FRIDAY, JULY 9, 1880.

THE MARLBORO INDEPENDENTS.

The organization of an independent movement in Marlboro is exciting much comment and criticism at this time, as well it might, when it is considered that there is no surer way of disintegrating the Democratic party.

We know nothing of the causes or grievances which have led to this movement. We hear much of rings and cliques. The Broad street clique and the State House clique is a by word every where. Now we say most emphatically, if such cliques exist, they are a burning shame and disgrace, and ought to be crushed out forever by the bold and free hand of patriotism. But, gentlemen of Marlboro, we say, with equal emphasis, that this purification should never be attempted out side of the Democratic party. If you do, Samson-like, you pull down the walls of the temple upon all alike, and destroy the whole fabric of good government. We do not say that you are unjust in your complaints, and we recognize that respectable citizens have engaged in your movement, but we say that you are wrong in the method of your remedy. Fight cliques and crush our rings of course, but don't go outside of the party to do it.

The remedy for all of these ills, which are grievous and hard to be borne we admit, seems to our mind to be clear and legitimate. It consists in bold and free agitation and argument within our own ranks, before the decision is made by Convention or Primary, but when the verdict of the party is rendered by a majority of its members, it becomes every true Democrat to acquiesce freely and gracefully.

This spirit was magnificently manifested in the late State Convention, and by none more brilliantly than the gallant Sheppard of Edgefield. It is better and wiser to bear the ills complained of, than to rush into others of greater magnitude. We all have equal chances of moulding the opinions of our fellow-men, and if we fail to bring them to our way of thinking, or to open their eyes to the truth, it is better to submit than to become desperate.

Gen. Gary was the first man in South Carolina who nominated Gen. Hancock for President.

A STRONG POINT.

The great strength of Hancock's nomination consists in the fact that he cannot be represented as the candidate of the South.

Bayard was the choice of the South, and was pressed forward by almost all the Southern journals.

The only clue that the Northern Radicals can have is, that Hampton got up in the Convention, and pledged for him the vote of the Solid South, but this individual blunder will not weigh much. It would have been best, in our estimation, if not a Southern man had said a word in his behalf, but still the fact is undeniable that Bayard was the Southern candidate from first to last, and it will be difficult, in spite of Hampton's speech, to put this coloring on the Democratic nominee.

AN UGLY DEVELOPMENT.

It has just come to light that a large discrepancy exists in the amount of the bills of the Bank of the State filed in the office of Col. J. C. Coit, who was appointed a special Commissioner in the matter. Mr. James Laughlin, Col. Coit's clerk, certified to each package as it was counted, and the strong suspicion and accusation is, that he has tampered with the packages. The defalcation is considerable, and Laughlin has been committed to jail in the failure to give bond for $50,000. Laughlin asserts his innocence. The matter also involves the charge of unpardonable carelessness, if nothing more, against Col. Coit, which is unfortunate, as he has been unanimously nominated on the Democratic ticket for Comptroller General.

The case will however be judicially investigated, and the guilt be placed where it properly belongs.

A VICTIM OF THE CODE.

On Tuesday at 2 o'clock a duel was fought at DuBose's Bridge in Darlington County between Col. E. B. C. Cash of Chesterfield and Col. Wm. M. Shannon of Camden, in which the latter was instantly killed. Col. Shannon fired first, the ball striking the ground near Col. Cash's feet. Col. Cash then fired, the ball passing through Col. Shannon's heart, and death was instantaneous.

The affair has cast a gloom over the whole community. The difficulty grew out of a case in Court against Mrs. Cash, in which Col. Shannon was one of the lawyers, and it will be remembered by the public that several duels had previously been attempted out of this unfortunate case. To use the words of the "News and Courier," "a sweeter gentleman than Col. Shannon, one more polished and refined, was not to be found in South Carolina." He was a consistent member of the Episcopal Church, but was doubtless driven to the duel by the severity of the attacks of his adversary.

A CYCLONE IN COLUMBIA.

On Monday, about 1 o'clock, this city was visited by a dreadful rain, wind and hail storm, the effect of which were manifested principally at the penitentiary. The entire third story of machinery had attached to this institution was swept away, there being at the same time 233 convicts, comprising men women and children in the second story of the building. Panic stricken, a great number of these leaped from the windows to the ground, resulting in various injuries, some having their legs broken, and others injured in various ways.

The storm came up so suddenly that no warning was given. Other damages of less extent are reported in other parts of the city. During the storm at the penitentiary, there was ample opportunity for the prisoners to escape, but no attempt was made. As soon as the fury subsided, Col. Lipscomb arranged the guards to prevent escape.

COL. SHANNON'S FUNERAL.

The body of Col. Shannon reached his home on Monday evening. The town of Camden is said to be in mourning, and deep sympathy is felt for the family of the deceased in their sore affliction. All express confidence in the rectitude of Col. Shannon's motives. An immense concourse of people followed the body to its last resting place, and the feeling manifested testified to the love and admiration which was held for the deceased in his own home.

ANOTHER DUEL.

It is rumored that the Shannon-Cash quarrel is not yet ended but that the sons of the principals will continue the matter. Young Shannon is said to be pledged to avenge his father's death.

DEATH OF DR. BLAND.

Dr. Bland, of Edgefield, who was shot by A. A. Clisby, Esq., at the municipal election in that town in last April, died from the effects of the wound on Monday, in the full triumph of a gospel faith. He was buried in the Baptist Church yard, his funeral discourse being preached by Rev. W. T. Hundley, in the presence of a large concourse of people than had ever assembled on a previous occasion of the kind in the village. The ceremony was very imposing and affecting.

THE DIGNITY OF THE LAW.

The jury of inquest over the body of Col. Wm. M. Shannon rendered the verdict "that he came to his death from a pistol shot wound, said pistol being fired by E. B. C. Cash." In accordance with this verdict Coroner Goodale immediately issued a warrant for the arrest of Col. Cash which has been transmitted to the Sheriff of Chesterfield County for execution. Such is the verdict of public opinion that it is believed in this case that the dignity of the law will be strictly maintained. Let this be done with unfaltering hand and the public interest will be protected.

Mr. Editor: Please announce Morgan L. Gleaton as a Candidate for a member of the General Assembly, subject to the action of the Democratic Convention. MANY VOTERS.

For Probate Judge.

Editor Orangeburg Times: We take pleasure in presenting the name of B. P. IZLAR, Esq., for the office of Judge of Probate, subject to the action of the Democratic nominating Convention. He was a faithful Confederate Soldier, is now an honorable citizen who has never held or sought office, and is in every way qualified by education and business experience for the discharge of the duties of the office for which he is named by MANY DEMOCRATS.

For Clerk of Court.

Editor Orangeburg Times: Mr. Jos. F. ROBINSON is hereby announced, by his many friends as a Candidate for the office of Clerk of Court, and his claims are submitted to the County Democratic Convention, by the result of which he will abide. Should he receive at the hands of the people this office, it will be but what they intended to confer in 1878, and again in 1879. Let him not be deprived of what in 1876 was taken from him by force, and in 1876 by corruption and fraud. We believe him to be the choice of the people and know him to be honest, zealous and efficient. DEMOCRATS.

For Sheriff.

Editor Orangeburg Times: I hereby announce myself a Candidate for the office of Sheriff, and will submit to the results of the County Democratic Convention. Very Respectfully, J. W. MOSELEY. May 19th 1880.

The Working People's Candidate.

Editor Orangeburg Times: Mr. Harpin Riggs is announced as a fit Candidate for the office of Clerk of the Court for Orangeburg County. He has been tried in office and has never found wanting in his duty. THE WORKING PEOPLE.

For Judge of Probate.

Editor Orangeburg Times: Please announce Mr. Charles B. Glover as a candidate for the above office. It is useless to say anything in his favor, as his ability is already displayed by the manner in which he has discharged the duties of that position during his term of service. We further urge our claim in his behalf on the ground, that the incumbent of that office ought to have considerable experience in the practice of law, as the office is not ministerial, but is beyond a doubt, judicial. Any persons, desiring to satisfy themselves on this point, can do so by referring to the Constitution of our State, "Article 4, Judicial Department, Sec. 20." Also Revised Statutes, pages 572 to 578, "Title 4, Probate Court," and to the "Rules of Court." In nominating Mr. Glover through your columns, we pledge him and ourselves, to abide by the decision of the Democratic County nominating Convention. MANY VOTERS.
