Mr. Bright Odum, who lived at the Factory, died on Monday.

Mrs. S. Marco, left on Monday morning for North Carolina.

Dr. Ed. Wright, of Wilson, N. C., is visiting relatives in town.

Mr. J. H. Mason, of Winston, N. C., is visiting relatives in town.

Some of the young folks had a picnic at the Spring on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brown returned from their bridal trip, on Saturday.

Miss Eric Welling, who has been visiting relatives in Darlington, left on Saturday for her home in Charleston.

Mr. J. R. Ives, who has been spending sometime with friends in town, returned to his home in Florence on Monday.

Rev. J. B. Wilson, the Presiding Elder, preached a very forcible sermon at the Methodist Church on Sunday night.

There was no service at the Presbyterian Church on Sunday. The pastor was attending the regular session of the Pee Dee Presbytery.

The family of Dr. W. J. Alexander returned from Saluda Thursday night. They are now living in their new residence on Orange street.

"What's gaining or losing trust in God," Job 13; 16—Daniel 3; 12 to 27 inclusive. Subject for discussion at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday Oct. 9th at 3.30 p. m.

To-night (Wednesday) is the regular business meeting of the Y. M. C. A. All the members are requested to attend as business of importance is to be transacted.

The third Friday being a holiday the State Superintendent of Education has postponed the examination for Teachers of the public schools to the third Saturday in October.

The editor apologizes to the readers of THE HERALD for the editorial and local matter that appears this week, as he has been too unwell to give the paper the necessary attention.

We call attention to the advertisement of Nixon and Harlow, barbers, who have made a very enviable reputation for skillful work in their line. They are not only experts but are eminently worthy of patronage on account of being good citizens.

The members of the Inglis Light Artillery, Charles's Battery, will have a reunion at McCown's Mill on October 14th. All the members earnestly requested to be present. Come and bring one days ration. Bro. McCown will look after the fish.

Mr. S. A. Nettles, of the Manning Times, has bought the Sumter advance and will continue it at the same place. This will necessitate a change in the politics of the Advance as Mr. Nettles is a Tillmanite and Mr. Darr was a very strong Anti during the campaign.

There was a very heavy cloud, accompanied with some wind, and a good deal of rain, passed over the town on Tuesday afternoon. It frightened some of the nervous folks who see an imaginary tornado in every cloud. There was not enough wind to do any damage.

On our first page we publish Cleveland's letter of acceptance, and commend it to the special attention of the Third Party sympathizers. It is a clear presentation of the doctrines of the Democratic Party, and there is no part of it that the Republicans can show to be false.

We deem it unnecessary to make any apologies for devoting so much of our space to a subject of such vital interests as the present disregard for him a life that exists in our State. It is a serious matter and nothing but a persistent determination on the part of all citizens to see that the law is enforced will put a stop to it.

THE HERALD extends a cordial welcome to the Rev. Edward McCready, who has moved here for the purpose of taking charge of the Episcopal church, and congratulates the members of this church on securing the services of a minister who has made such a favorable impression on the congregation.

We are sorry to announce the death of Mr. James B. Baker, of McCallville, which event occurred on Tuesday at the residence of his mother-in-law, Mr. J. O. A. Moore.

He had been in bad health for some time and had visited Darlington with the hope of improving, but his disease, consumption, could not be arrested, and after much suffering he passed quietly away. His funeral takes place to-day at Grove Hill at 9 a. m.

The park around the court house has been planted and all animals, whether they have two or four feet, are warned to keep off the grass. It is not planted for grazing purposes, but to adorn the square, and all herbivorous animals must govern themselves accordingly. The ordinance will be rigidly enforced against dogs. Birds will be allowed to forage for worms.

We are very glad to be able to say that Dr. W. J. Garner has concluded to remain in Darlington and practice his profession here. This will be very gratifying news to his friends, and to all who wish to avail themselves of his services. He will rebuild his store and put up a much handsomer building than the old one, and which be an ornament to the Square. The lower story will be occupied by Dr. Boyd as a drug store and the second story will be fitted up for Dr. Garner's special use, and will be devoted to this purpose alone.

There was a very successful entertainment, at the residence of Dr. Parrott on Wednesday night, at which the following persons were in attendance: Misses Lillie Ives, Florence; Janie Bass, Swift Creek; Lou McIver, Annie Hearon, May McCall, Mamie Kelley, Jennie Bast, Maggie Burch, Alma McCown.

Messrs. J. R. Ives, Florence; L. G. McCall, J. E. Skinner, O. O. Riddle, Lawton Dargan, Eugene Vaughn, W. W. Gardner, B. F. Smoot, G. E. McLendon, W. F. Harrell, Herbert Pegues, Leon Dove, Willie Montgomery, Willie McCown.

There was a dance at the residence of Mr. Geo. McCown, on Friday night. The town contingent went out in wagons, and had a merry time both going and while at the house. The following are the names of those who were present: Misses Sadie Dargan, Edna Dargan, Mary Law, Maggie Law, Ida Law, Edith Low, Laura Law, Ola Rast, Mamie Keyley, May McCall, Marie Lade, Bessie Ervin.

Messrs. Charles W. DuBose, Eugene Vaughan, Harry Smith, E. D. Montgomery, H. J. Boatwright, W. A. Parrott, E. B. Dargan, O. O. Riddle, T. J. DuBose, Charlton Law, Fred W. Law, R. Lawton Dargan.

We are very anxious to secure the services of a reliable correspondent at the following places, the persons who had arranged to act as such having signally failed to keep their promises, Dovesville, Society Hill, Riverdale, Timmonsville, Lydia, Oats, Hartsville, Swift Creek, Lamar and any other sections where we have no correspondents. If any intelligent lady will undertake to send us the items of news from her sections, we will give a Lady's Magazine as premium, and also furnish them with the necessary stationery and stamps. If the correspondent is a gentleman we will send him a suitable premium in the way of an agricultural or literary newspaper. Please let us hear from you without delay.

Mr. Mooney has just completed two very fine mantel pieces that he proposes to exhibit at the State Fair. One is made of walnut and the other of oak, both native growth, and the wood is very close grained and is beautifully polished. They reflect a great deal of credit on the taste and skill of Mr. Mooney, as the designs and work are both his own. They were made for the large double parlors of Col. McIver's residence and will be put in position after the Fair. Another fact in connection with Mr. Mooney's work is that his prices are lower than is charged elsewhere for similar work. Mr. McFall has a mantel piece, made by Mr. Mooney, in his new house, that he says is a better piece of work than one he saw that was made in Chicago, and that cost a great deal more money. People who are judges of such work ought to call at Mr. Mooney's and see these fine specimens of his skill.

So far as we can learn the sales at the tobacco warehouses have been satisfactory to all concerned, and the inauguration of the enterprise can be truthfully called a success. When the fact is considered that the business is a new and our farmers entirely inexperienced in its culture and curing, it is a wonder that they have done so well. There is every reason to feel encouraged, and we predict that in a year or two the acreage, in this county, will be largely in excess of what it now is, and it will have passed far beyond the range of an experiment. The demand for fine tobacco is on the increase and it is very improbable that the supply will ever exceed the demand. The tobacco business has built up some of the finest towns in North Carolina and there is no reason why it won't do the same for Darlington, that is be of great help in adding to the population and wealth of the town. We hope that a factory will soon be built.

Mr. J. H. Schmid has in his yard, next to our office, two English walnut trees that bore nuts for the first time this year. The trees are about twelve or fifteen feet high, and were full of fruit in the Spring, but a good deal of it was lost by a very severe frost that came late in the season. He gathered about twenty or thirty of the nuts and they are full size and very sweet. It is generally known that the tree is hard in our climate, but most people are deterred from planting them because the opinion prevails that they will not commence bearing before they are twelve or fifteen years old. Mr. Schmid's trees are only six years old and were raised from the seed. He probably threw them back about a year by transplanting them, which should never be done, as nut bearing trees have a very long tap root and the nut should be planted where the tree is to stand. The nuts are in steady demand at from thirteen to fifteen cents per pound, and they can be made a profitable crop. They will flourish on the rich hillsides on our streams, making land valuable that is entirely too steep to cultivate. Mr. Schmid has given us a few of the nuts which will be exhibited at the State Fair.

A Complimentary Party. There was a party given at the Cleveland House on Thursday night, complimentary to Miss Carrie Manne, who left on Tuesday for a visit to New York. The persons named below turned out in honor of the young lady. Mr. and Mrs. A. Nachman, " " I. Lewenthal, " " C. Alexander, " " H. Wolfgram, " " E. C. Rotholz, Mrs. Manne, Mrs. Muehels, Misses Carrie Manne, Hannah Manne, Lena Witcover, Essie Witcover, Gerta Marco, B. Weinberg, T. Wolkovisky, Celia Weinberg. Messrs. S. Tombacher, H. Hennig, S. Lewenthal, I. Tombacher, D. Witcover, H. Macy, P. Lewenthal, S. Menne, H. Lewenthal, S. Kalmus, M. Lewenthal, C. Kalmus, S. Harris.

Another Shooting. On Thursday last, Mr. Rowe, of Bennettsville, took exception at something said by Judge Townsend, in the court house, and cowhided him. The next day Mr. Frasier, son-in-law of the Judge, resented the insult and he and Mr. Rowe had a fight, during which Mr. Frasier was seriously shot by Mr. Rowe. Friends of both parties rushed up with drawn pistols, and but for the efforts of Sheriff Rogers and some other gentlemen, who were attracted by the firing, a bloody row would have ensued. Mr. Rowe claims that he expected to be shot himself and was acting in self defense. We have no intention of prejudicing the case either way, but from all we can gather the cowhiding of Judge Townsend was hardly justifiable, especially when the fact is considered that, so far as report goes, he was not given an opportunity to retract or apologize for the language used. Both of the principals have numerous relatives and friends, and if these friends had acted promptly, and had had both of them put under peace bonds, the shooting of Mr. Frasier would have been avoided, but we suppose that it is the same old story, that no one thought the matter would be carried any further, and did not interfere until too late. The whole affair is deplorable viewed from any standpoint, and furnishes another illustration of the utter disregard of human life that so universally prevails.
