

Sold— A good many star-gazers sat up last Thursday night to see the stars fall—but they didn't.

A Neat Sign— Has been put up at Sorentrou's store, the painting being done by Mr. C. A. Ransdale.

W. H. Hennon— Has just been appointed by the Governor a Trial Justice for Orangeburg.

Illness— We regret to learn of the illness from pneumonia of our young friend W. H. Glover of Limestone. We hope he will soon be out again.

Mr. W. J. Boykin— Of Orangeburg, was robbed at the State Fair grounds last week, of $17. The money was recovered and the thief caught.

Horses and Mules— Messrs. Dukes, Sain and Slater have each got in this week a fresh supply of these useful animals. Call around and examine for yourselves.

Fine Cutlery— Dr. Wannamaker, Mr. P. G. Cannon and Dr. Dukes, have just received a large assortment of fine cutlery. Go and examine their stock.

Our Sympathies— Are with our brother MeJunkin of the Columbia Yeoman, who has just been bereaved of both parents in Texarkana, Louisiana.

The Weather— Changed on Tuesday from warm and unseasonable to rain and cold. The rain will be acceptable to all, on account of the dry state of many of the wells.

A Strange Sight— On our rambles in the country on Saturday we came across a jessamine in full bloom on the road-side, a strange sight, certainly for November.

Mr. DeChivette— Has just received a large stock of silver and plated table and tea-spoons and forks; also jewelry and watches, just the things for Christmas presents. Call and examine.

Rail Road Fares— We are glad to see that the Palmetto Yeoman, our sprightly cotemporary at the Capital, agrees with what we said on this subject, and unites with us in striking for lower rates.

Look Out— B. Frank Slater, Esq., will have a superb lot of horses in Orangeburg on the 29th. Look out for them as Mr. Slater is a capital judge of horse flesh and knows exactly what our farmers want. Read his advertisement in another column.

Casualties— We are sorry to hear that our young friend W. H. Dukes, a son of Mr. J. W. H. Dukes got his fingers badly cut in his father's gin last week. Also, that Mr. W. M. Sain had a finger on the left hand badly bitten by a mule. The exact extent of these injuries we have not learned.

Jewelry— See W. F. Robinson's new advertisement to-day. He is just opening as fine a set of jewelry as was ever opened in Orangeburg, and his prices suit all. If you want to please your self and make a Christmas present to a friend look at his show stock. Call also and see the wonder of the age, his revolving show case.

Terrible Accident— In the burning of Mr. Ashley's Mill and Gin near Edenton two white boys and a negro man were caught in the lint room and press and severely burned. One of the boys Jesse Owens died in an hour after the rescue, and the recovery of the others is considered doubtful.

Presbyterian Festival— The preliminary meeting of the Committee of Ladies of this festival which is to take place during the Christmas holidays was held at Mr. N. A. Bull's on Tuesday. The attendance was very encouraging and all the denominations participated. We are glad to see this spirit manifested, and we feel safe in predicting, from what we can gather, that the affair will be a very successful one. The object, the erection of a parsonage for the Church, is one worthy of our best efforts, and should inspire a laudable zeal.

Egyptian Cement— Is the name of a capital preparation made by Kirk Robinson, Esq., for mending broken china, crockery &c. A 25 cent bottle of it will keep things in order for a year. We have seen some of the work and know of what we speak. Try it.

Mayor's Court— On Monday was occupied in the examination of parties reported for selling spirits on Sunday. A severe reprimand was given by the Mayor, and arrangements will be made to have detectives on the qui vive in the future, and all violators of the ordinance will be deprived of their licenses.

Attention!— The Members of Zion Democratic Club are hereby requested to assemble at Zion Church on Thursday morning 4th of December next, at 11 o'clock, as business of importance will be brought to their notice. DONALD R. BARTON, President. L. J. IZLAR, Sec'y Nov. 20th 1879.

Gambling— It is said was permitted to a most shameful extent at the State Fair last week, and we are glad to see that the press is condemning it in round terms. Its influence upon the rising generation is extremely injurious, and the dollars and cents gained by the Fair can never repay for the damage done. The authorities were certainly culpable.

A Resolution— Returning thanks to the ladies who so kindly assisted in the Retirement Rooms at the Agricultural Fair, and to Mrs. E. S. Lubble and Mrs. J. L. Heidman for making the flag, was passed at a meeting of the Directors of the Association this week. Parties to whom premiums were awarded, and who have not yet received them are requested to call on Secretary Heidman at Izlar & Dibble's office.

County Finances— We learn that the report of the County Commissioners soon to be published will show a back indebtedness of $18,107, and the wherewithal to pay it now in the treasury only amounts to 81 cents on the dollars. The deficiency for the current expenses for the fiscal year is about $500.

We thus see what a legacy the Radicals have left us, and yet they hope to gull the voters into putting them into office again.

A Snow Storm— Commenced here about 12 o'clock on Wednesday, and before an hour passed everything was covered with the hoary mantle, which reminded us of the pictures of Northern snow scenes which is generally the nearest approach we Southerners have to reality. In a short time snow balling became general on our streets, and little boys, big boys, and old boys, all engaged in the rare and exciting pastime. We have no doubt the whole scene awakens in the minds of our juveniles the most vivid and happy anticipations of Santa Claus and merry Christmas so nearby upon us.

Proposals— Will be received at the post office Department until January 20th 1880 for contracts for carrying the mails as follows:

- 1st. From Lewisville, by Sandy Plains, Centre Hill, Pine Plains and Bull Swamp to Beaver Pond, twice a week.
2nd. From Orangeburg to Knotts Mill, once a week.
3rd. From Orangeburg, by McGainsville and Fidderville to Vance Ferry three times a week. We are informed by our Postmaster that there has been an increase in the number of mail routes and facilities.

State Fair— We were highly gratified on our visit to the Fair last week and desire to express our obligations to the efficient Superintendent, Mr. Thos. W. Holloway for courtesies extended. We were struck with the neatness of the improvements on the grounds under his superintendence. The pens for the stock were neat and comfortable. The stock is said to be the finest ever exhibited. The field crops were large and full and the other departments were by no means behind. Orangeburg took the largest premium on Jute, which was awarded to H. Riggs Esq.

Among our old friends we were happy to meet Mr. Richard Jones, the popular City Clerk who seems to be in the finest health and spirits.

A Daring Robber— Entered the residence of Mrs. D. E. Glover on Tuesday night and committed considerable depredations on the ward robe of Dr. Muckenfuss, an inmate of the house, carrying off several pair of pants and some valuable jewelry belonging to him. He also rifled the pockets of Master Elliott Glover, robbing him of his loose change. The rogue deliberately carried the clothing into the parlor where he could leisurely examine papers and take what was valuable. The first intimation that was had of what was done, was the next morning when young Glover got up and could not find his clothes where he left them. We hope the clap may be caught and made an example of.

Agricultural Society— The Annual meeting of this Society took place at the Fair Building on Saturday. The Secretary and Treasurer, Mr. Kirk Robinson, presented his annual report, which gave a very encouraging account of the progress of the Society for the past year and of its present status. We note with pleasure the kindly notice taken of the County papers in this report, and assure the Society that the TIMES can always be counted on in advancing the interest of the agricultural community. After the reading of the report the Society went into an election for officers to serve for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows:

- President—Dr. W. F. Barton.
1st V. P.—Capt. J. L. Mooror.
2nd V. P.—Dr. S. C. Holman.
3rd V. P.—J. J. Sadey, Jr.
Sec'y and Treas.—Kirk Robinson.
Executive Committee—Jas. Stokes, W. P. Hadley, H. Riggs, L. R. Beckwith and Rev. E. Cooke.

The President gave the result of the experiments of Dr. Rayon with salt and dissolved bone, which together with experiments by other members, prove it to be an excellent manure.

Capt. E. J. Felder presented resolutions on the death of Hon. W. M. Cotton, a member of the Society, which we hope to publish in our next. Experiments with the Jute culture by Dr. J. C. Holman and H. Riggs indicate that the cost of production is too great for it to be profitable.

The merits of the Clement Attachment for ginning and spinning cotton were brought to the attention of the Society by the President, and, after favorable discussion, the following Committee was appointed to enquire into the practicability of its introduction into Orangeburg, and report at the next meeting:

- Dr. W. F. Barton, H. Riggs and W. P. Hadley.

Sunday School Pic-Nic— It was our pleasure on last Saturday through the courtesy of our friend Mr. B. Williamson, to be conveyed by one of the best traveling rigs in the county to Two Mile Swamp Church about 12 miles in the Fork, where we spent a most delightful day among the hospitable people of that community. The occasion was a Sunday School picnic, and at least seven hundred or a thousand people, including young and old, were assembled.

Two Mile Swamp Church is under the pastorate of Rev. A. P. Chapin and the Sunday School under the superintendence of Mr. Henry Rhodius. The school from what we can learn is one of the most flourishing in the county, numbering at this time 98 pupils in regular attendance.

The neighboring schools were invited to participate, and at 11 o'clock the long and interesting procession of children, decorated with their different colored badges, marched and counter-marched under the inspiring strains of the sweetest music, and then filed into the church to engage in the pleasant exercises which were appointed by the committee. The banner which floated at the head of the juvenile column was borne by the venerable Mr. Sandford, a founder of the church and a veteran in the christian cause, and had inscribed upon it the appropriate mottoes: "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not," and, "Feed my Lambs."

The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. J. S. Hayden, after which a number of the girls and boys belonging to the school recited pieces, doing credit to themselves and showing the interest of the teachers in their improvement. Short addresses were then delivered to the children by Revs. Graves, Hayden and Joiner, and the two Messrs. Smoak and myself, which we hope may be productive of good. Between the speeches the most delightful music was dispensed under the leadership of Mr. W. Fogle.

After the speaking the procession then moved out of the church to the tables which were loaded with everything the country could afford or the heart could wish. After dinner the most touching ceremony of all took place when the parting hand was given and the parting words were spoken by the pastor, which consigned the school to winter quarters until the Spring when all will meet again. Two much praise cannot be given to the teachers of this school for their zeal in the cause of christian education, among whom we cannot fail to mention the Rhodius and the Sandfords who manifest so much interest in this noble work. We spent a most pleasant day, meeting old friends and making new ones, and we shall long remember the courtesy and kind attention shown to us on this occasion by the generous hearted and hospitable people of the Fork.

Who has not been annoyed by a Cough in Church? It may come from the remotest corner in the rear, but its echo tickles the throat in front, creeps down the side and tones the ears, wringing a sympathetic explosion from every victim. But Coughs' Honey of Tar will cure coughs, colds and all diseases of the throat and lungs, bronchitis, hoarseness and sore throat. Price 50 cts. For sale by Dr. J. G. Wannamaker.

Did You ever Notice How terribly a beauty of the blonde type can disappoint one? At a little distance we only see the shining aureole of hair, and the intimation, with its deft touch, is quick to complete the picture with a complexion as velvety as the heart of a rose, and as pure as snow. But on close proximity, the picture loses its brightness if we discover traces of a disordered liver, which can be corrected by using Portaine, or Tabler's Vegetable Liver Powder. Price 50 cts. Sold by Dr. J. G. Wannamaker.
