Scrambling for Our Shees. The fact that the editorship of the Advocate by a layman "has often occurred" to editor Woods of the Darlington Herald explains his position fully. The South Carolina Conference will not likely gratify his vanify however. We are not at all opposed to the election of a layman to the position which we may vacate, if the Conference sees fit to do so, nor are we especially opposed to the candidacy of editor Woods. But we do protest against his slanderous references to the preachers of the South Carolina Conference. He and editor Petty (whom he quotes so unctuously) intimate that the preachers of the Conference are scrambling for the place which we may or may not va-cate. These inshuations are indecent and untr.e. If there is sny candidate among the preachers for the editorship of the Advocate we have not heard of it. The preachers for the editorship of the Advocate we have not heard of it. The preachers for the main pelves with accustomed propriety. These laymen, with an eye to the main racket. But they did pot take enough Scrambling for Our Shoes. We are free to confess that it was with some feeling of regret that we

But since the Conference must decide this matter; he has started his candidacy in a very unfortunate way. We are quite sure that our preachers will not enjoy his uncalled for and slanderous suggestion that they are anxiously hoping to step into this office. Our preachers and laymen have maintained a dignified silence about the matter, This silence has only been broken by Editor Petty and Editor Woods. We fear they have done their candidacy serious injury P. S. This colitor has not yet resigned. Don't speak for his shoes before the coffin is ordered.—Southern Christian Advocate.
