OUR CLUB Arrangement with the News and Courier is working charmingly. By it two papers, the Weekly News and the Times is obtained for the incredibly small sum of $2 50, and the subscriber gets as much reading as he can digest the whole week.

Court On Monday.

Thanks For a complimentary to the Grand Ball at Lewisville on Christmas Day. The names of the Committee were a guarantee of success.

The Grunt Boom Is kept alive by the great boomer booming around to show himself. He is now advertised for Charleston Augusta and elsewhere.

The Lawyers Will be pleased to notice that Dr. Tensdale will preach for their special benefit on Monday night. It will be at the opening of Court, and an appropriate time for good advice. Let all turn out.

A New Years Dinner Was enjoyed by a happy company at Baxter's, formerly Maroney's Hotel yesterday. We acknowledge a complimentary from friend Baxter, but regret that business prevented our attendance. Good luck and prosperity to this popular house.

Burned to Death A colored man, named Paul Hart-sell, living near Hollman's Bridge, in the Fork, went into a neighboring house last Friday to make up a fire for some little children, when he was taken with a fit, fell into the fire, and was burned to death.

Accident A little son of Mr. B. F. Thompson was thrown from a wagon by a horse taking fright on Wednesday, and had his arm dislocated. It was, however, set by Dr. Hydriek, and we are glad to hear that the little fellow is doing very well.

Aping Royalty In imitation of Bismarck and other crowned heads of the old world, the expectant third term sent a dispatch to the citizens of Augusta, who were preparing for him, over the solitary and significant signature—"Grant."

Fire About 1 o'clock on Christmas night, the kitchen of Mr. Josiah Brunson, near the railroad, was burnt down. Happening at such an hour, the alarm was not generally given, and very few knew anything of the matter until next morning.

The Exercises Of Mellichamp's school will be resumed on Monday. The pupils should be prompt in re-assembling. Time lost cannot be regained. Boys will be prepared at this school for any college they or their parents may select, and girls given a thorough course.

Row on Saturday On Saturday afternoon the colored people became disorderly on Russell street, and a number of them were arrested and taken to the jail. On the way there were some efforts at resistance, and a corresponding number of knock-downs. These disturbances are becoming too frequent.

A Faithful Steward It is a source of gratification, not only to his own denomination, but to the community at large, that Rev. O. A. Darby has been returned to Orangeburg by the Conference. His broad and liberal views, and his powers as a preacher, as well as his exemplary character as a citizen are highly appreciated.

Death We are pained to learn of the death of Miss Addie Vogt on Tuesday at the residence of her brother in law Mr. Samuel P. Wells in Lower St. Matthews. She was a young lady of remarkable intelligence and force of character, and combined with all a gentleness of spirit that caused her to be beloved in every circle in which she moved. The sad intelligence of her demise will be received with sorrow by her many friends. The knowledge of her christian life will however be their comforting solace.

We also regret to hear of the death at Lewisville on Wednesday of Mrs. W. B. Mack, an estimable christian lady. Our deepest sympathies are with the afflicted family.

Appreciated We received an invitation this week to attend the 21st birthday celebration of one of our old pupils, which we accepted and heartily appreciated. A happy company was assembled when we arrived as joyous as "marriage bells." We congratulate you friend Dan on your arrival at manhood and hope you will live to be a useful citizen in your day and generation.

Fatal Accident On Christmas day a son of Mr. Marshal Amaker, a bout 16 years old, went to the store of Mr. Jacob Cook, and leaned his gun against the door-steps. Picking it up on coming out it fired off and struck him in the head, fracturing the skull. The unfortunate young man lived until Saturday morning, when he died. Our sympathies are with the afflicted family.

A Suspicious Visit Mr. M. W. Ulmer, having occasion to go into his yard about 4 o'clock on Monday night, as he reached the second steps heard the clicking of a gun. On looking around, he saw a man with a gun in his hand behind a pillar of the house. Turning to go back into the house, the man gave a whoop and disappeared. The party is known, and steps will be taken for his arrest. Two others were also with him.

Mrs. Ann Jeteat On Long Branch, went on Christmas eve to her brother's, about one mile from her residence, to help him butcher, when her horse was broken into and robbed of $27 50, pair blankets and several articles of value. This is very heavy on this lady, who is a widow, and we hope the party will be apprehended. He is supposed to be a negro man from the Penitentiary. He had also robbed a house about 18 miles above Mrs. Jeteat's, and was followed down to her house.

Who W. A. G. is a Sober Boy? The Editors have got their new uniform, and it is a "thing of beauty." We are satisfied it will make the ugliest boy look handsome. If you want to be pretty, we say then join the Editors. Every fellow that puts on that uniform is bound to get a sweetheart. But we mean no joke about it; our boys are now well enough clad to appear in any company, and we expect, when the excursion days come again, to see them go abroad and do honor to our Bug.

Christmas Accident On Christmas morning two boys, Shelly Scoville and Clifford Oliver, about 12 years old, were playing, when a snuff pistol in the hands of the former, supposed to be unloaded, fired off accidentally, and the ball entered the knee of the latter, inflicting a rather painful wound. The boys are true and tried friends, and it was difficult to say after the accident which was the most hurt. Dr. M. G. Salley extracted the ball, and we are glad to see that his young patient is out on the street already doing well.

At Mischiefs About a month ago, while Mr. A. W. Tharin was absent from home, a rogue set fire to his corn house about bed time, and had it not been for the presence of mind and courageous action of his wife and sisters, who rushed out and put out the flame, the residence and other buildings may have been destroyed. An effort was also made to burn the residence, as a bundle of splinters, arranged and ready for igniting, found under the house, afterwards proved. The rogue is said to be known, and we hope he will be brought to justice.

Sunday School Exercises Took place on Friday night at the Baptist Church. Dr. Tensdale gave one of his substantial and excellent talks to the young on the occasion, spicing it with some admirable advice to parents on their duties. After Dr. Tensdale, Rev. T. W. Mellichamp, the pastor, also addressed the young ones. After the addresses the children were all made happy by being presented with appropriate presents. After these gifts were distributed Dr. Hydriek, on the part of the Sunday School and the friends who had contributed, presented Rev. Mellichamp, the pastor, a handsome overcoat, a pair of gloves and a pair of boots, as a testimonial of their affection. The latter, who was taken completely by surprise, responded in a few feeling remarks, acknowledging with gratitude his kind treatment, not only by his own, but by the community at large.

Branchville's Christmas A correspondent from this place writes: Christmas has been a jolly one down here in some respects. In others it has not been a Paradise. Parties upon top of parties have been given, and enjoyment after enjoyment has been had; loves after loves have been pledged and plighted; hearts after hearts have been won and lost; all are happy now!

The series of Christmas parties here were grand. The most recherche was the one given at Mrs. B's on the night of the 29th. Following close on its heels was the quiet and splendid entertainment of Mr. M., in which old and young engaged. "All went merry as a marriage Bell!"

A Card of Thanks The Ladies of the Presbyterian Church who had in charge the Fair, which took place on the 22nd, 23rd and 24th of December, beg leave to return their sincere thanks to the following:

First. To the Ladies of other denominations who so kindly assisted them in conducting this entertainment. Second. To the Press, whose columns have been open to their free use. Third. To the Merchants, Factors and friends, in Charleston, Baltimore, Boston, New York and Seneca Falls, who so nobly and generously answered their appeal. Fourth. To one and all, at home or abroad, who in any way whatever, contributed to the cause, thereby making it a grand success.

Dr. Tensdale's Appointments. Dr. Tensdale gives one of his inimitable Bible Readings every morning at 11 o'clock. Those who do not hear those readings have no idea what they are losing. To-night (Friday) the Doctor will preach on "Sinners' Excuses for not Serving God."

To-morrow night he will preach on "The Power of Grieving the Holy Spirit Forever Away." On Sunday morning he will preach on "God's Exposition with Sinners."

On Sunday night he will preach on "The General Judgment." And on Monday night he will deliver a "Forensic Discourse" for the benefit of the gentlemen of the legal profession.

His discourse on Saturday night last, on "Recognition in Heaven," was fitted with a pathos and power which kept his audience enchained, and that on Sunday night, from the text, "If the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?" was a masterpiece of pulpit eloquence. The discourses on Tuesday and Wednesday nights to young ladies and young men were filled with wholesome advice, pointedly given, and it is to be regretted that a larger number were not out to enjoy them.

The Fair Last Week. We promised last week to give the result of this charming Festival, given for the erection of a Presbyterian parsonage, which, our readers will be pleased to know, turned out a complete success. As indicated in our previous issues, as well as in the card of thanks published to day by the ladies, the patronage and assistance of friends, both at home and abroad, have been most generous, and will ever be appreciated by the community. The zeal with which the ladies in charge of the various tables, and the young ladies and gentlemen with the voting boxes performed their duties and pressed their claims, was highly commendable. Nothing, however, could be more interesting and laudable than the ardor and Christian love in which all the denominations worked together for the end in view.

The net proceeds aggregated the handsome sum of $866. The voting for the silver trumpet was exciting and spirited to the end, when the enthusiasm erupted out in hearty cheers. One hundred and seven dollars were realized from this source alone. The Elliotts were the winners, receiving 619 votes. The Young America received 465 votes. The chair for the ministers brought $101, and was gained by Rev. J. E. Kiser, of the Lutheran Church. The hat for the most popular young lady was won by Miss Fannie Norris, and brought $19. The dressing-gown for the professional men fell to Dr. M. G. Salley, and brought $14. The cake voted for the married ladies was received by Mrs. J. C. Pike, and reached $7.40. Miss Fannie Norris was the fortunate winner of the ring in a cake. A beautiful silver pitcher, presented by a Charleston merchant, was purchased by a prominent Orangeburg merchant, and again presented to the Busy Bee Society of the Presbyterian Church. Not only was the Fair a financial success, but as a social gathering it cannot fail of good fruit. To the President of the Committee of ladies, whose executive ability has contributed so much to the success of the occasion, and every member of the Committee who worked so untiringly, too much praise cannot be given. The whole affair proves what has long been seen—that there is no such thing as fail with the ladies of Orangeburg when enlisted in a noble cause.

The Christmas Tree At the Lutheran Church on Christmas night was a very interesting affair. Not only the children, but the grown people were out in full force. In spite of the inclement weather, the house was full to overflowing. The tree was beautifully illuminated, and loaded with presents. The exercises of the evening were varied with appropriate songs and addresses. Rev. Kiser, the pastor, in opening the exercises, took occasion to thank the friends who had responded so generously to the calls upon them for the Christmas tree for the children, and referred to Mr. George Boliver as the chief of the beggars. This allusion brought out the latter, who very happily turned the point, and entertained the children with a few words of encouragement. Rev. W. H. Lawrence, who is peculiarly interesting to children, made one of his characteristic addresses, contributing not only entertainment, but instruction to his hearers. Among the presents on the Christmas tree was a handsome beaver for Rev. Kiser, which was presented to him by Dr. Cooke, in his usual neat and appropriate style. The juveniles went home happy and delighted with their presents, and about 1 o'clock the pleasant exercises were concluded with singing.

The Exercises Of Miss Annie A. Albergoti's school will be resumed on Monday January 5th, 1880.

Henry Kohn Extends a happy New Year to all his patrons and hopes they will come in to examine his splendid stock. He knows how to make them happy.

Horses and Mules! Happy new year to the farmer! B. Frank Slater received yesterday 40 head of fine horses and mules. Call and see them.

A Happy New Year Greetings one and all from the "California store." Mr. Sorntrie has on hand a splendid supply of boots, shoes, groceries, and he wants the people to know it.

Mr. Van Tassel Wishes all of his customers a happy New Year, and says he has a finer stock of groceries than he has ever had. Give him a call and he happy.

A Happy New Year To all, is the good word that comes from Mr. A. H. Lewin. If you want to feel happy indeed, go round to his shop and get a shave. There is nothing like a clear conscience and a clean shave.

Marion Jackson Respectfully returns his thanks to his many customers for their past patronage, and hopes to merit the same in the future by keeping constantly on hand fresh meats of every kind, at his old stand, in rear of the Postoffice, during the present year.

If Any Southern Man. Or indeed, any human being, had said five years ago that the South would in 1879 fall down and worship Grant, he would have been put down as a veritable ass. Truth is stranger than fiction, is one of Byron's most sparkling lines. And the truth to-day is that Grant is —, but why talk of him. Have we not got our own Kortjohn. Is he not all he seems? Does he not keep the best and cheapest stock in the country? Is he not willing and anxious to help his friends? "Yes!" You all have. Then that being the case, we enjoy you one and all to spend your money at his counters. There you will get justice; there you will be made happy; there you will see things no mortal man ever dreamed of before—call ye, call you, there in Kortjohn's.

THE GENUINE DR. C. McLANE'S Celebrated American WORM SPECIFIC OR VERMIFUGE.

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS.

THE countenance is pale and leaden-colored, with occasional flushes, or a circumscribed spot on one or both cheeks; the eyes become dull; the pupils dilate; an azure semicircle runs along the lower eye-lid; the nose is irritated, swells, and sometimes bleeds; a swelling of the upper lip; occasional headache, with humming or throbbing of the ears; an unusual secretion of saliva; slimy or furred tongue; breath very foul, particularly in the morning; appetite variable, sometimes voracious, with a gnawing sensation of the stomach, at others, entirely gone; fleeting pains in the stomach; occasional nausea and vomiting; violent pains throughout the abdomen; bowels irregular, at times costive; stools slimy; not unfrequently tinged with blood; belly swollen and hard; urine turbid; respiration occasionally difficult, and accompanied by hicough; cough sometimes dry and convulsive; uneasy and disturbed sleep, with grinding of the teeth; temper variable, but generally irritable, &c.

Whenever the above symptoms are found to exist, DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE will certainly effect a cure.

IT DOES NOT CONTAIN MERCURY in any form; it is an innocent preparation, not capable of doing the slightest injury to the most tender infant.

The genuine DR. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrapper.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS are not recommended as a remedy "for all the ills that flesh is heir to," but in affections of the liver, and in all bilious complaints, Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

AGUE AND FEVER. No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking Quinine.

As a simple purgative they are unequalled. BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. The genuine are never sugar coated. Each box has a red wax seal on the lid with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS. Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. Insist upon having the genuine Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.
