

Who Killed Cock Robin? I says George Boliver. I killed Cock Robin. I paid the piper.

Tilden's Bar! Being exhausted, Griffin has put another in front of his store.

Merchants Had better keep their stores shut at night, and not leave all to the marauders.

Fire Crackers Ought not to be permitted to be fired on the streets. They may scare horses and do great damage.

The Postponement Of the meteoric display may probably be owing to the extraordinary display of the Democrat last week.

The Regular Meeting Of Eureka Chapter will be held Friday, Nov. 28th, 1879. R. A. degree to be conferred.

Fine Hounds— Dr. W. F. Barton had two young hounds of his own raising in town yesterday. They are fine fellows.

Brothers Of the Democrat, this thing commenced in your columns, and we shall work it out on your own line.

Illness— We are sorry to hear that Mr. W. H. Perryclear is very ill with pneumonia, but hope he will be out soon again.

Perhaps If it had not been for the "plain village school master," our friend down the street may never have been an aspiring country editor.

The Union Meeting Of the Baptist denomination takes place to day at the Four Holy Church and will continue through the Sabbath.

"The Ox Knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib, but" lo!—this immaculate!—knoweth not from whence he getteth his wages.

Thanksgiving Day Was appropriately observed at the Methodist Church, suitable discourses having been delivered by Rev. O. A. Darby and Rev. T. H. Legare.

Methodist Church— We are requested by Rev. O. A. Darby, to state that there will be no services at this Church on Sunday night as the congregation will participate in the union services here at the firemen in the Baptist Church at this time.

"Radical Allies"— We are ready at any time for an investigation on "Radical Allies" with the Orangeburg Democrat, and, if we don't come out the cleaner of the two, we will give our old hat, and a new one to boot. So take us up brothers—or shut up.

Saintly Massachusetts— B. F. Butler, being interviewed, says, there are 100,000 workmen excluded from voting in Massachusetts, by reason of the law engrafted there by the Republican party, that no man shall vote who can't read and write. Think of this colored men of South Carolina.

Sudden Death— We regret to learn that Miss Numa Coburn, daughter of Rev. Coburn, of Branchville, died suddenly at that place at 8 o'clock on last Sunday night of heart disease. We understand that the young lady was in full health up to hour of her death. Our deepest sympathies are with the afflicted family.

Our Young Friend, J. W. H. Dukes, Jr., went off on Monday to bring home a fair one with whom to share life's joys and sorrows, and returned home on Wednesday afternoon. We wish the pair much happiness—hoping that their sorrows may be few and their joys many. Thanks for the remembrance of the old teacher.

Accident— While Mr. James Whetstone and Mr. William Carson were engaged in splitting rails on Two Mile Swamp in the Fork, on Tuesday, the axe of Mr. Carson glanced and struck Mr. Whetstone's knee shivering the bone. Mr. J. S. Bolen was sent for and stopped the blood. Mr. Whetstone was hauled home, and we understand that the wound is a serious and painful one.

The Mortgage On the Times which seemed to give so much concern to our neighbor last week was satisfied on Saturday. We have a clear title now, not only, as we said before, for the campaign of 1880, but forever. Boliver now has no more claim upon this paper than Conking or Blaine. This settles the matter, and we hope hereafter to hear no more insinuations on this score. There is no longer any mortgage over the Times.

Religious Exercises, Appropriate to the occasion, will be held in the Baptist Church on Sunday night, the Anniversary of the Elliott Hook and Ladder Company falling on that day. Addresses will be delivered by Rev. T. W. Mellichamp and Rev. O. A. Darby. The two Fire Companies, in full uniform, with all their honorary members, the Board of Fire Masters, the Mayor and other officials will assemble at the Engine Hall at 6 1/2 o'clock to march in a body to the church. The exercises will commence at 7 1/2 o'clock. The public generally are invited to attend. COMMITTEE.

Attention, I. E. H. & L. Co. Attend the annual meeting of your Company on Monday, Dec. 1st, 1879, at 7 o'clock P. M. A full attendance desired as business of importance is to be submitted.

The Anniversary Festivities will take place on Thursday evening, Dec. 4th, 1879. The I. Y. A. F. E. Co., the E. I. S. Rifles, the honorary members of both Fire Companies and all invited guests of the I. E. H. & L. Co. will assemble at the Engine Hall at 7 o'clock P. M. Members of the E. I. S. Rifles that are not firemen will please wear their uniform. By order of the Foreman, R. F. PLYANT, Sec'y.

Strange— At the time that the editor of the Democrat was advised "to go on and run" the paper which Boliver claimed and supported "in the interest of the Democratic party," the prosecutions against Boliver were going on; the Tazpayer, a staunch Democratic paper under James S. Heyward, Esq., was in the field, pouring hot shot into the Radical camp, and upholding Solicitor Jervey; and Boliver was publicly boasting that he had enough money to break it up. And sure enough the Tazpayer was driven out of the field, and Boliver's heart's desire was attained.

Glass Houses— The Democrat very generously, and we suppose, with christian "charity," undertakes to lecture us on "short-comings," "Radical allies," &c.

We agree perfectly with our brothers, that people who live in glass houses ought not to throw stones, and it is for this reason that we are constrained now to say, that while the "plain village school master" is always ready to receive lectures from proper sources, and would go a long way to hear a good one, he thinks they would be more appropriate and effective, if they came from men who have never sipped Radical pap directly or indirectly, either from Boliver, or any other Radical.

Santa Claus— We are in receipt of information that a mysterious personage generally and favorably known as "Santa Claus," the Christmas man, has expressed his intention of visiting our town Christmas week, making his headquarters, during his sojourn in our midst, at the Christmas Festival to be held by our friends of the Presbyterian denomination over Mr. John F. Aiden's store. The Committee of Ladies in charge of the entertainment, appreciating his expected visit, are making the necessary preparations to make the occasion one of pleasure to all who will favor them with a visit to their festival. We will, from time to time, keep our friends informed of all particulars of interest in regard to this coming event.

Auctioneer— The card of Mr. T. C. Hubbell, offering his services to the people as an auctioneer, will be seen in another column. Mr. Hubbell is only taking up his old business which he practiced with great success in Charleston, and in which he has had abundant experience. He is, withal, a worthy and reliable gentleman, and we hope all persons having articles they wish disposed of will entrust them to his care. We know he will give entire satisfaction.

W. H. Glover— It is indeed with sorrow that we record the death of this promising young man on Monday morning. His funeral services were conducted on Tuesday afternoon in the Methodist Church, by Rev. O. A. Darby, where a large concourse of his friends assembled to pay the last tribute of respect to his memory.

He was a son of the late L. C. Glover, former Clerk of Court, and was a young man of more than ordinary promise and integrity. He was an active member of the Agricultural Society and probably one of its youngest members, but he exhibited a deep interest in its deliberations from his natural love of his vocation as a farmer. He was in lustrous and active, and, starting under adverse circumstances, by perseverance he soon became successful; and at the time of his death was just rebuilding a comfortable residence upon his father's homestead, but an All wise Providence has ordered otherwise, and he has been transferred, to another house—a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

DeMars Is constantly receiving Christmas dainties.

Fine Cigars Just received at Dr. Reeves' drug store. Go and try them.

Only 40 Cts. per pound— A very fine smoking tobacco at the above price just received at Dr. Wannamaker's and also at Dr. Duke's.

Mr. B. Frank Slater Has moved his stables in front to touch on the street which will be an improvement to his business. A car load of fine horses will arrive for him to-morrow. Call and examine them.

The Great Demand For Shriners' Indian Vermifuge is solely due to its intrinsic value. Thousands use it to-day in preference to any other, and say that it destroys and expels worms effectually.

No Advance. Notwithstanding the rise, all our goods are selling at old reduced prices, having purchased a large stock of dry goods before the advance. Call early at the Dry Goods Bazaar of Henry Kohn.

The Fact That Tammany has been the means of killing off Tilden as the next Presidential candidate, makes no difference with our friend Van Tassel, who is selling the purest whiskey, wines, &c., for less money than any other store in town. Don't fail to give him a call.

Attention! The Members of Zion Democratic Club are hereby requested to assemble at Zion Church on Thursday morning 4th of December next, at 11 o'clock, as business of importance will be brought to their notice. DONALD R. BARTON, President. L. J. IZLA, Sec'y. Nov. 20th 1879.

Notice to Druggists and Storekeepers— I guarantee Shriners' Indian vermifuge to destroy and expel worms from the human body, where they exist, if used according to the directions. You are authorized to sell it on the above conditions. David E. Foutz, proprietor, Baltimore, Md.

The Baltimore and Ohio R. R. Have carried westward within the past twelve months more than two hundred tons of Foutz's celebrated horse and cat's powders. If Baltimore was blessed with a few more laboratories as extensive as that of Foutz's the road could lay another track. For sale by Drs. Wannamaker and Dukes.

Here We Are Again Puffing Kortjohn! How can we do otherwise? Has he not made hundreds of our friends happy? Has he not shown a disposition to oblige the entire county? Where, oh where can such another man be found! And where can such a select assortment of general merchandise be found? Then again, where can one find so many bargains as at his auctions? Hundreds of persons go away from there rejoiced. "A thing of beauty is a joy forever," so says one of England's poets. Mr. Kortjohn's store is not precisely a "thing of beauty," but if he continues on as he is now doing it will most assuredly become a "joy forever," because at no other place in this land can such bargains be had.

You Might as well try to Pick A quarrel with a graven image, or do any other impossible thing as try to sell any other preparation for Piles, if Tabler's Buckeye Pile Ointment can be had. It is the only remedy for Piles that will cure obstinate cases. Price 50 cts. For sale by Dr. J. G. Wannamaker.

Hobble and Limp no More. But hang your crutches on the old oaken peg, and seize the first opportunity to be permanently cured. Rheumatism, Contracted Muscles, Stiff Joints, Frosted Feet, Headache, Pain in Breast, Side and Back will yield to that powerful remedy, known as Cousens' Lightning Liniment, which is good for man and beast. Price 50 cts. a bottle. For sale by Dr. J. G. Wannamaker.

The White Shuttle Sewing Machine— It has a double steel feed, or a feed on both sides of the needle, which enables the operator to carry the fabric through either side of the needle, as may be desired. This feature combined with the large space under the arm, is found in no other machine and is an advantage which should not be overlooked. No advance. Plain table $25; plain table with cover, lock and key $30; fancy cover, drop leaf, 2 drawers each end of table $35, and all extra attachments given with every machine. Sold only by Henry Kohn.

Mr. C. D. Kortjohn, Though doing business here in Orangeburg, is an original production and a very rare one at that. His career has been as singular as successful. His plans, means and methods are all his own. He has vim and energy enough for half a dozen ordinary men. Hence his eminent success as a merchant, and the enormous amount of goods he sells weekly. His auctions are attended always by large crowds, and hundreds of dollars worth are sold there for one third of what the cost would be elsewhere. Long may Kortjohn prosper, and long may the people show their good sense by patronizing his cheap store.

Wando Mining and Manufacturing Company, vs. Daniel Livingston, John Courtney and Andrew Jickout.

THE GENUINE DR. C. McLANE'S Celebrated American WORM SPECIFIC OR VERMIFUGE. SYMPTOMS OF WORMS. THE countenance is pale and leaden-colored, with occasional flushes, or a circumscribed spot on one or both cheeks; the eyes become dull; the pupils dilate; an azure semicircle runs along the lower eye-lid; the nose is irritated, swells, and sometimes bleeds; a swelling of the upper lip; occasional headache, with humming or throbbing of the ears; an unusual secretion of saliva; slimy or furred tongue; breath very foul, particularly in the morning; appetite variable, sometimes voracious, with a gnawing sensation of the stomach; at others, entirely gone; itching pains in the stomach; occasional nausea and vomiting; violent pains throughout the abdomen; bowels irregular, at times costive; stools slimy; not unfrequently tinged with blood; belly swollen and hard; urine turbid; respiration occasionally difficult, and accompanied by hicough; cough sometimes dry and convulsive; uneasy and disturbed sleep; with grinding of the teeth; temper variable, but generally irritable, &c.

Whenever the above symptoms are found to exist, DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE will certainly effect a cure. IT DOES NOT CONTAIN MERCURY in any form; it is an innocent preparation, not capable of doing the slightest injury to the most tender infant.

The genuine DR. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROOK, on the wrapper. DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS are not recommended as a remedy "for all the ills that flesh is heir to," but in affections of the liver, and in all Bilious Complaints, Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

AGUE AND FEVER. No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. As a simple purgative they are unequalled. BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. The genuine are never sugar coated. Each box has a red wax seal on the lid with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS. Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

AUCTIONEERING, T. C. HUBBELL WILL ATTEND TO THE SALES OF Real Estate, Personal Property, &c., Public or Private. Business entrusted to him will be promptly attended to. nov 28 1879.

I Will Sell at Auction The estate of W. M. HUNSON, lying on the sides of Amelia Street and running back to the Fair Grounds on the North side of Amelia, and 410 feet on the North side of Amelia. They will each be sold in separate parcels if it is wished. The terms are one-half cash, balance in a year, bond and mortgage from date, purchasers to pay for papers and recording. They will be treated for at private sale until sale day. W. M. HUNSON, Ex'r. nov 21

Master's Sales. In compliance with Decretal Orders made by the Court of Common Pleas for Orangeburg County, I will sell at Orangeburg Court House, on Monday, December 1st, 1879, within the legal hours, the Real Estate particularly described in each of the cases stated below: Mowrey & Co., vs. John J. Woodward and W. W. Oliver.

A tract of land containing six hundred acres, more or less, bounded by lands of Adam Holman, Nancy Holman, Russell H. Zimmerman, W. C. Whetstone, Anna L. Keitt and the late Olin M. Dantzer. Terms: Cash, and purchaser to pay for papers and recording.
