Look out for our school notice next week.

There are several communications at came too late this week to receive our attention as yet.

Mr. Ed. Slater left for the West on 10th instant. Look out for fine horses in five days.

S. Rowe and J. R. Fulmer are mentioned in to-day's issue for County Commissioners.

E. W. M. Mackey, of Charleston, is seriously ill, and is supposed to be in a permanent decline.

Mr. Wm. Sain left this week for the West to purchase horses and mules for the fall trade.

We are loading up our double barrel gun for that fellow who threw a rock at us down St. Paul street the other day.

Mr. P. G. Cannon has just received a lot of fine breech-loading double-barreled guns which he is offering low down. Call and examine them.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Frank Slater, and Mr. J. C. Pike and family have come from the mountains all looking benefited by the highland air.

The meeting of the teachers of the State has opened very successfully at Spartanburg. Seventy teachers are present now, and more are expected.

Administrator Shiner's Indian Vermilion according to the disease. In the morning is the next to take it.

The Young Americans were out on parade on Tuesday afternoon in fine shape. Uncle Joe was tried again, and, as usual, came fully up to all expectation.

We are glad to see that Mr. James Dukes, who has been very ill for some time, is out on our streets again. We hope he will soon be entirely restored.

Rev. W. A. Therrell and family left Orangeburg on Tuesday for his new field at Jonesboro, Tennessee. We hope that his future work will be a blessing, both to himself and to those he is called to serve.

A good remedy for derangement of the stomach is blackberry brandy. A No. 1 article can be had at the store of Mr. J. Dee Andrews, at the remarkably low price of $2 per gallon.

Dr. A. C. Dukes has now on hand a large assortment of fine pocket knives and razors, and will receive new additions in a few days. Besides a large supply of all other goods in his line for sale at bottom prices.

Thanks to Mr. Julius Edwards and Mr. J. Z. Way for a fine watermelon each presented to the Times since the last issue. It is a notable fact that those who remember the printers and editors always prosper.

We were handed by Mr. Wm. Willcock, on Monday, the largest and most deliciously flavored peach that we have ever seen. It is called the "Chinese Plum," and measured ten inches in circumference. It was superior both in quantity and quality.

Consignees per S. C. R. R. up to August 5th, 1880:

J. C. Holman, J. H. Dukes, J. E. Govan, J. H. Fordham, W. W. Murey, B. R. Adams, T. H. Dantzler, W. H. Dantzler, W. S. Barron, W. A. Johnson, James Rayland, J. H. Livingston.

Mr. A. Jourdain who never forgets the Times, stepped into our office on Saturday, and left on one table a number of most delicious and mellow apples of the "Summer Queen" variety. Mr. Jourdain makes a specialty of fruit culture, and always succeeds.

We have heard it expressed that one of the most touching occasions of the campaign year was the meeting of Sam'l J. Tilden and F. W. Dawson of the "News and Courier," when the National Democratic Convention paid their respects to the "sage" in New York.

The sensation now is that a bear has made its appearance in the neighborhood of our town. Its track has been clearly discerned several times by reliable gentlemen crossing the road between Col. Filders and Kirk Robinson's. This presents an excellent opportunity for some of the glass ball shootists.

An immense Democratic demonstration took place in Marlboro last week, at which Gen. Butler made the speech of the day. He gave splendid advice to the Independents, telling them to publish their grievances in the newspapers, and submit them to the people. This is right, and if we have a free press, we are safe.

Mr. C. Mayhew, of Columbia, informs us that on the first of September, when he opens his marble yard in Orangeburg, he will have a fine stock of American and Italian work, and will be prepared to furnish any kinds of iron fence for graves or enclosures, and any kind of stone work, cut or polished.

Our young friend, Mr. Valle Stanton is on a brief visit to his kindred in our Burg. He is stationed at Way Cross, Georgia, as telegraph operator.

Mr. Stanton is a young man of marked ability, strict integrity, untiring energy and attractive deportment, for which traits he deserves and will achieve success.

We are in receipt of a letter from our young friend, M. L. Bell, who recently went out from Orangeburg to live in Alabama, in which he says that the Democrats in that State are jubilant over the prospect, while the Republicans and Greenbackers are correspondingly crestfallen. His own County, he says, is solid for Hancock.

We are requested by Mr. A. J. Evans, President of the Willow Democratic Club, to give notice that there will be a meeting of the club at Gregory's store on Saturday the 21st at 10 o'clock, for the purpose of electing delegates to the County Nominating Convention, and to transact any other business that might come before the club.

We are pained to learn of the death near Remondville of Mrs. Berry, widow of the late Capt. Andrew Berry, in the 60th year of her age. Mrs. Berry was a most excellent lady and a consistent member of the Methodist church. She was much beloved in the community for her Christian virtues, and has now gone to inherit the reward reserved for the faithful.

The Republican Executive Committee met in Orangeburg on Wednesday night, brought on by theification of a couple of dusky damsels. It appears that one of the couple went up during the meeting to throw her mite in the mission box, for which reasonable and Christian duty the other hunged at her. At the conclusion of the meeting the offended called upon the gentle offender for an explanation, but received instead a knock down. Recovering herself however she assailed her antagonist with a key she had in her hand, inflicting a rather severe wound upon her face. The affair was then quelled without further disaster, but we now hear of incidents having passed for assault and battery.

The excursion around the harbor of Charleston, tendered by Capt. Revel of the splendid brig Wade Hampton to the Congressional and Judicial Convention, was highly appreciated. All the points of interest were visited and the sea breeze fully enjoyed. The speech making commenced, Gen. Estes spoke for Orangeburg, and did full justice to the occasion.

Pursuant to a call of the County Democratic Executive Committee, there will be a meeting of Congregational Democratic Club at the Congregational Church Company's Parade Ground on Saturday, August 11th, 1880, at 1 o'clock p.m., for the purpose of electing three delegates to the County Convention, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly be brought before the Club. A full attendance is earnestly solicited.

E. L. Arthur, Secretary.

A reunion of the students and ex-students of Newberry College will be held at Trinity Church, Orangeburg County, S. C., on Friday, August 10th, exercises commencing at 10 a.m.

The friends of the College and education in general may expect fine and interesting literary treats on the occasion, as a large number of enthusiastic, eloquent promoters of the cause of colleges and education are expected to be present. Prof. G. W. Holland, President of the College, Prof. S. S. Rabin, Rev. Wm. Stonemire, of Orangeburg, Mr. J. Q. Wertz, of the Theological Seminary, are among those who are expected to entertain the populace.

In the afternoon of the same day, the audience will be entertained by the Trinity Sunday School, and talks and speeches before the same. We feel sure that the vital interests of the college, education and Sunday School will enlist the attention and sympathy, and insure the presence and co-operation of the friends and citizens in general. The students or ex-students who attend from a distance will be met at either St. Matthews or Fort Motte, if they will drop a card to any one of the Alumni of Orangeburg County, or the Secretary, Rev. Wm. Stonemire, stating the time and place of arrival.

The prospects of the "Farmer," the new paper in Orangeburg to which we alluded in our last issue, will appear in our columns next week. The new paper is to be an agricultural monthly, and will be edited by Capt. A. G. Salley, assisted by a corps of able contributors. Capt. Salley has had some experience in the field of journalism, having edited a paper at our Court House before the war, and we hope to welcome him back into our fold. The prospectus is long and thorough, and will speak for itself.

We regret to learn of the sudden death on Wednesday evening of Mrs. E. A. Webster, the wife of our assistant Post Master. She was known to our community where her modest and intelligent demeanor created a favorable impression. Death is, at all times a sad subject to contemplate, but it is especially so when one dies away from kindred, and from the spot that is cherished as home. But we trust that the subject of this brief notice has gone to inherit a home that is far better than any that earth can give, and is now happy with the redeemed.

The firm that studies the interest of their customers, never looks for buyers, and their house is always attended by large crowds. Such is the case at Dr. E. Smeek & Co. These gentlemen are now making preparations to build large and comfortable quarters for man and beast in rear of their store, which will afford great and safe accommodations for the farmer when compelled, to spend a night in our town. No charges will be made, and every one is invited to take up quarters in this yard. Besides these improvements, you will find every thing you want in the store, and men to wait upon you who can not be excelled for square and honest dealing. Read and remember.

A disgraceful row occurred at the colored Methodist Church on Wednesday night, brought on by theification of a couple of dusky damsels. It appears that one of the couple went up during the meeting to throw her mite in the mission box, for which reasonable and Christian duty the other hunged at her. At the conclusion of the meeting the offended called upon the gentle offender for an explanation, but received instead a knock down.

Recovering herself however she assailed her antagonist with a key she had in her hand, inflicting a rather severe wound upon her face. The affair was then quelled without further disaster, but we now hear of incidents having passed for assault and battery.

Notice Zion Club—You are hereby notified that a Convention of the Democratic party of Orangeburg County is called to meet at Orangeburg on the fourth Wednesday in August 1880, at 10 o'clock A.M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for County officers, members of the Legislature, and for such other business as may be brought before it. In order that one Club may be properly represented in the above named Convention, every member is earnestly requested to meet at Zion Church on the third Wednesday, which will be the 18th day of August 1880 at 10 o'clock A.M.

Your Fellow Citizen,
D. A. R. Barron,
President Z. D. C.

The glass ball and pigeon shooting matches on Monday afternoon were quite an exciting affair. A large crowd of spectators assembled on the green to witness the contest, and much interest was manifested. Mr. W. G. Albergotti deserves credit for the zeal and energy he displayed in his efforts to make the affair a success. At about 4 o'clock the shooting commenced. In the pigeon match twelve contestants were entered. On the first round of five shots each, P. G. Cannon, D. J. Salley, J. A. Salley and D. E. Smeek tied, killing each 4 pigeons.

On the second trial P. G. Cannon came out winner, making a clear score and carrying off the first prize. On the first round T. A. Jeffords and N. H. Bull made ties of 3 each, and upon trying over, N. H. Bull was the winner, carrying off the second prize.

The summer is now upon us and the danger of fever and bowel affections abounding one is almost a certainty, but by keeping in the home a bottle of the celebrated German Chamomile Tonic and taking it according to directions, you will avoid all the above diseases. For sale only by Dr. J. G. Wannamaker.

On the same round T. D. Wolfe and M. G. Salley made ties of 2 each, and upon a second trial M. G. Salley came out first, and carried off the third prize.

In the glass ball match there were eleven entries, and some capital shooting was done.

In this match Mr. J. A. Salley who was shooting for Mr. N. A. Bull made the best score and won for Mr. Bull the elegant silver goblet that was put up as a prize.

The shooting on this occasion was said to be the best done yet by our club.

They are improving rapidly, and if they continue at this rate, we will risk Orangeburg against any team in the State.

The Camp-meeting at Cattle Creek Camp-ground, which was held last week, was one of the largest, and we have every reason to believe, one of the most profitable in its influence in the community that we have ever had the pleasure of attending. The army of ministers consisting of Revs. Manning Brown, J. L. Shindler, Jas. Bissell, J. Tilden, O. A. Dealey, Thos. Raynor, T. B. Boyd, J. R. Price, J. D. Massengale, J. d. Crum, T. O. A. Connor, speaks forth of the multitude of the spiritual feast held before the people. The word was dispensed by faithful hands, and we trust that it will not fail in its mission. The pulpit is the chosen instrument of the Divine hand to lead wandering humanity from the groveling positions of time to the pure atmosphere of a higher and nobler existence, and it is a source of gratification to recognize that its influence is extending, and its power is being felt over the land. We need no better evidence of this advance of religious sentiment in our midst than in the marked increase of attendance on public meetings of this character, and the better attention bestowed upon the beautifying of the houses of Zion in every direction.

The accordance upon this Camp-meeting on last Sunday was larger than usual. Rev. Manning Brown preached the 11 o'clock sermon to an immense audience, producing a manifest effect upon his attentive hearers. In the afternoon several addresses were made to the Sunday School children by Prof. J. W. Stokes, Mr. H. G. Sheridan and Rev. O. A. Dealey. Our Burg was well represented by young and old, who went out for the double purpose of receiving religious instruction, and enjoying the benefits of the country air, some ceasing to the dwellers in towns and villages.

We notice that great improvements have been made in the tents and auditoriums throughout through the faithful efforts of E. T. P. Simonds, A. F. H. Dukes and others to whom these improvements were entrusted. The hospitality and courtesy given to the tent holders, to all strangers in attendance upon this meeting was marked and truly appreciated, and will not only add to the good name of this excellent community, but augment the popularity of this old and familiar stand.

On Sunday afternoon and Monday morning the road enhanced its passing to the verdant homes, early bag with them the pleasant scenes of the cominging of friends, and we trust the seeds of good instruction which will be sown will find in their future lives.

The friends of Marion Mrs. C. A. Webster are respectfully invited to attend the funeral services of the latter, at one hour earlier each day (Friday, 6th, Saturday, 7th, 8th, 9th) at 10 a.m.
