

LOCAL

Fish are getting plentiful.

There are talks of a spelling bee in our town.

The communication of "Agricola" will appear next week.

The few delightful Spring days are cheering.

Neat signboards, with the names of the streets, have been put up by the direction of Council.

The Columbia Register and the Camden Journal were both in full and deep mourning for the lamented Gary.

Rev. J. F. Kiser will be absent from town on Sunday in attendance upon the installation services at Mt. Lebanon.

We are under obligations to Hon. Wm. Windham, of Minnesota, for a copy of his excellent speech on the "ship canal."

A colored minstrel troupe performed in our town two nights this week affording great amusement to those who were out.

The Rev. Lark O'Neal, who is well known in Orangeburg, where he lived many years ago, died at his home in Edgely in the first part of the month.

Hamilton & Norris have just received a fresh lot of oranges, crimps, egg jumbles, rifle nuts, coconut drops and wafers, spiced drops, vanilla wafers, fancy crackers, and canned goods of all kinds.

The glass ball men were out practicing on Tuesday afternoon, and the club was divided into three teams of five men each. The best shooting of the afternoon was done by N. H. Bull, D. J. Salley, P. G. Cannon, and D. E. Smoak.

Mr. S. B. Cannaday, while on a short visit to our county last week, from his home in Cokesbury, was stricken down with an attack of paralysis, from which he is now suffering at Jamison's. We hope he will soon be out again.

Easter picnics were all the go on Saturday. We hear of lively times at Four Holes' Bridge, John L. Moore's, Culler's, Easterlin's and elsewhere throughout the County. All who attended any of these gatherings report a most enjoyable day.

Mr. Pike's two handsome cottages on Glover Street are completed and Mr. J. G. Vose has occupied one of them. Mr. Scovill is just about starting two on his lot on the same street, and thus the work of improvement goes on.

The sermon of Rev. L. F. Gurry at the Methodist Church on Sunday night is highly commended both as to its substance and delivery. Our Episcopal friends have in his a pastor in whom they should feel a just pride.

A couple of German Immigrants of a new kind have just arrived in Columbia. They bring menna and board on the farm for this year with the intention of buying and settling next year. Let us have two thousand of this kind in Orangeburg County.

Mr. J. M. Garsh, of Atlanta, Ga., a phenologist of many year's study and experience, visited our town this week. He examined the heads of many of our citizens and delineated their characters with remarkable accuracy. He literally made us "see ourselves as others see us."

Mr. Lawrence R. Marshall will visit our county and town this week in the interest of the Hon. Jefferson Davis' book, entitled the "Rise and Fall of the Confederacy," for which he is agent for this county. It will be a magnificent and reliable work, and everybody ought to buy one.

Read the advertisement of D. E. Smoak & Co. in to-day's issue. His large and fresh stock of groceries, clothing and farmer's supplies of every description can't be excelled. Goods never linger on his shelves because they always suit purchasers in price and quantity.

The installation of Rev. J. F. Probst will take place at Mt. Lebanon Church next Sunday. A number of visiting ministers will be present. The occasion will be an interesting one, and, we have, no doubt, a large crowd will be out. Orangeburg, we are satisfied, will be represented.

The parsonage for the Presiding Elder of the Methodist Church, has been finished in workmanlike style by Capt. Bell, the contractor, and turned over to the Trustees. It is a neat and comfortable building and an ornament to the portion of the town in which it is located.

We return thanks for a handsomely gotten up card of invitation to the celebration of the Cowpens Celebration to be held at Spartanburg on May 11th. It will be a grand occasion, and will be participated in by representatives from all parts of the Union. Mayor Courtney is Chairman of the Committee.

Secrets ought not to be told in a corn field as they have too many ears. I want all the ears in the world to hear that my ice cream saloon has been re-opened for the season. Call and refresh yourself at Jos. Eros'.

The cow roameath at large over our streets. She reclineeth under the green trees around the Court House, and there quietly cheweth her cud! She sitteth on the sidewalk in the way of the stranger, and moveth not as he approaches, because she feareth not the ordinance on the statute book of our city.

We learn that Mr. Frank Risher will open the 1st of May in the store formerly occupied by Mr. Wm. M. Sain, with a stock of the finest liquors and groceries ever brought to this market. Mr. R. is a young man of rare business talents, and deserves to receive a share of public patronage. We wish him every success.

We understand that all the land owners on the lane by Pitthau's store are willing to give two or three feet on each side for widening. It is only necessary for Council to take steps and clinch the arrangement by an ordinance. In connection with the proposed street to the railroad, it will be a great improvement, and, we have no doubt, will be a channel for considerable country travel.

Col. J. H. Vance, one of the proprietors of the McGimsey's Magic Soap is in town where he will sell the rights. It is a home enterprise. The material for making the soap costs only 1 1/2 cents a pound. It cleanses more thoroughly than any soap we have ever used, and leaves the most soft and delightful feeling about the flesh, or the articles washed. For cheapness and thoroughness it can't be excelled.

A new street is about to be laid out, under the supervision and with the sanction of Town Council, parallel to Amelia Street, and extending from the Railroad, between Mr. Robinson's and the Depot, to connect with the lane running by John A. Zeigler's and the Methodist Church from Russell Street, opposite Mr. Wilcock's store. This will open up a number of beautiful sites for building lots which will be of great advantage to our town.

Easter was appropriately observed in all of our Churches in town that were open on Sunday. They were all dressed with flowers and evergreens, but the decorations in the Episcopal Church were particularly neat and attractive, and the more so from the fact that they were arranged entirely by little girls of the congregation. All the services of the day were particularly shaped with reference to the celebration of the season of Easter.

The sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. T. R. Malone at St. Matthews on Sunday, will cast a gloom over her large circle of friends in Orangeburg where she has been so long and favorably known. Suffering from ill health for a number of years, she bore all with that christian meekness and resignation for which she has now ascended to receive her crown of reward. She leaves a large and growing family who have our heart-felt sympathy in their sad and heavy bereavement.

There is good reason to believe that the villain who assaulted Miss Cunningham near our town, has been caged at last. A negro has been arrested in Richmond, by the name of Joe Jones upon the strong supposition that he is the man. Mr. Cunningham, the father of the young lady, went up and finding the man to correspond with the description of the fellow who committed the deed got out a warrant and caused him to be incarcerated to await further identification.

Jones has been guilty of similar conduct before, and at the time of the assault upon Miss Cunningham he was absent from home, and supposed to be in Charleston. He has marks of recent scratches on his face and neck.

On Sunday afternoon very interesting exercises were held at the colored Presbyterian Church in our town under the pastorate of Rev. W. L. Johnson in the interest of the Sunday School of the Church. The little church, which was dedicated in the morning, an able sermon being preached on the occasion by Rev. Jas. Grove, of Charleston, was filled to overflowing at both the morning and afternoon services. In the afternoon addresses were delivered by Revs. Jas. Grov and W. L. Cole, who had come from abroad to conduct the dedication services, and by Rev. T. H. Lagare and Messrs. W. B. Thompson and S. R. Mellichamp of our town. The music of the occasion conducted by the excellent wife of the pastor, and participated in by the whole congregation, was inspiring to all.

Portions of scripture were recited by a number of the young folks, showing the training of the teachers. These people are certainly engaged in a most excellent work, and should receive the countenance, support and encouragement of all good citizens, who desire the elevation of society, which can only be accomplished by the moral, religious and intellectual culture of the youth of all classes.

Mr. Jas. Shepard, a hard working farmer, of Fort Motte, lost everything he had, a few days ago, by the burning of his house while he and his wife were hard at work in the field. They saved nothing but the clothes they were wearing in the field. Their neighbors are very kind to them in their misfortune which appeals to the sympathy of the whole county, and calls for a substantial response. Let us help our unfortunate brother on life's rugged pathway.

After the late cold spell, believing that the fruit were all destroyed, we were constrained to bid farewell in a local to peach pies and apple dumpings. We are, however, glad to be informed that the fruit outlook is not near as bad as we feared. Mr. J. A. Fanning, our County Commissioner, brought into our office last Saturday, several peach limbs crowded with the young fruit, in perfect condition and assures us that he has a hundred trees in his orchard unscathed by the cold and frost. We have since heard similar good reports from other parts of the county.

We learn with pleasure that occasionally some of the visitors to the Sunny South, are so fortunate as to linger for a season in our pleasant "Burg." Two gentlemen and their wives from New England, are for the present making their home with us. Rev. Edwin Ray of Boston is a local preacher of distinction in the M. E. Church, and a member of the publishing Association of Zion Herald, a paper long published and well known in New England. Mr. Ray has the credit of being a good financier, and has established an enviable reputation in a long and successful connection with the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company.

Austin Gove Esq., has long been a successful Coal merchant of East Boston. This makes the tenth winter he has spent in the South, and thinks he owes the preservation of his life to the sanitary influences of our Southern climate.

These gentlemen express themselves as highly pleased with Orangeburg, as one of the pleasantest of Southern towns, and wonder that its enterprising citizens do not more highly appreciate their own advantages, and make more extensive arrangements to have this locality favorably known as a desirable resort for those seeking health, pleasure, and agreeable winter weather. These gentlemen and their wives are at present making their home at Dr. Webster's.

Mr. Blaine, the Premier of the Garfield administration, is breaking down in health from over work.

National Surgical Institute. One of the Surgeons of this old and notable Institute will visit Branchville, April 27th, at Carrols Hotel, and Orangeburg, April 28th and 29th, stopping at the Fairy House.

The object of this visit is to give the afflicted an opportunity for examination at or near their homes, thus saving hopeless cases the expense of a trip to Atlanta. A careful examination will be made, and patients can learn if their cases are curable or can be benefited, and whether it will be necessary for them to visit the Institute. In such cases as can be cured, or treatment begun at home, arrangements can be made with our visiting Surgeon, and treatment commenced at once.

Cases of Deformities and Chronic Diseases will be examined, such as Club Feet, Diseases of the Hip, Spine and Joints, Paralysis, Piles, Fistula, Catarrh, Female and Private Diseases, and Diseases of the Eye, Ear, etc.

Come early, as the visit is limited to the time stated. For circulars and full particulars, address National Surgical Institute, Atlanta, Ga.

Dr. J. G. Wannamaker has just received the finest stock of cigars, cigarettes, smoking and chewing tobaccos ever offered in Orangeburg. The Dr. never keeps anything but the best of goods in his line and we take pleasure in calling attention to these goods. Go down and try them.

If you want an extra fine cigar at a reasonable price, call in at Dr. J. G. Wannamaker's Drug Store and we guarantee you will be accommodated.

TRIBUTE OF RESP. CT.

ELLOREE, April 9th 1881.

At a meeting of Ellore Brass Band on the above date, the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, In the Providence of God, one of our band has been called from time into eternity; therefore be it,

Resolved, That in the death of brother J. B. Cattino, we have lost a skillful performer, a very highly esteemed friend and companion, a good neighbor and a virtuous and valued citizen.

Resolved, That a page in our minute book be inscribed to his memory.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his bereaved widow as an expression of our deep sympathy in her affliction.

Resolved, That these resolutions be sent to the Orangeburg Times, and the Orangeburg Democrat for publication.

Done by order of the Band, J. W. BARR, President, J. L. BOOKHART, Secretary.

Notice to School Trustees: SCHOOL COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE, ORANGEBURG, S. C., April 11th 1881.

The appointment of the school funds for the present fiscal year being now made known, I would respectfully suggest to the school Trustees of such school Districts of the County whose schools have stopped from the withdrawal of the children to go into whose credit, there may be a surplus of funds, to use the same by reopening their schools during the months of July and August when the crops are laid by, and the parents are more able and willing to spare their children. This suggestion applies to schools that have stopped have not yet opened, and not to those that are now in successful operation.

By virtue of Sundry Executions to me directed, I will sell for cash, at Orangeburg Court House on Monday the 2nd day of May 1881, during the usual hours of sale, the following property to wit: All that certain tract of land situate in said County, containing 161 acres, more or less, bounded on the North by J.
