Reconciliation.

If thou wert lying cold and still and white In death's embraces, O mine enemy! I think that if I came and looked on thee I should forgive; that something in the sight Of thy still face would conquer me, by right

Of death's sad impotence, and I should see How pitiful a thing it is to be At feud with aught that's mortal.

So to-night, My soul, unfurling her white flag of peace, Forestalling that dread hour when we may meet— The dead face and the living—fain would cry, Across the years, "Oh, let our warfare cease!"

Life is so short, and hatred is not sweet; Let there be peace between us ere we die!" —Caroline A. Mason.

Ripans Tablets: one gives relief. Ethel—What did you mean by telling Jesse I was the biggest flat you ever knew? George—I meant that er—you were the most level-headed girl in town.

We all have a task to do before we die, and often the simplest and most obscure people do theirs best.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria. Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use.

These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. For sale at Wilcox's drug store.

Housekeeper—How's this? You promised to saw some wood if I gave you a lurch.

Tramp—I recall no such promise, madam. The idea! I told you I'd give you a lurch if you'd saw some wood, and you agreed.

Pardon me, madam. Your exact words were: "I'll give you a lurch if you saw that wood over there by the gate."

Exactly. That's just what I said. Well, madam, I saw that wood over there by the gate, as I came in.

Ripans Tablets relieve scrofula. Never lay out all you can afford: for he who lays out everything he can afford often lays out more than he can afford.

There is only one debt—the debt of nature—which cannot be repudiated. We should, therefore, be always ready to pay it.

Men and women who are actively employed in lightening the sorrows of others do not complain that life is without interest.

Ripans Tablets: best liver tonic. The sweetest music is not in the oratorio, but in the human voice when it speaks in tones of tenderness, truth, or courage.

The truest test of civilization is not the census, nor the size of cities, nor the crops; no, but the kind of man the country turns out.

Not only is it difficult to say the right thing in the right place, but far more difficult still to leave unsaid the wrong thing at the tempting moment.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria. Silence never shows itself to so great an advantage as when it is made reply to calumny and defamation, provided that we've no just occasion for them.

No man is born into this world whose work is not born with him; there is always work, and tools to work withal, for those who will; and blessed are the heavy hands of toil.

For work to be the promoter of long and valuable life, we must know how to perform it and within what limits. Like everything else, we must use without abusing it.

Ripans Tablets relieve nausea. A Million Friends. A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds—if you have never used this Great Medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of throat, chest and lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at Wilcox's (Druggist). Large bottles 50c. and $1.00.

"Look here, barber, you nearly cut my throat," roared Hicks. "I admit I told you I wanted a close shave, but I didn't mean a narrow escape by a good deal."

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Living only for what we can see, proves that we are short-sighted.

When Doctors Fail

To cure you it is not an absolute indication that you are incurable. The demands of nature cannot be fully supplied by artificial means; it requires something to control and influence the magnetic conditions of the system—something to furnish the vitality and strength necessary to resist disease. The ELECTROPOISE is an instrument for the cure of disease without medicine—it aids nature, in nature's own way, by supplying you with the pure, wholesome OXYGEN from which you obtain health, strength and long life. If you are troubled with a disease of any character, whether of long or short duration, investigate the successes of the ELECTROPOISE in similar cases before despairing.

A 40-page book giving full description of treatment and containing records of some of the remarkable cures effected, mailed FREE on application. Address: Atlantic Electropoise Co., 222 King Street, CHARLESTON, S. C.
