OUR CLUB Arrangement with the News and Courier is working charmingly. By it two paper, the Weekly News and the Times is obtained for the incredibly small sum of $2 50, and the subscriber gets as much reading as he can digest the whole week.

Next week will be a lively one. Improvements are continually going on in Orangeburg.

A fine rain was enjoyed on Wednesday night.

Improvements are going on on the sidewalk on Russell street.

Flour, sugar, coffee, bacon and lard are low down at Kortjohn's.

Gen. Izlar is having a neat fence put up around his new quarters, and making general improvements.

We are told by the physicians that Orangeburg is notoriously healthy at the present season.

The fishing season is setting in. Boys are busy preparing their nets, and making ready for shad and other fish.

See notice of Mr. Jackson of Galaden in this issue. We hope he may obtain the desired information in reference to the lad he advertises for.

The colored people have a public school or College building in Orangeburg, and the whites have none but private ones.

We were shown, by Mr. Jourdain, a couple of tea roses, from Dr. Elliott's garden, in full bloom, a most unusual phenomenon for this season of the year.

20 barrels early rose potatoes just in and for sale low to close consignment at Kortjohn's.

The Department of Agriculture has ordered 5000 copies of the article on "Cotton Mills," in the News and Courier to be printed for general distribution.

Our exchanges show that Dr. Teasdale is holding meetings in other parts of the State with great success, drawing large crowds and making many conversions.

Col. D. R. Barton informs us that he has a letter from the Department of Agriculture promising to supply him with seeds of all kinds for free distribution. Persons interested will take note.

St. Valentine's day was livelier than usual. It is said that a larger number of the gentle missives circulated in our town than has been known for years. We saw some, however, that were not calculated to awaken the gentle emotions.

A large lot of consigned goods to be sold at auction on Saturday at 11 o'clock, at Kortjohn's.

Mother, remember that no medicine cures, it simply assists nature in relieving itself of an unnatural condition of the system. Worms disarrange—Shriner's Indian Fernitige kills and drives them from the system, thus removing the cause of disease.

We regret to learn that Mr. Capers Bunch, living on Mr. Hayne Wannamaker's place, above Orangeburg, died very suddenly on Sunday. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn his loss, to whom we extend our warmest sympathies.

The meeting of the Stockholders of the Agricultural Association failed on last Saturday for the lack of a quorum. It being an Annual Meeting it was a matter of surprise that so few were out. Probably if the meetings were fully advertised such accidents would not happen.

We neglected to return our thanks, in our last issue, for an invitation to attend the Commencement of the Medical College of South Carolina at the Academy of Music in Charleston, on the 4th of March. Mr. B. B. Lee, of our town, will be among the graduates.

Mr. T. C. Hubbell has added the Louisville Courier Journal to his agency for the News and Courier weekly club. He can be found in rear of D. Lewis' store by persons wishing to subscribe. The Courier Journal is well worth the money, and the News and Courier needs no recommendation.

The Municipal election of Branchville which occurred a few days ago passed off quietly with the following result:

Intendant—E T R Smoak. Wardens—F E Fairry, W C Bruce, A W Metts and H Riley.

It is always well to have a plenty of light on the subject. All in search of this much needed article have only to go to Sorentruce's and be supplied. He has lamps and illuminators of every description. Read his advertisement and give him a call.

Dry goods, shoes and notions sold at half price, to make room for spring goods, at Kortjohn's.

Mr. Jourdain is hard at work beautifying the flower gardens of our town, and doing other work at which he is an adept. He has been improving the surrounding's of Judge Glover's, Dr. Elliott's, Col. Browning's, and other places. He never fails to give satisfaction in his line.

We are glad to note that Mr. Daniel O'Gain, who was so severely injured a few weeks back by a fall from his wagon, and who has been at Baxter's Hotel ever since the accident, has so far improved as to be able to be removed to his own home, where he is now resting as well as can be expected.

Mr. Fisher, of Columbia, has commenced his duties in the State Agricultural College as teacher in place of Mr. Julian A. Sallee, who was only temporarily employed, there being a rule that no more than one teacher should hail from the same place, and Orangeburg already having full representation in the faculty.

Mr. H. S. Renneker has just received a large lot of very fine hams which he is offering at 10 cents per pound. Also shoulders and white bacon at reasonable prices. We would also recommend all lovers of a good smoke, to try Mr. H's segars, 3 for a dime. All other goods in proportion. Give him a call.

Buy for cash and save money. This can only be done at Kortjohn's, the only cheap cash house in Orangeburg.

The high price of printing paper is getting to be a serious thing with newspaper publishers. Many of the papers are increasing their subscription price. The publishers of New Orleans, have held a meeting and memorialized their representatives in Congress to present a bill to lower the duties on printing paper and the materials and chemicals used in its preparation.

We are pained to learn, through a correspondent from Branchville, that Mr. B. B. McEhaneey fell dead on last Wednesday while walking along the road with his son. He was a consistent member of the Methodist Church for many years, and was highly esteemed in his community. He had nearly ended his three score years and ten, and left a large family to mourn his loss. Our warmest sympathies are with the bereaved.

The Committee on the Masquerade Ball under the patronage of the Edisto Rifles which will take place at the Fair Building on Thursday night, will accept our thanks for a complimentary invitation. From all we can learn this will be a brilliant occasion, and visitors from various quarters may be expected to mingle in the mazes of the evening. The names of the Committee of Arrangements give the most flattering assurance of success.

We regret to learn that a son of Mr. Lawrence Connor, our worthy County Commissioner, was seriously injured on Saturday by the accidental discharge of his gun. From what we can learn, he was in the act of returning the gun to its rack when the table on which he was standing tilted and the unfortunate accident followed. It is said that he was severely shot in the arm and head. We hope that the injuries, although severe, may not prove serious.

The new Orangeburg Band, under the tutorage of Mr. B. B. Owens, is progressing finely. The young men are in earnest in the matter, and in less than two months we will have a band that will be able to dispense acceptable music. Such a thing will be an acquisition to our town, and the efforts of those who have formed the club should receive the encouragement of the public.

They will entertain many an evening which would otherwise pass wearily away.

When you want a fine horse and buggy, step around to Mr. B. Frank Slater's stables and we guarantee you will be accommodated, as his prices are so low down that no one can go away displeased either with the price of the horse or buggy, of which Mr. S. will receive a car load of horses on Monday next, and a supply of buggies in a few days. Don't forget the time and place.

We call attention to the card of Messrs. Joyner & Mack announcing a dissolution of partnership, and the continuation of the mercantile business by Mr. D. F. Joyner. The firm has always enjoyed a reputation for enterprise and accommodation, and we feel satisfied that the standard will be fully sustained by Mr. Joyner. We commend his store to all who want cheap, fresh and reliable goods.

A new Methodist Church is about to be erected in the town of Branchville. The Committee having the matter in charge are J B Berry, W H Reddish, A F H Stokes, B D Myers, E T R Smoak, Jas D L Board and F A Bruce. The names of the gentlemen comprising the Committee furnish the best guarantee of success. We are glad at all times to note improvements, but especially in a religious line, and we wish our friends God speed in their efforts to extend the Master's kingdom.

We are informed that at the regular annual meeting of the State Agricultural Club, held Feb. 14, 1880, a complete reorganization was effected. New officers from the President down, having been elected unanimously by acclamation. The club has been languishing for some time, but as new members are almost daily added to its ranks, it will soon rival the most flourishing societies of our little burg—especially as the spring and summer months advance. No inducements are used to get persons to join.

The Twenty-Sixth Anniversary of the Independent Young America Fire Engine Company falling on Saturday, the Company will meet on that evening at their hall to elect officers to serve for the ensuing year. The Anniversary parade will take place on Tuesday afternoon (24th inst.) at half past three o'clock, and at night at half past seven o'clock the Company and their invited guests will sit down to their annual supper, at Hook and Ladder Company's Hall, at which time, we have no doubt, full honor will be paid this occasion of calling the "Reds" together in annual assembly.

Mr. W. G. Sanford is carrying for the Golden Vaccine and the celebrated French Illuminating Fluid. The former is a preparation used for the purpose of lessening the labor of washing by requiring less rubbing. It is highly recommended and deserves a trial. The Illuminating Fluid we saw tested and were pleased with the result. Gas is generated in the lamp by chemicals that can be bought in any of the drug stores, and by the application of a high-heat match to the burner six beautiful gas jets are thrown out giving a far more brilliant light than kerosene. It is said to be perfectly safe and non-explosive, and cheaper than kerosene or any other light now used. Mr. Sanford is well known in our County, and we invite attention to the articles for which he is canvassing.

The first coming we ever had in our line was administered to us on Saturday, and it may seem queer for us to announce that the sensation was exceedingly agreeable. For the relief of the patrons of the TIMES, we will state that it was not an editorial coming, but a scholastic one.

It came from the pupils of our school, in the form of a massive silver-headed ebony walking stick presented to us as a birthday offering. It is a curable and handsome present and is highly appreciated. Such tokens of esteem and affection are calculated to cheer the teacher in his toilsome duties. To succeed in his responsible vocation he must not only control the mind, but win the heart of those whom he teaches. With out this, his task will be a hard one, and probably without fruit.

We cherish the gift as an evidence of good feeling between teacher and pupil, and as time rolls on and brings its changes, it will recall to us the happiest associations and awaken the most pleasing emotions.

Married on the 15th Feb., 1880, by Rev. N. N. Burton, at the residence of Mr. Ariel Able, the bride's father, Mr. Charlie Phillips to Miss Alice Able. All of Orangeburg County.

Married on the 12th of Feb., 1880, at the residence of Capt. W B Mack, by Rev. A W Lamar, Mr. John R Mack to Miss Mary E Darby. All of St. Matthews, Orangeburg County, S. C.

Buggies! buggies!! Go to Mr. Fullman on the Court House Square and buy one of his splendid cheap buggies.

We acknowledge an invitation to attend the meeting of the Agricultural Society at the Fair Building to be held on the 12th inst. regret exceedingly that necessary absence from town will prevent our attendance, as we expect it to be a very important meeting, and would like to enjoy the deliberations.

The Committee on the Cotton Factory are expected to make a report, which is anxiously looked for as something practical is anticipated. There has been enough talk about the Cotton Factory, and it is high time to look for action if the people of Orangeburg mean progress. There could be nothing more encouraging than the exhibit made in the News and Courier upon this subject.

The idea that factories don't pay is exploded. It is a piece of old by-gone. The exhibit which is the result of a practical investigation into the workings of all the factories in South Carolina shows that they pay from 18 to 25 per cent on the investment. What more do we want? Besides this look at the advantage of such improvements in building up a community. It is only in this way that the South will regain its former position and commence to prosper. Nothing is to be dreaded at the North more than Southern enterprise in this line. Let us commence the work of material prosperity, and push it on with vigor.

A small lot of garden seed sent on by the Government for free distribution at Kortjohn's.

We take pleasure in announcing that, in consequence of the increase in the patronage of our school, we have secured the services of Mr. Julian A. Sallee as Assistant, who has commenced his duties this week. Mr. Sallee was a student of the old "Orangeburg Academy" under Messrs. Heyward & Schleichamp where he was prepared for College, and entered Union College Schenectady, N. Y., receiving there a thorough course. He was recently called in to fill a temporary appointment in the State Agricultural College which he did with entire satisfaction. In making this announcement we take occasion to reiterate our thanks to the community for the liberal patronage which our school has received, 65 pupils being now enrolled, with an average attendance of 60. The best return that we can make will be strict attention to duty, and a determination to give full value received. Miss F. L. Mellichamp who has hitherto been Assistant, as well as Music Teacher, is now confined entirely to the musical department in consequence of the increase in that branch.

Have you tried "Town Talk Baking Powder"? If not go to C. D. Kortjohn's and get some. He is the Agent for it. Guaranteed to be better than Sea Food and at half the price.

The following resolution was unanimously passed by the Orange Light Industry at its last meeting:

Resolved, That the thanks of this company are due and are hereby tendered to the E. E. H. & L. Company for the free use of their Hall for our two meetings, and that this resolution be published in the Democrat and Times.

A. B. WALKER, Sec'y
