for a cent; yet it charges six cents for carrying a postal card an l slip without the davelope.

What! the Democrats be defeated! Preposterous ! / They don't know the meaning of the word.

A lady once consulted Dr. Johnson on the degree of turpitude to be attached to her son's robbing an orenard. "Madam," said Johnson, "it all depends upon the weight of the boy. I remember my schoolfellow, Davy Garrick who was always a little fellog, robbing a dozen of orchards withimpunity, but the first time I climbed up an apple tree, for I was always a heavy boy, the bough broke with me, and it was called a judgment. I suppose that's why Justice is represented with a pair of scales."

Haw! haw!! ho!!!- Good-bye Rads! Cld South Carolina is ettin' and chewing!

New York, September 17 .- A May's Landing (N. J.) special says : "The dam above Woods' cotton mills, en Egg Harbor river race, burstlast night. Hundreds of persons narrowly escaped death. The town was soon submerged, and bridges, lumber, coat and all movable things were borne away by the flood. The villagers were aroused by the clashing in est calamity. Theze rich men are of windows, doors and the current of muddy water carrying sticks, coal and stones t. rough the houses. Several persons are reported lost."

> ROBBERS IN THE GUISE OF WOMEN.-It is said that there is a band of colored robbers, disguised as women, depredating ia our midst. For a man to assume the garb of a woman that he might the more stealthily commit crime, and fall upon his unsuspecting victim, shows a dark depth of crime. If it be true, no means should be left untried to find the villians and bring them to deserved punishment .- Newberry

> NOT BAD .- A newly married couple went to house-keeping; not long since, at Boston. At breakfast the next morning, after their entrance, the gentleman said to his lady: "My dear, this is Poplar-st. and putting u (you) in it, it becomes popular." "And by putting us in it," promptly replied the lady, "it will become populous."

> Everybody is allowed to vote at the ballot boxes set up for the benefit of the fever sufferers, and "repeating" and stuffing the boxes is encouraged.

The man who is not afraid of war or yellow fever is generally afraid to take out a paper of tobacco in the presence of a crowd.
