

ers, and eyes, that the you ng ladies brer. It with them Ray, a young Knight, es-Belle to the table, while Charand Johnnie carried Lena and lie; they kept close to them all y, for fear they might lose them.

After dinner they went to look at the stand; it really looked beautifully.
They had carried a carpet and it on the floor; some one had kindly loaned their little marble topped table, (knowing, that Mr. Graham was to superintend every thing, and was a very particular man,) on which stood a silver pitcher and goblet; and a vase filled with flowers. All around the stand was fixed with blue and white curtains, looped back. For whom, had it been arranged so nicely no one could tell or would tell, at least.

Presently we hear the sound of the drum; that is signal for the Knights to assemble for the Tournament.
Here they come; they all have their names, around the bands of their hats. They all did justice to the occasion too, but the Knight of Auld Lang Syne, gained the crown. Now, who was to be the wearer of the crown? After a little while; we see Julius Ray, talking with a young lady. It is Belle Graham; she says Mr. Ray you are only jesting; there are a great many prettier than I, all around.

He does not think so, I assure Miss Belle.

Who did you say it was Mr. Ray?
Only an old friend.

She nearly fainted when the Knight was introduced, as Willie Glenn. Could he have possibly changed so, she thought? When he left he was only eighteen, with neither beard nor mustache, and now he had a beautiful glossy brown set.

He was also orator of the day.
Spoke of the changes, that had taken place, since he was there last. He had wandered all about; met with many dangers, and had finally come to the conclusion, that, "there was no place like home."

When it was over, Mr. Graham invited him home with him, which invitation was gladly accepted. He drove Belle home. On the way they made up their engagement, which was broken off by the old folks; who thought them too young. He succeeded very well, for she had loved him all the time. He had been back only a few days before the picnic, and kept it a secret, thinking he would surprise them there; and he did.

That night, there was a double wedding at Mr. Graham's; Charlie Moore to Gussie; Willie Glenn to Belle. When the ceremony was over, Belle laughed and said, "All's well that ends well."

Two years after, Lena was married to Johnnie Swinton.

A Boy's Composition on Girls.

Girls is a queer kind of vermin.
Girls is the only folks that has their way every time. Girls is of several thousand kinds, and some times one girl can be like several thousand other girls if she wants to do any thing. Girls is alike one way; they are all like cats. If you rub 'em the right way of the hair, they'll purr and look sweet at you, but if you rub 'em the wrong way, or step on their tails they'll claw you. So long as you let a girl have her own way she's nice and sweet; but just cross her and she'll spit at you worse nor a cat.
Girls is also like mules, they're headstrong. If a girl don't want to believe anything you can't make her. If she knows it's so she won't say so. Girls are little women, if they're good, and if they aint good then nor when they git big, they're she-devils. That's what father said mamma was once when she fixed a hot flat-iron in the chair so he'd down on it, 'cause she was mad at him. Brother Joe says he don't like big girls, but he does like little ones, and when I saw him kissing Jennie Jones last Sunday, and told him of what he'd said, he said he was biting her, 'cause he didn't like her. I think he hurt her, for she hollowed and run, and there was a big red spot all over both of her cheeks.
This is all I know about girls.

LIVER

This important organ weighs but about three pounds, and it filters in a few minutes about 2500 quarts of blood, and passes through it every half hour, to have the bile and other impurities separated from it. Life is the natural function of the liver, and if the liver becomes torpid it is not separated from the blood, but carried through the veins to all parts of the system, and in trying to escape through the pores of the skin, causes it to turn yellow or a dirty brown color. The stomach becomes diseased, and Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Jaundice, Chills, Malarial Fevers, Piles, Sick and Sour Stomach, and general debility follow. Mizner's's HEPATINE, the great vegetable purgative for torpidity, causes the Liver to throw off from one to two ounces of bile each time the blood passes through it, as long as there is an excess of bile; and the effect of even a few doses upon yellow complexion or a brown dirty looking skin, will astonish all who try it—they being the first symptoms to disappear. The cure of all bilious diseases, and Liver Complaints is made certain by taking HEPATINE in accordance with directions.
Headache is generally cured in twenty minutes, and no disease that arises from the Liver can exist if the liver is kept in its normal condition.

LUNGS

The fatality of Consumption or Throat and Lung Disease, which sweep to the grave at least one-third of all death's victims, arises from the Opium or Morphine treatment, which simply stu-pifies the vital force of death goes on. It is now possible to cure Consumption or Morphine, or any preparation of Opium, Morphine or Prussic Acid, can be found in the Great Flower Concentrated Syrup, which has cured people who have lived in a room with little remaining lung. No greater wrong can be done than to say that Consumption is incurable. The all other means have failed. Also, Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat

BLOOD

Grave mistakes are made in the treatment of all diseases that arise from poison. Not one case of Scrofula, Syphilis, White Swelling, Ulcerous Sores and Skin Disease, in a thousand, is treated without the use of Mercury in some form.
Mercury acts on the bones, and the disease it produces are worse than any other kind of blood or skin disease can be. Dr. Peppercorn's STILLINGIA or Ointment is the only medicine upon which a hope of recovery from Scrofula, Syphilis and Mercurial diseases in all stages, can be reasonably founded, and that will cure Cancer.
Stages will be paid by the purveyor, if Mercury, or any ingredient not purely vegetable and harmless can be found in it.

Price by all Druggists $1.00.
