

OUR CLUB

Arrangement with the News and Courier is working charmingly. By it two paper, the Weekly News and the Times is obtained for the incredibly small sum of $2 50, and the subscriber gets as much reading as he can digest the whole week.

The Quarterly Conference

Of the Methodist Church will be held this evening at the parsonage.

Velocipedes

Are now all the go. The boys are running them all over the streets.

Rev. A. Coke Smith

Will preach at the Methodist Church on Sunday morning. Rev. Manning Brown being unwell.

The Mite Society

Of the Baptist Church will meet on Wednesday afternoon at Mrs. J. H. Livingston's.

The Committee

On the Presbyterian Fair will meet on next Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mr. T. C. Hubbell.

Critic

Promised us the result of his farming operations for the past year. Have you forgotten your promise brother?

For Alabama

Mr. F. M. Poeser and lady, and M. L. Bell Esq., of our County, left for this State on Wednesday. We regret to lose them as citizens, but wish them good luck in their new home.

Doing Right

The S. C. R. R. Company, which we have upbraided so often for the delay in paying for stock killed, has at last done its duty, and paid for these damages to private property.

The Masonic Fraternity

The Grand Lodge is now in session in Charleston. Gen. Izlar represents Orangeburg. The election for officers has resulted in the choice of A. T. Smythe, Grand Master, and Gen. Jas. F. Izlar Deputy Grand Master.

Dark Rings Around the Eyes

Indicate the existence of worms. Hasten to use Shiner's Indian Vermifuge to expel these miserable pests. It is a safe and reliable agent. Always use it according to the directions, and it will do its work well.

Painful Accident

Mr. Wilbur Poeser, of the Fork, had his hand and arm caught in a gin on Wednesday and severely mangled. Dr. Duker was called from our town and rendered the necessary medical attention.

Hymeneal

Friend Thompson has returned to Orangeburg with his fair bride from the old North State. We extend our heartfelt congratulations to the young couple, and wish them a smooth and prosperous passage across the sea of life.

Fatal Accident

While Mr. Alfred Paulling, who was living with Mr. Laws near Ft. Motte, was out duck shooting on Thursday before last, on taking his gun out of the boat, it fired off and killed him instantly, the entire load being discharged into his left breast.

J. Willie Stokes Esq.,

Of our County is now attending his first medical course at the Vanderbilt Medical College at Nashville Tennessee. Mr. Stokes is a young gentleman of considerable talent and promise, and we predict for him a career of honor and usefulness.

W. F. Robinson's

New advertisement came in too late for this issue, but will appear in our next. He sends his congratulations on the election of Courtenay, but hopes in the general rejoicing that the people will not forget to call at his store to buy their Christmas gifts.

The Egyptian Cement

Prepared by Mr. Kirk Robinson for mending crockery, glass, &c., is one of the best preparations of the kind we have tried. Thanks for a bottle which we are using in mending all our broken ware. We recommend it to all our readers.

Deer Hunting

A party of gentlemen from the town and County have just returned from an extensive deer hunt near Eataw Springs last week. Another festive party started out in the same direction on Monday. We wish them a pleasant time, many trophies and no mishaps.

A Chance

For the lawyers, doctors, preachers, editors and school masters is now offered. At the meeting of the Committee yesterday, it was decided to hat the beautiful dressing gown presented for the Presbyterian Fair, shall be voted for as a prize for the professional men.

Burnt Out

We regret to learn that Mr. Jack Salley, son of Dr. A. S. Salley, whose prosperity in Brenham, Texas, we noted some time back, was burnt out with a loss of some $2,000. It is a hard blow, but we are satisfied that friend Jack will rise Phoenix like from the ashes. He knows no such word as fail.

A Sermon

Was preached at the Methodist Church by the pastor Rev. O. A. Darby on last Sunday night which cannot fail to do good by its intrinsic merits and its broad hearted liberality of sentiment. It tends to lift the mind above minor differences, and rally all under the broad banner of christianity.

Thanks

To Gen. Johnson Hagood, who has kindly furnished us with the Reports of the Comptroller-General's Office to the General Assembly for the year 1879. Also to Hon. M. P. O'Connor who continues to favor us regularly with the Congressional Records.

These papers are very valuable and contain a vast amount of information.

Pilfering

A colored boy entered Matthews' barber shop on Tuesday and amused himself by appropriating to his own use what did not belong to him. He was afterwards captured with razors and other articles that could be identified on his person, and lodged in jail for an opportunity for reflection upon the truth that "the way of the transgressor is hard."

Resisting the Marshals

On Saturday night a party of colored men belonging to a turpentine farm, having "looked upon the wine when it is red within the cup" and sipped too freely of the inspiring fluid, worked themselves into a riot which demanded the attention of the Town Marshals who have in charge the keeping of the peace of the community. Four of the rioters resisted the authorities, and Marshal Albrecht was severely cut in the discharge of his official duties. The offending parties were, however, arrested, committed to jail and brought before the Mayor's Court on Monday, where each, after examination, was sentenced to $20 fine or 20 days in jail.

Resisting the officers of the law is a serious offence and ought to be severely punished in every case, in order that a wholesome dread of the consequences of such disorderly behavior may be felt.

The law must be maintained and respected at all hazards.

The Christmas Festival

In aid of the Presbyterian Church promises to be a very brilliant and interesting occasion. As will be seen by the advertisement published elsewhere it will commence on Monday night the 22d and continue through Wednesday and close at 10 o'clock the latter evening. Besides the magnificent trumpet, already described, to be voted for by the two companies, there will be many other objects of excitement and interest.

A very handsome chair will be voted for to be given to the pastor of the town who receives the highest vote. Other articles will also be voted for. A Santa Claus Express will be a feature for the children and young folks as well as the old folks. By this arrangement all packages or presents left at the Santa Claus office will be forwarded by him on the last night when he arrives.

This will be a good way for every body to make or send their Christmas presents this year.

If you have a present to make to a friend just deposit it here, properly directed, and pay the express charges 5 cents and it will be delivered to any address. We hear of many persons who intend to avail themselves of this opportunity of making their Christmas presents, and surprising their friends.

There will also be a Post Office for sending letters.

Dinner will be served every day between 1 and 3 o'clock for only 25 cents, which will afford a splendid opportunity for clerks and visitors to drop in and get a cheap and substantial meal. There will also be hot suppers every night.

Season tickets for adults, sold by Master Charles Glover at Mr. John Adden's store for 40 cents, and for children at 25 cents. Regular admission, paid at the door, for adults, 15 cents, children 10 cents.

An enjoyable holiday festival may be expected.

The trumpet can be seen at Dr. Wannamaker's store.

Death

We are pained to chronicle the death of Dr. J. H. Poeser on Sunday morning at his residence in this County.

Dr. Poeser was a man of more than ordinary intelligence, and possessed many traits of character which endeared him to those with whom he was acquainted.

His bright and active mind, and pleasing manners, and conversational powers rendered him attractive in any company in which he was thrown.

While a practicing physician he enjoyed the confidence of a large list of patrons. But his earthly career has ended, and we are reminded that we are one by one passing on to another country. Our sympathies are with the bereaved friends and relations.

We also learn that Mr. Mack, of Bull Swamp, after a lingering illness with dropsy, and his sister, Mrs. Hutto, of the Fork, after a short illness with pneumonia, died on the same day, the first part of this week.

As we are preparing for press we also bear of the sad and sudden death of Mr. Wm. Paul in our town, from heart disease. He had been from home for some time, and had just stopped here on Wednesday evening on his return to his family in good health and spirits, and on Thursday morning he died.

A Generous Donation

We have had the pleasure of seeing the splendid silver mounted fireman's trumpet presented by Messrs. Ramsey & Co. of Seneca Falls, New York, to the ladies in charge of the Presbyterian Christmas Festival to be voted for and presented to the fire company, either the Elliotts or the Young Americas, who receive, at the Festival, the largest number of votes.

We esteem this as a deed of christian generosity, and kind hearted and disinterested benevolence which will be remembered, and as an additional evidence that the heart of friendship beats in union in all parts of christianity, and that the hand of christian charity between the sections of the union is ready to be clasped over the bloody chasm of the past.

This friendly contest, we have no doubt, will be a prominent and exciting feature of the Festival, and we trust will realize a respectable amount for the worthy and christian object in view.

The company getting the trumpet will carry off a valuable trophy.

Elliots and Red Shirts aim for the prize.

The Fireman's Jubilee

On last Thursday night was a brilliant and interesting occasion. The turnout of citizens was larger than usual, and the supper reflected much credit on the Committee of arrangements. The programme was published in our last issue, but was somewhat changed in the carrying out. The tables extended from one end of the Hook and Ladder Hall to the other, and around the festive board were seated the Edisto Rifles, the Young Americas, the Elliotts, the Board of Fire Masters, a large number of citizens, and representatives of the Town Council, the Press and the Clergy. The large assemblage was welcomed in a few appropriate words of cheer from Foreman L. H. Wannamaker of the Elliotts. After all present had practically tested the viands set before them the toasts were removed and the flow of humor and sentiment commenced.

"THE DAY WE CELEBRATE,"

the first toast of evening, was set down on the programme to Foreman Wannamaker, who, having made the address of welcome called upon S. R. Mellichamp to respond. The latter, after alluding to the associations which cluster around the day, read a poem which he had prepared weaving in song and story the names of the Firemen of Orangeburg. He did not however venture to sing it.

"THE YOUNG AMERICAS," the next toast, was assigned to Foreman E. S. Hubbell, who called upon F. S. Schiffler, Esq., to respond for his Company. Mr. Schiffler, in whose keeping the interests of the Red Shirts never suffer, performed the task in his usual neat and appropriate style.

"OUR CITY FATHERS," the third toast was appropriately responded to by a letter from our honorable Mayor Moseley, whose absence from sickness was much regretted.

"OUR CITY," brought to his feet Mr. W. L. Glaze, who was called upon to take the place of Capt. John A. Hamilton, who was absent. He performed his unexpected task in a pleasing manner.

"OUR PATRON."

This toast was feelingly responded to in a letter from the beloved and venerable Patron of the Elliotts, Dr. T. A. Elliott which touched a chord of love and veneration in the hearts of all present. After the reading of this letter M. I. Browning Esq. was loudly called for who kept his audience enchained for at least a half an hour with an uninterrupted flow of wit, humor and eloquence.

"OUR INVITED GUEST." This toast was set down on the programme to Mr. Jas. S. Heyward, who was known to be on a visit to his old home, and it was hoped that he would have been out to mingle again in social union with his many friends in Orangeburg, who admire and love him for his sterling qualities, and sought this occasion of showing their appreciation. His absence was regretted, but Mr. B. P. Izlar was called upon and did full justice to the theme in a neat and pleasant speech.

"THE JUDICIARY," received full and ample justice at the hands of our respected fellow-citizen Gen. Jas. F. Izlar, who reviewed the exalted character of the Bench of Bar of our State, and amused his hearers with several anecdotes which fairly brought down the house.

"THE PRESS." This toast was well handled by H. G. Sheridan Esq. He spoke in glowing terms of the duty of a pure and free press, and practically illustrated its power in the land, when properly used, in correcting the evils of society, and moulding and elevating public opinion.

"THE EDISTO INFLEX." This toast was neatly and appropriately responded to by Lieut. F. S. Dibble, who nobly upheld the banner of this gallant young corps.

"WOMAN," the last, but the best toast of the evening, was responded to in beautiful, chaste and polished style by Rev. J. D. A. Brown. As he proceeded, he warmed up with his theme, and presented her as she is, God's last and best gift to man, without whom all is dreariness and desolation.

This was passed a pleasant evening in which all, after enjoying themselves, returned to their quiet homes, undoubtedly benefited by the friendly reunion and social contact of comrades. The whole occasion was enlivened by the excellent music, both vocal and instrumental, furnished Mr. Henry Kohn, and the members of the Glee Club.

Salt for Manure

Much attention has been devoted to salt as a manure, of late, and the experiments made with it have been very favorable. Our Agricultural Society has frequently discussed the matter, and every encouragement has been given for the increase of its application. Mr. J. C. Pike, who is ever alive to the necessities of the times, has, in view of the evident demand, laid in an abundant stock where our farmers can be supplied. There is certainly no cheaper manure.
